Man Captures Hit-Run Driver

to the right, but the left front of his car was struck by the left front of the machine operated by Stahl. Stahl did not stop, but his motor stalled when he ran into a bank on the other side of the highway. By that time Mr. Schultz was out of his car, uninjured, and he crossed the road with the intention of removing the keys from Stahl's car. Noticing that the door on the driver's side was locked, he went around the machine and was reaching into the car with his left arm when Stahl suddenly threw the car into gear and shot ahead, throwing Mr. Schultz 10 feet to the highway, where he rolled over several times. Arriving there, the officer said he could not take the man into custody since it was about 25 feet east of the borough limits, whereby Mr. Schultz promptly escorted Stahl to a point inside the borough. Then the officer took the driver before a physician who declared him intoxicated. He was later arrested at his home by the Motor Police.

President Asks for 18 and 19-Year Draft mounting losses in men and material cannot be fully replaced. Germany and Japan are already realizing what the inevitable result will be when the total strength of the United Nations hits them—at additional places on the earth's surface.

"The war of nerves against the United Nations is now turning into a boomerang. For the first time the Nazi propaganda machine is on the defensive. They begin to apologize to their own people for the repulse of their vast forces at Stalingrad, and for the enormous casualties they are suffering.

"They are compelled to beg their overworked people to rally their weakened production. They even weekly admit, for the first time, that Germany can be fed only at the cost of stealing food from the rest of Europe.

Rush Men Around "They are proclaiming that a second front is impossible; but, at the same time, they are desperately rushing troops in all directions, and stringing barbed wire all the way from coasts of Finland and Norway to the islands of the eastern Mediterranean.

"Meanwhile they are driven to increase the fury of their atrocities. On the question of lowering the age limits of the draft so that youths of 18 and 19 will be included, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"All of our combat units that go overseas must consist of young strong men who have had thorough training. A division that has an average age of 23 or 24 is a better fighting unit than one which has an average of 33 or 34. The more such troops we have in the field, the sooner the war will be won, and the smaller the cost of casualties.

"Therefore, I believe that it will be necessary to lower the present minimum age limit for selective service from twenty years down to 18. We have learned how inevitable that is—and how important to the speeding up of victory."

On Manpower Problem "Turning to the manpower problem, he said the Nation was "learning to ration materials" and now must "learn to ration manpower."

"First, to select and train men of the highest fighting efficiency needed for our armed forces in the achievement of victory over our enemies in combat.

"Second, to man our war industries and farms with the workers needed to produce the arms and munitions and food required by ourselves and our fighting allies to win this war.

"In order to do this we shall be compelled to stop workers from moving from one war job to another as a matter of personal preference; to stop employers from stealing labor from each other; to use older men, and handicapped people and more women, and even grown boys and girls, wherever possible and reasonable, to replace men of military age and fitness; to train new personnel for essential war work, and to stop the wastage of labor in all non-essential activities."

Recommended For Award The Middle Atlantic Association of the A. A. U. has recommended that Norwood (Barney) Ewell, of Penn State College, be awarded the Sullivan award as the outstanding amateur athlete of 1942. Ewell, a Lancaster youth, distinguished himself as a track man, especially in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the broad jump. Frank Percival, secretary of the Middle Atlantic group, announced the recommendation.

Man 72, Weds Girl, 21 Among the applicants for marriage licenses was that of Douglas Mains, 72, and Miss Ruth Staley, 21. They are both from Philadelphia.

The complaint of Adolph Hitler, in brief, is that his enemies do not know that he has won the war.

Get in the scrap!

Triple Surprise It wasn't much of a surprise when Private Earl Thompson of Racine, Wis., was informed that the stork had made its expected visit to his home. The surprise came, however, when he learned that instead of one "bundle of joy" the stork had left three—all girls, each weighing about four and a half pounds.

Family Induction It was a family affair recently when William Henderson, 38; his son Herman, 22, and his two nephews, J. D. Royal and Ernest Jones, 21, all of Mount Over, N. C., were inducted into the army at the same time.

Condition Good Despite the nerve and mind-torturing ordeal, the condition of the fliers was pronounced by the ship's doctor as "surprisingly good, both mentally and physically."

The fliers were transferred to another warship the next morning. Dick Anderson was carried on a stretcher. Bud Anderson (no kin of Dick) and Dryden were able to walk unassisted, but the others required aid. All now show no signs of their ordeal.

Darden said he figured their raft had drifted 200 miles.

Free Under Bond Harry F. August, of Avis, was given a hearing before Alderman Mark Brunant at Lock Haven Friday afternoon on a charge of accepting relief checks totalling $160.01 while he and another member of his family were gainfully employed. He is free under $400 bail, pending the decision of the alderman. He was arrested Wednesday by the State Motor Police.

Wings of Victory
Electricity helps make America's war planes some of the world's most deadly weapons. Here are a few of the ways in which G-E equipment serves in the air.
1. Lamps are the eyes of the plane at night, ranging in size from cock-pit lamps no larger than a pea to landing lamps of more than half-a-million candlepower.
2. Radio combines the voice and the ears of the plane, allowing communication between the pilot and his squadron, and the ground and sea forces.
3. Instruments are the sensitive brain that relays messages to the pilot from all parts of the ship and helps him to control the plane in its flight.
4. Superchargers are the lungs of the plane, pumping extra oxygen to the carburetors, giving our planes the altitude so necessary to modern warfare.
