A WAR-TIME NECESSITY

War has put heavy loads on telephone lines. We cannot add to our facilities, for the materials needed to do so are going into the shooting side of the war. We must make the most of what we have. More people must share party lines. If you are on a party line, you make it possible for others to have service.

So share the line. Don't make unnecessary calls. Before you call, think what you are going to say so that calling back will be unnecessary. Keep your conversations as short as possible.

Cooperation on party lines is more than a matter of courtesy-it's a war-time ne-
