

The Centre Democrat

MAN'S DISAPPEARANCE UNSOLVED

150th Anniversary

VOLUME 61. NUMBER 29.

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1942.

SUBSCRIPTION-$1.50 PER YEAR,

Fail to Locate Body In Old Quarry Pond Find Man's Body

Officials Point to Possibil- Boy and Girl Scouts ity Drowning Was "Staged"

DYNAMITE, HOOKS

From Sight While Swimming

Did Clarence Mervin Fisher, 21, of Bellefonte, drown in the waters an abandoned quarry north of or did he fix the stage to make it George Brown, Orlando Smith. appear as though he had drowned before departing safe and sound for other points? That troubling Centre county officials and in the absence of Guy Poorman, the friends and members of Fisher's Scoutmaster. Mr. Poorman will family

First reports of the young man's case of drowning. But police con- and Carolyn Clark. ducting a routine check on the case found some disturbing factors—and when a three-day search of the when a three-day search of the quarry hole by firemen using grap-pling hooks dynamics and other pling hooks, dynamite, and other devices failed to reveal the body. uspicion grew in official circles that perhaps the drowning had been

Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, of East Bishop street, George Hollobaugh, 15, of and Ralph Genua, aged 16, also of East Bishop street, went to the quarry in Fisher's car shortly after 8 o'clock Thursday night for a swim in the deep cold water of the aban-ioned workings. wam about 200 feet, yelled, and dis- tre Hall, last Thursday afternoon, considered an expert swimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Genua thinking little of his com- suffered fatal injuries. red from sight. Fisher was George P. Hollobaugh, 15, son of anion's disappearance, about half-He died at the Centre County Hospital here at 8:30 Thursday the Seven Mountain Boy Scout Res- in which much faith was placed by tist church on Sunday. USED BY FIREMEN ervation and Camp Barree to begin some older residents of this region. ne to two weeks of camping, while Harkening to the story that a loaf appearance.

the same spot.

Mervin Fisher, 21, Drops homes after spending some time at a pond in which a person had drownthe camps.

Members of Troop 2, Bellefonte Boy Scouts, who went to camp Sun-victim, firemen, having exhausted day are: Dick Hazel, Robert Woodring, Robert Murray, Kermit Murray, Linn Tingue, Earl Rockey, Wil-liam Tate, Ray Noll, Roy Britz, Melfantastic method a trial. vin Summers, Frank Musser, William Bellefonte early last Thursday night, Keller, Grant Keller, David Miller,

Paul Houck, Bryan Cartwright, James Richards, James Clark and Donald Ammerman, members of the question last night was troop, will be in charge of the boys spend part of the week at the camp. Bellefonte girls who went to Camp disappearance looked like a clear Barree are Edith Risan, Sarah Risan,

Centre Hall, Dies in Local Hospital

Struck by approximately two tons sons were located by means of the loaf of bread method. It was reporof shale while he and his father ted yesterday that the fire company According to reports. Fisher made a neat dive from the side of the guarry, should "the water's fine." were working at a small quarry on their farm along the Brush Valley road, about three miles east of Cen-Mr. and Mrs. Porter Hollobaugh, fireman commented after Tuesday's

The celebration of the 150th an-Bellefonte firemen, just to please everybody and to prevent anyone niversary of the founding of Milesfrom claiming they overlooked any burg, in progress in that community Angeles Cal.

Additional groups of Bellefonte quarry near Armor's Gap, Tuesday Boy and Girl Scouts left Sunday for evening carried out an experiment and with special services at the Bap-Music.

Firemen Miss No Bets In Effort to 1501

ed would move about and come to and from those who have been attending the daily features.

every other practicable method to locate the body, gave the somewhat ing program has been arranged for this evening. A festival and special music will be among the highlights Securing a loaf of nome-made of the entertainment on Market bread, firemen dropped the loaf into street, which has been roped off for the water. It moved to a spot on festivities during the week. the north side of the pond and more Friday will be Grange day and the than halfway between the lower and program will begin with a parade upper ends of the pool, not far from where Fisher was reported to have been seen a moment before his dis-Believing a freak current may have caused the loaf to move to the spot.

firemen eased it away, and again alto the local defense fund. lowed it to drift. It moved back to The program for Saturday, Anni-Little faith was placed in the inversary Day, follows:

dication of the bread, however, be-2:30 p. m., parade. cause a stiff breeze was blowing and Historical program. it was suspected that the wind had Band Selection. more to do with moving the loaf than any other power. Then, too, firemen reported there seemed to be a kind of opening in the rocks at ell, Esq., Bellefonte, that spot which might have caused a current to draw the bread to the point. Grappling failed to bring re-Bower Resigns Board Elects sults.

Many an oldster tells vivid stories of how, in their youth, drowned per-be verified yesterday. "The test cost only a dime, and there was no harm in trying it," a experiment.

School Heating

Be Closed

Plant Modern

Band selection. Address: Lt. Col. L. T. David, Los

Leave For Camps bets in their efforts to locate the body this week, will come to a conclusion Benediction: Rev. John E. Miles, of Mervin Fisher in the abandoned Saturday afternoon with an Anni- pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church,

An old-fashioned festival spon-The events so far this week have sored by the Woman's Club of been most successful, according to Milesburg will be in progress all afother boys and girls returned to their of home-made bread thrown into reports from the Milesburg Woman's ternoon and evening on Market Club, sponsors of the celebration, street. A first aid tent has been

Today (Thursday) is Firemen's and a physician, Dr. J. C. Rogers of day in Milesburg, and an interest-Bellefonte, will be on call at all two home nurses a first aid nurse times for possible emergencies.

Also on the carnival grounds the Woman's Club has set up a "Friendly Corner" equipped with comfortable chairs, where friends may meet for a chat.

The Centre County political pic-For the closing day, Sunday, Rev. ture underwent a radical change yes- 24th at 7:30 p. m. At 8:30 p. m. a home John E. Miles, of Syracuse, N. Y., terday when it appeared possible talent play will be presented. Special will speak at the 10:30 a. m. service that the county now has no candiexercises by the Juvenile Grange will in the Milesburg Baptist church. Lt. dates on either ticket for the office follow and W. K. Ulerich, of State Col. L. T. David a descendant of the of General Assembly. College, will speak. One half the pro- Green family of Milesburg, former

Augustine Granted a

Leave of Absence

Four new teachers were elected at ceeds of the day's festivities will go assistant attorney for the City of veloped with the announcement by Los Angeles, California, also will Kenneth G. Haines, of Rebersburg, speak briefly at this service. Both that he has been commissioned a several of Milesburg's oldest pioneer ves, and will begin active duty in will be held in the Baptist church week. As a result of his enlistment, Invocation by Rev. H. E. Oakwood. and descendants of the Holt, Miles Historical addresses: Miss Ella and Barnhart families are extended Mr. Haines has withdrawn from the contest for the General Assembly. Levy, Milesburg; J. Thomas Mitch- special invitations to these services Yesterday James R. Riley, of Os ceola Mills, Democratic nominee for (Continued on page Four)

(Continued on Page Two)

ASSEMBLYMAN HAINES

Enters U. S. Navy

Raymond "Red" Shultz, 27, of and Stone Company here.

about a mile from the Bellefonte A barricade of wire fence has been car jumped the track and knocked plant when the rock fall occurred, erected at the lower entrance to the John Daugherty and Oliver Twist Killed at Seeking Extra Gas Hillside Mine Advisers will be available at the office of the Local Rationing Boards NO ONE WITNESSED from 1 to 7 p. m. today, the last of DOUBLE TRAGEDY three days set for filing supplemental gasoline applications, to answer any

ing to F. G. Hoffer, chairman of the Investigation D is closed Centre County War Price and Ra-Car Had Dislodged by typewriter, ink or indelible pencil In one swift stroke tragedy snuffand signed in ink and must be signed by the applicant's employer. Na- ed out the lives of two Philipsburg ture of employment should be given miners Monday afternoon at the in detail and mileage required for Hillside Coal Company mine in occupational driving clearly stated. South Philipsburg.

Prop

Those who failed to register for Oliver Twist, 52, and John Daughbasic "A" Book must wait until July erty, 56, were killed when a huge 4th. Inasmuch as trucks have no basic crushed them. The accident is be-

Falling Rock Brings

Today Last Day For

All applications must be filled out

Watershed at

Russell Rider Enters

Fleet Post Office service.

College Closed

tioning Board.

Death to Two Miners

allotment, all truckers should im- lieved to have occurred shortly after mediately file applications so the noon but was not discovered for Boards can give them prompt atten- some time afterwards.

The two men, both veters n miners, were working together in the one Dealers and distributors will regheading. There were no other workister on July 22 after taking a phyers nearby and it was not until sical inventory of gasoline on hand. Motorman Mike Czar made a trip into the heading to remove the loaded cars that an accident was suspected Czar had been there an hour and a half earlier and everything was normal, but on this trip he saw the big rock down and yelled for the two men and received no response. He then went into another heading, the nearest point where others were working, and asked if the two miners had been there. Receiving a negative answer, he told of the rock fall and led others to the scene. Both men were under the rock and had been killed instantly. Investigation of the accident disclosed that the two men were dropping a car out of the place (pushing a loaded car out of the room where Shultz was working in No. 14 slope will prosecute trespassers on the be hauled from the mine) when the

This rather unusual situation dedistinguished guests are members of Lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserthe public relations department At 7:30 p. m. an evening service the Philadelphia Navy Yard late this

General Assembly, was inducted into

Authority Prohibits Trespassing on Tract in Shingletown Gap

The State College Borough Auth-Milesburg, suffered an injury about ority has secured control of the en-the back Saturday morning when tire 1600-acre watershed of Shinglesome rock fell while he was at work town Gap through purchase, lease, in the mine of the American Lime or condemnation proceedings and in and swam to the spot, but could night, after an operation performed not locate him. He was joined a few in an effort to save his life. moments later by Arnold Koch, 15. William Pettingill, 15, and Ralph Bottorf, 14, all of Bellefonte, who sete getting dressed when Fisher about 4:30 o'clock when a section of and Genua arrived at the quarry to rock about twelve feet above them wim. Genua and the three other gave way and fell. Hollobaugh was (Continued on Page Seven)

236 Selectees Called For Exams

1; 138 From Board

No. 2

Ninety-eight "men" from Local Centre County Coroner Charles Draft Board No. 1. State College, Sheckler, of Milesburg, after con- the heat will be adequate and that keting Pennsylvania's potatoes and and Lititz high. went to Altoona Saturday morning ducting an investigation ruled that a constant supply of fresh warm air in creating public interest in the for final army physical examina- an inquest would not be necessary will be supplied into the rooms at State's potato industry. He was in- the late M. Harold Betz, of Howard. tions while Local Board No. 2, of and certified that death had result- all times, but only under one condi-Bellefonte, sent 83 men to the same ed from an accident.

falling stone.

examining point Monday, and 55 on Tuesday, making a county total for son of Porter and Esther Krepp Holthe week of 236. This total was some- lobaugh and was born in Altoona on what short of the 274 the two boards April 10, 1927, making his age at had been assigned to produce in the time of death 15 years, 2 months current call. and 29 days. Surviving are his par-

On the original list of those who ents and these brothers and sisters: were to go to Altoona Tuesday was Doris, Carolyn, Kenneth, William, Harold E. Drury, of Philipsburg, but Betty and Linda, all at home. his name was stricken from the ros- Funeral services were held Monter at the last moment when he en- day afternoon at the home with the listed in the Marines and was sent Rev. Mr. Stoll of Altoona, officiating. to Parris Island, S. C., for prelim- Interment was made at Mill Creek, nary training. Huntingdon county

Those who went to Altoona from Local Draft Board No. 1, State Col- AWOL Soldier Admits lege, Saturday, were:

Clarence A. Mason, State College; James W. Hassinger, Pennsylvania Furnace; Charles D. Hull, Belle-fonte, R. D. 1; Ralph Lick Reber, Harrisburg; Lynn G. Winters, Mc-Elhattan; Jean P. Hauser, State Col-(Continued on Page Eight)

Townsend Meeting July 17 There will be a Townsend meeting in the Court House, Friday, July 17. at 7:30 p. m. Mr. L. W. Minniek, Townsend organizer, will be the

Service Coupon Appears Today for County Men

Elsewhere in today's paper ap-pears a box for listing the names of Centre County men, in the of Centre County men- in the armed forces of the United States and Allied Nations.

Families, relatives and friends of men or women in service are urged to fill in the blanks and mail or bring them to The Centre Democrat office

Democrat office. The information submitted is desired for compilation of a com-plete record of county residents erving in this war.

Extra copies of the coupon are available at this office.

Ample Heat, Fresh Air Assured, But Windows Must bending over at the time and the rock struck him around the small of the back and hips, throwing him forward to the ground. The force of the blow threw him away from the and teachers, whose complaints

Mr. Hollobaugh immediately system at the old Bellefonte Acad-98. Sent from Local Board No. him to the hospital, but he was un- pointed, will be happy to learn that conscious upon arrival here. Sur- heating and ventilating facilities in geons performed an operation to re- the new building are as modern as make them. never regained consciousness.

Positive assurance is given that tion

That condition is, somewhat oddly. that all doors and windows of classrooms be kept closed at all times. Morris Campbell, representative of Hunter & Caldwell, Altoona architects who designed the building, said the heating and ventilating system and soils. is the most modern known-except that it doesn't provide for refrigeration of air in warm weather. In each classroom, Mr. Campbell explained, there is one or more heat-(Continued on Page Eight)

Markland Hotel Sale Grosses $7,500 Larceny of Automobile

Gross sales at the Markland Hotel Pleading guilty to a charge of sale held here Wednesday, Thursstealing an automobile, James T. day and Friday of last week totaled Nolan, 17, who declared himself to approximately $7,500, it was reportbe AWOL from his military police ed yesterday.

outfit in New London, Conn., was The merchandise was of unusually committed to the county jail by Jus- high quality and was in excellent tice of the Peace John D. Hart, of condition. The sale was featured by State College, last Wednesday. large crowds and spirited bidding.

Nolan had been in the State Col- Most all articles brought good prices. lege lock-up since his arrest in Har- Entire management of the salerisburg for taking the car of New- one of the largest held in Bellefonte speaker. Everybody is invited to ton Hartswick from behind the I. O. in many years-was in complete come and hear the latest news on O. F. building, June 23. He told po- charge of L. Frank Mayes, veteran lice of a long trip in the car. Lemont auctioneer. who was ably Authorities will hold Nolan at the assisted by his partner, Herbert J. jail until the next term of court or Stover, of Coburn. until military authorities arrive to #### make disposition of the case. Old Paint Brushes Needed In War Work Westervelt Leaves

Local Airport Post Claster's are cooperating with the Bristle Reclamation Plant of Louis-

Gap, for the past 12 years employed paint-hardened brushes lying for- history tells us; and, true or false, that it was unnavigable, a fact that by the Civil Aeronautics Authority gotten in attics, cellars and garages at the radio station at the Belle- all over town. fonte airport, and for the past three Bristles are needed badly for they qui-centennial observance.

had been assistant operator, has way to reclaim bristle from used been named to Mr. Allen's former paint-hardened brushes.

to their new home on Long Island. forms.

past six years secretary, treasurer, a regular meeting of the Bellefonte Pive other workmen near him at the watershed and trespass signs have and general manager of the Penn- School Board, Monday night. One time escaped injury. sylvania Co-operative Potato Grow- of the teachers replaces Glenn Auers' Association, tendered his resig-nation from that post effective July Derr, resigned; another Ralston the Centre County Hospital in the E. E. Widdowson ambulance, and x-number of popular picnic sites.

Potato Office New Teachers

Report Bellefonte Head- Aumiller, Derr Resign; families

l, it was reported yesterday. Augustine, who was granted leave Reports from Williamsport are to of absence for military duty, and the Shultz remains under treatment at sons respect and obey the posted Fire Company will be held from the effect that directors of the as- fourth will occupy a new position. sociation, meeting in that city Sat-The new teachers are:

urday, voted to shift the headquar-Mary Katharyn Burket, Warriors ters office from Bellefonte to Wil- Mark, granddaughter of William liamsport, but no confirmation of Tressler, of West Howard street, Bellefonte High School students the report could be obtained here. Bellefonte. Miss Burket studied at It was reported from Williamsport the Warriors Mark high school, Junabout the heating and ventilating that Dr. E. L. Nixon, State College, lata College and Penn State Colagricultural counselor of the Penn- lege, being graduated from the latter placed his son in a car and rushed emy building have been loud and sylvania Chain Store Council, was institution in 1935 with second honinstrumental in having the head- ors. She taught in Johnstown, also Warriors Mark, and Tyrone. quarters moved from Bellefonte. Mr. Bower's plans for the future Miss Mary Elizabeth Fletcher, of pair internal injuries, but the youth present-day science knows how to have not been made known. During Mt. Joy, graduate of Mt. Joy high his tenure in office, the association school in 1936, and Penn State Colmade vast strides forward in mar- lege in 1940. Taught in Altoona high

> Mrs. Ruth Lucas Betz widow of strumental in founding Camp Po- Mrs. Betz is a graduate of Altoona tato, near Coudersport, which is high and Otterbein College, and also (Continued on Page Five) probably the most unique farm of its kind in the country. There experts devote their time to the im-Complete Plans for provement of present strains and testing out new strains of potatoes suitable to Pennsylvania's climate quarters Office to Go to Williamsport

Ebon Bower of Bellefonte, for the

Mr. Bower also instituted a statewide potato inspection system, and edited the association's magazine. For the past several years Mr. Bower has been assisted at the local offices by Miss Erma Sloop, who is continuing in that position.

> 5 Men Listed By Local Draft Board each evening.

In addition to the usual carnival

Local Draft Board No. 1, at State College, Monday, listed five regis-will be on sale. trants as being delinquent in keeping Following are the chairmen of urgent appeal for public safety. It the board informed on change of committees in charge of this year's is hoped that everyone will give genaddress and requested the men to carnival:

the

fonte

get in touch with the board before Building, Andrew Knapik; prizes legal action is taken. Mrs. John Woods; Bingo, Andrew Those listed are Melvin Rodney Knapik; refreshments, Mrs. Ralph Hockenbury, Albert Boardman Moerschbacher; games, Martin Mil-Brown, Russell Auman Sweetwood, ler and John Woods, and kitchen, William Frederick Holderman, and Mrs. Ruth Casper. The public is in-Ray Orvis Auman. vited to attend

How Milesburg 'Missed the Boat'

Milesburg's 150th anniversary, standing claim that the town stood being celebrated this week, recalls to mind the oft-repeated story of how Eagle Creek, which placed it in posithe town, by a clever ruse on the part tion of commanding transportation of a group of Bellefonte citizens, lost by boat.

the opportunity of becoming the True, Bellefonte, two and a half miles away, could boast of Spring county seat. Richard Westervelt, of Pleasent ville, Kentucky, to dig out all the old boat" proverbially and factually. Milesburg, but its rivals pointed out as an amusing sidelight of the ses- alry continued to wax more intense-Back in the days when Centre legislature, then in session, to decide airport, has been promoted to oper-ator in charge and Robert Hill, who erican ingenuity has, discovered a the legislature for the coveted grant. ing how the emergency might be Milesburg had several convincing met and the prize secured for Bellebeen named to Mr. Allen's former position. The Westervelt family on Saturday moved from Pleasant Gap to their for our fighting forces' uni-first postoffice to be established in enough volunteers'to carry it through.

the county; and second, the out-(Continued on Page Seven) The injured man was taken to several points to warn the public rays revealed the back injury. The authority asks that all perthe hospital.

Civil Defense Units Organize

Pleasant Gap Group to Conduct House-to-House Canvass For Funds

A meeting was held in the Pleas- ority said. ant Gap Fire Hall Thursday night, The authority taking the action July 9. for the purpose of organizing was incorporated June 17, 1940 and the various groups interested in at present consists of five members, civilian defense in that community. property owners and residents of the borough, who have as their duty the Air raid wardens, auxiliary firemen, auxiliary police, nurses and determining of all policies of water first aid groups will work together works operation and construction.

in this new organization, which is Contemplated improvements will to be known as the Pleasant Gap De- provide State College with an ample supply of "good, soft mountain water fense Council. Elmer Noll was named president for some years to come," the state-

Catholic Carnival and Jean Harris as secretary-treas- ment said. Plans are completed for the an-Within the next ten days members nual carnival sponsored by St. John's of this group will call at all homes Catholic church of Bellefonte to be in Pleasant Gap for contributions held Thursday, Friday and Satur-day on the grounds at the rear of medical and other supplies for the Undine Fire Company, Belle- casualty station in the Grange hall.

which would be an emergency hos-Music will be furnished each night pital in the event of any disaster; by the American Legion Jr. Band of and to buy first aid supplies and Bellefonte. The band will parade equipment for air raid wardens, through Bellefonte's main streets auxiliary firemen and police and first aid groups. The unit is striving to be equipped not only for war, but for any disaster which might occur. This is an urgent appeal for public safety. It

Fillmore Woman Is

Bitten by Police Dog here for the time being. Mrs. Charles Harshbarger, of Fillmore, underwent treatment at a Bellefonte physician's office last Many Gas Ration Applications Unsigned Thursday evening for a severe gash about the calf of the left leg suffer-

John Sommerville, chairman of ed when she was bitten by a neigh-Rationing Board No. 2, of Bellefonte bor's dog Dog Law Enforcement Officer yesterday reported that a number of George Peters, of Philipsburg, inves- persons applying for supplemental tigated the matter and directed that gasoline failed to sign their applithe dog, a "police" breed, be kept cations and that such applications penned up pending the possible de- will not be acted upon. velopment of rabies. Mrs. Harshberger was given tetanus anti-toxin to present possible blood-poisoning fill out new ones and have them

He said the board hasn't the time To Hear Talk on Salvage Campaign or the facilities for returning the The Pleasant Gap Brotherhood speak about materials we lege, yesterday announced that a who recently entered the U.S. armwill

It it the duty of citizens to become way users, on Monday and Tuesday, move to Bellefonte as soon as suit-informed relative to this important July 21 and 22, from 8 a. m. to 8 able living quarters have been ob phase of the war effort. p. m.

been erected along the wire fence at

Logan Carnival to Be Held July 23-25

The annual carnival of the Logan warnings. Water works employees Thursday to Saturday, July 23 to 25. have been instructed in the proced- inclusive, it was announced this ure to follow in case of violations. week by Herman Hazel, chairman Violations will be punished as pro- of the carnival committee.

The event will be held on East vided by law, the announcement said. "This watershed is used exclusi- Howard street in the area adjacent vely to supply water to your homes to the Logan fire house, according and business places. It is imperative to present plans. It is planned to especially since our country is at rope off a section of that street war, that your water supply shall while the carnival is in progress, Mr. not be interrupted, thereby endan- Twenty-five per cent of the net gering public morale, health, and proceeds from the carnival will be safety," a spokesman for the auth- turned over to the local Civilian Defense Fund.

> Houserville Church Homecoming July 26

The Houserville United Brethren church annual homecoming services will be held on Sunday, July 26, with Rev. K. T. Barnette, of Altoona, as the speaker for the evening service.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. 2:45 p.m. and 7:45 p.m. in addition to Sunday school at 9:30, and Christian Endeavor at 6:45. This is the 89th anniversary of the founding of Navy Postal Service the church. Rev. O. A. Woomer is the pastor.

Russell S. Rider, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, Monday departed USO Drive Total Is for New York City to enter the U.S. $66.12 Short of Quota

Monday of last week, Mr. Rider took an examination at Pittsburgh Of a quota of $2500 set for the for the fleet post office service and Bellefonte area in the USO drive received notice of his acceptance which was conducted recently, a tolast Thursday. He expected to be tal of $2.433.88 has been received to date, it was announced yesterday by assigned to land duty. During World War 1 Mr. Rider officials.

served in the U. S. Navy and for the Final reports from several outlypast 12 years he has been employed ing regions are expected to put the at the Bellefonte postoffice. He is drive well over the quota, officials married and there are two children said. in the family. Mrs. Rider and the children will continue their residence BHS Band Carnival Will Net Nearly $500

> The Bellefonte High School Band carnival, rained out Friday night, was held Saturday night and Monday night on the school commons beside the Dale school building, North Allegheny street, with large attendances both nights.

Officials yesterday reported that gross receipts totaled approximately $700 and that the net proceeds are expected to be nearly $500.

NAMED ASSISTANT MANAGER OF LOCAL WOLF STORE

Melvin B. Ghathams, for the past four years employed by the Wolf Furniture Company at the Philips-burg store, has been transferred to Bellefonte as assistant manager of the local store. He takes the posi-Rationing Board No. 1. State Col- tion made vacant by Wilford Fisher.

tained.

He advised all persons who have properly signed before submitting them for the board's consideration from the injury.

will meet at the Methodist church

SPECIAL REGISTRATION

unsigned forms at Pleasant Gap, Thursday evening, July 16, at 7:45 o'clock. A. W. Clyde, of State College, who