received the Yangtze Service Medal and the Soochow Creek Medal for valor under fire.

On May 13, 1936 Corporal Compton re-enlisted in the Corps at Philadelphia and it was during this enlistment, on March 26, 1939, that he and Miss Anne Rumberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Rumberger, of Pleasant Gap, were united in matrimony, the ceremony being performed at the First Presbyterian church in Philadelphia.

In May 1940, Corporal and Mrs. Compton moved from Philadelphia to Pleasant Gap where they expected to make their permanent home, but on December 7, 1940, one year before Pearl Harbor, he was recalled to active service in the general mobilization of U. S. Marine Corps Reserves.

During the past two years he had been stationed successively at Philadelphia; Quantico, Va.; New River, N. C.; Parris Island, S. C. and again at New River before sailing early in June of this year for foreign service.

The name and location of his station overseas is withheld because it may be of value to the Axis forces. The date of his death is not known at present, but internment was made temporarily in the locality where death occurred. Corp. Compton is the fifth Centre countyman to lose his life in World War II.

Corporal Compton was quite well known in the Bellefonte-Pleasant Gap area through his brief residence in the former community and quite frequent visits here after he was recalled to duty.

Deceased is survived by his widow; his parents residing in Shenandoah, and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. George Lockhart, of Berwick; Mrs. Frank Tharp, of Sunbury; Mrs. Eise Linton and Miss Violet Compton, of Williamsport; Albert Compton, of Shenandoah, and Lawrence Compton, of Baltimore, Md.

ENLIST NOW-BE READY TO MAKE HISTORY!

A new and glorious chapter of American history is being written. It is a chapter of adventure—the supreme adventure of all time for young Americans.

On its pages will be the names of millions of young men who now accept the challenge thrown in our free American faces by Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo—accept it and ram it back down their cruel throats!

There's a place on those pages for your name, and the glorious achievements for which you will be honored all the balance of your days.

THE War Department has announced new enlistment opportunities for men of 18 and 19. You can now select and serve in any of 13 different branches of the Army.

There's a good reason why you young men and only you are given that privilege. Men of your age make first-class fighting men. You learn fast. You think and act fast—and in battle that saves lives.

Pick out the branch of service that appeals to you most. You may choose the Army Air Forces (including Aviation Cadets), Armored Force, Cavalry, Chemical Warfare Service, Coast Artillery (Harbor Defense or Antiaircraft), Corps of Engineers, Corps of Military Police, Field Artillery, Infantry, Medical Department, Ordnance Department, Quartermaster Corps or Signal Corps.

You'll get action and adventure in every one of them. You'll be thoroughly trained, and you'll learn technical skills that will be valuable to you all your life. The Army encourages qualified men of your age to apply for Officer Candidate Schools, where many have already won their commissions.

The sooner you enlist the better prepared you will be, and the faster you will advance. Get full information about the branch in which you wish to serve at the nearest Army Recruiting and Induction Station. Talk it over with your parents and your friends. When you step out in the world's most honored uniform you'll know the thrill of saying, "This is my battle, and nobody else is going to fight it for me!"

"It is not enough for our Army to be as big and as well-equipped as the enemy's—it should also be as well-balanced in age groups. The Army invites American youth to answer that challenge."
"The privilege of selecting their branches of the service can safely be given to the men in the younger age group for precisely the reason for which the Army needs them—their adaptability and ready response to training."

Commanding General, Services of Supply
