

Congratulations

TITAN METAL MANUFACTURING CO.

For an amazing record in the short time since you "enlisted." A miracle, if you please.

The Pride of Your Official Recognition Will Be Shared By All!

Bellefonte Moose Lodge

ation performed by Dr. Mervine, of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Shawley have moved from the L. G. Peters apartment in Central City, to the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Confer in Milesburg.

John Smith, who has been employed in New York State, is taking a vacation to do some much-needed work at his home here. He expects to return to work in about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keen spent Sunday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. James Wallace returned home from the hospital during the past week and is getting along nicely.

It is becoming apparent that trade unionism must learn the same lesson it was necessary to teach earlier, that its own selfish interests cannot be advanced at the expense of society. This nation is still greater than any of its component parts.

Lewisburg Gun Salvaged

Added to the Union County Salvage program last week was the huge cannon and machine gun, contributed by Krater-Dull Post, American Legion at Lewisburg. Commander H. Michael Wolfe and a number of fellow Legionnaires spent several strenuous hours moving these grim relics of World War I from their local resting places and starting them on their way to more steel. The four-ton contribution was bought by a local junk dealer and the proceeds will be used for purchasing bonds. The gun had been located at the Union County Court House.

Brothers United in London

A war miracle really happened a week ago Sunday, when Walter and John Webster, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Webster, of Wellsboro, serving with the armed forces of two different countries, met and dined together in the American Eagle in London. Walter, with the Royal Canadian Air Force, and John with a division of the U. S. Army, are stationed about 700 miles apart, according to a cablegram received by their parents Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rinehart of State College, Pa., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Leda, to Russell E. GOOD LIGHT AND BRIGHT SCHOLARS

An I.E.S. lamp, with plenty of well diffused light, is real encouragement to home workers.

Protect your children's eyes by supplying an I.E.S. lamp, by keeping it free from dust, by using the right size bulb, by seeing that it is placed so that the light falls on the work.
