—We finished mailing out statements this week to our subscribers whose subscriptions are either due or past due. Since the Government is urging people to pay off their debts it would be greatly appreciated if our subscribers who are in arrears would accept this timely advice. The date on the pink label shows the expiration date of your subscription and it is a very simple matter to figure out how much you owe. Newspapers have been hit by curtailment of national advertising, so we must depend upon paid up subscriptions to keep going. Surely you will co-operate.
