Presbyterian Church: Bible study class Monday evening, Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Morrison. Last Sunday evening in the regular services they had a fine display of canned goods and other articles which had been gathered up as their harvest home contribution to the Home for the Aged in Hollidaysburg.

Mr. J. H. Finch was entertained to dinner last Sunday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. Alma Stere, in honor of his 72nd birthday which occurred the following day. Congratulations Mr. Finch, and may you have many more happy occasions such as this.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Curtis, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests at this time of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Brugger. Mrs. Curtis brought with her a most wonderful display of chrysanthemums which had been grown in her gardens at Atlanta, about 60 different kinds. A basket of many colors and varieties was placed in the Methodist church on Sunday morning in memory of her late father, J. E. Brugger, who was a staunch member of the church and Sunday school superintendent for many years.

Guests over the past weekend for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger were their daughter, Mrs. Ward Southard and little son, of Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. George Shipley and daughter, Mary, spent the past weekend visiting with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Cowher of Sandy Ridge.

Taxpayers, don't forget this is the last week to pay your county, state, poor and borough taxes before the 5% rebate is taken off.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hall and family moved last week from the Berg house in Union township, into the Sara Immel property recently vacated by Mrs. Margaret Morrison. Mrs. Morrison moved into the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson, who moved into the Berg house which they recently purchased from Mr. Berg.

Mrs. Florence Miller of Sharon, spent a couple days over the past weekend visiting with her brother and sisters here, Mr. J. H. Finch, Mrs. Alma Stere, Mr. and Mrs. William Summers and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauder. She returned to her home by auto on Sunday afternoon.

The regular monthly business meeting and social of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held next Thursday evening, November 5th at the church. This is the meeting in which all members will bring in their foot of dimes, so please all be on hand and make this meeting a success. December meeting will be the annual election of officers.

Mrs. Louise Tinguet Stere has a tan colored polo coat, size 16, which she wishes to sell and anyone interested may call on her, or inquire through the writer of these items. Call her at 2902 Bellefonte, or her former home here, 104R4.

Mrs. Lewis Watson and son of Altoona, spent the weekend visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger.

Mr. G. W. Holt returned to his home Saturday from the Phillipsburg hospital, where he had been confined for the past week or more. He is still improving and his many friends trust his complete recovery may be speedy.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Hugh Crumlish cared for her little granddaughter over the weekend while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Crumlish, were in Washington, D. C.

Chester Rote is home from Philadelphia, where he was under a specialist's care, but is not able to be at work yet. Miss Fleurette Simpson has been helping in the store.

The road from Pleasant Gap to Zion is open to traffic now.

June Eby and mother spent Sunday and Monday with relatives at Chambersburg.

Mrs. Harry Twitmyer had an x-ray taken in the Centre County Hospital last Friday of her knee, which became infected after falling down several stairs a few weeks ago and bruising it. The x-ray showed the bone uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Churchill, the latter being the former Mrs. Mary Woodring of Bellefonte, were guests Sunday at the Fred Roush home.

Miss Jacqueline Lucas, who is in training for a nurse in one of the New York City hospitals, was home for the weekend.

Mrs. Paul Keller of Philadelphia, has been here for more than a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noll. Mrs. Feldman Hamilton and daughter Helen Louise of Houtdale, were called home last week on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Hamilton's father, W. H. Noll, who passed away at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Short private services will be held at the home at 2 o'clock this afternoon on account of the serious condition of Mrs. Noll, who has been bedfast for the past five months. At 2:30 the body will be taken to the Lutheran church where public services will be held. Mr. Noll, who lived to be almost eighty-two years of age, spent sixty of them as a partner of J. Abner Noll, his brother, in the Noll store. He was active in all civic affairs and leaves a host of friends who mourn his passing, and extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

The stork visited the Peter Rose family last week and left them a nice baby girl, and while Mrs. Rose was ill their small daughter, Rosalie, ate her medicine, thinking it was candy. She was rushed to the Centre County Hospital but nothing could be done for her and she died a short time later. Mrs. Rose was taken to the hospital for several days for observation but was able to return home the latter part of the week. Tony Rose, who is stationed at a camp in Georgia, was home on a short furlough.
