Methodist Church: Prayer service Thursday evening. Sunday school on Sunday morning at 9:15; Youth Fellowship in the evening at 6:30, followed by the regular preaching service, at which time will be conducted Communion service in keeping with the World's Communion Day. Service at 7:30 p. m. in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. A. B. Stere.

Presbyterian Church: Bible study class Monday evening at 7:30, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Stere. Free Methodist Church: Beginning on Tuesday, September 29th, special evangelistic services are being conducted in the Free Methodist church and will continue each night until Sunday, October 11. Evangelist O. R. Tessaro of Greensburg, will be in charge of all services and will give a story of his life along with other messages. His conversion was so thorough and genuine that he gave up a $10,000 a year job and refused a gift that would net him $20,000 a year, to follow Christ. Come and hear his many interesting messages and events which happened through his life.

Birthday Party: A very delightful birthday party was occasioned last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flick in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Flick. It was a complete surprise to the guest of honor but thoroughly enjoyed. Refreshments were served. Close relatives and neighbors were the only guests.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Eva Rowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keatley and her mother, who have been visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Keatley for the past week, returned to their homes in Washington, D. C., on Monday of this week.

Mrs. C. C. Holtzworth of Fairmount W. Va., who has been ill with pneumonia and confined to the hospital there, is reported as improving but still compelled to remain in the hospital for several weeks yet. Her many friends and relatives around here are glad to learn of her improvement but trust her complete recovery may be speedy.

A recent letter received by the writer of this column from a former resident of this community, Mr. George L. Moran, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, revealed that George and his family are doing fine in the West. George has a son, George, Jr., who is a very bright young man, having graduated from Wheaton College with B. A. honors, also traveled with the Wheaton College quartet for years as piano soloist. He has now entered Princeton Seminary where he will complete his education, and upon completion of his education there will be ordained as a Presbyterian minister. We are glad to learn of the success of the boys who have left our community. George has built for himself and family a fine home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which is right along the main highway to the coast. For a long time he has driven to the coast have evidently passed his home not knowing it was anyone they knew of. He has asked to be remembered to Mr. J. C. Fox and H. E. McElwain and other friends in the community. George reads the Centre Democrat which is a good indication he is still interested in Unionville, being so far away from his former residence.

Taxpayers, don't forget this is the last week to pay your tax before the regular 5 per cent is added to school tax. Time expires October 1st, but will be extended to Monday, the 5th. No extension. Money advanced as all accounts will be closed this day for the period ending October 1st.
