GARDEN CLUB WITNESSES BLACKOUT DEMONSTRATION

"Blackout Lighting" was the topic of a demonstration by Miss Janet Solsson of the West Penn Power Company at a meeting of the Garden Club Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Light. Miss Solsson brought with her some simple equipment suggested to facilitate living comfortably at home during a blackout.

Among business items disposed of at this meeting was a contribution of five dollars to the USO.

Two new members, Mrs. J. Max Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Jack Kirkpatrick, joined the club at this meeting. These regular members were present besides the hostesses, Mrs. Light, Mrs. Frank Geary and Mrs. Edgar Miller: Mrs. Charles A. Miller, Mrs. T. C. Williams, Mrs. Paul Marz, Mrs. John Whitman, Mrs. Henry Kimbrell, Mrs. J. Harold Durst, Mrs. P. V. Goodhart, Mrs. J. F. Wetzel, Mrs. J. William Bradford, Miss Jennie Thomas, and Mrs. George Heckman.

On Saturday morning a committee including Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Edgar Miller, and Mrs. Goodhart, assisted members of the Lutheran church council in planting a blue spruce tree on the church lawn. The club purchased this tree to be used each year as a community Christmas tree.
