- 1. Does a man ever offer his hand in greeting to a woman?
2. Isn't it bad form for a person to form the habit of criticizing everybody else?
3. When serving tea to guests where tables are not provided, shouldn't one avoid serving anything that requires the use of a fork?
4. What is a good thing to remember about courtesy?
5. When giving a bridge party which follows a luncheon, is the hostess expected to serve sandwiches or cakes during the game?
6. Should a college girl introduce herself as "Miss Hall," or as "Edith Hall"?

8. Are place cards used at a banquet?
9. Should a wife receive her husband's guests at a stag dinner?

Answers to Modern Etiquette

- 1. Under ordinary circumstances, a man never offers his hand to a woman unless she offers hers first. However, if they are intimate friends, they offer their hands simultaneously upon meeting.
2. Yes, decidedly so; and such a person is never popular. "Improve rather by other men's errors than find fault with them."
3. Yes; it is better to avoid the fork.
4. That courtesy begets courtesy. Try to be courteous to everyone, no matter what his station in life may be, and you will attract courtesy whenever you go. Emerson said: "Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy."
5. No.
6. She should call herself "Edith Hall."

- 7. Yes; he should be very careful. One should not write anything that the recipient can resent, or that would cause him embarrassment if the letter were shown to someone else. Remember that a letter is often the basis for a law suit.
8. Place cards are used only at the speaker's table.
9. No. Instead of impressing her husband's guests, this will more likely make them think what a henpecked man her husband must be.
10. The correct form is, "Mrs. White, this is my husband."
11. At the right of the hostess.
12. No. The maid of honor gives it to the bride at the same time that the best man gives the bride's ring to the groom.

YOUR HEALTH

Per means extensive—tussis means cough.
Pertussis means a lot of coughing. Whooping cough, for instance, is scientifically known as pertussis.
Whooping cough is especially serious for young children and infants. Bronchitis, pneumonia and even tuberculosis may follow.

After a child has been exposed to whooping cough, it takes about three weeks for it to develop.
Whooping cough is one of the most difficult diseases to recognize in the early stages because its only symptom is an ordinary cough.
During this earliest week or two of mild coughing the disease is highly contagious.
It is easy enough to know a child has whooping cough once it begins to whoop as the climax to coughing spells which may last a minute or more.
A child under suspicion of having whooping cough should be kept away from other children.
Many children vomit frequently in the latter weeks of whooping cough. This vomiting sometimes seriously affects the child's nutrition.
An attack of this disease, from its earliest inception, lasts at least 4 to 6 weeks.
Children developing whooping cough should be excluded from school or playground and not be permitted to return for 6 weeks after the beginning of symptoms.
The open air, in clear weather, is the best thing for a child with whooping cough.
In open air—but kept away from all other children.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

On Thanksgiving there will be gatherings of families and friends. If you would make this occasion a memorable one, plan early in the week—thus relieving the strain of last-minute details. Here are some recipes that will assist the hostess during the stay of her guests.
Thanksgiving Canape
Toast thin rounds of bread until a delicate brown. Spread with pimento butter made by mixing mashed sliced hard boiled eggs and remove the yolks. Press yolks through a sieve and let fall generously over the buttered toast. In center of each piece of toast place a ring of egg white and fill the center with finely pickled beets.
Sea Food Croquettes
1 cup flaked crabmeat
1 cup cleaned and finely cut shrimp.
Salt and pepper
Juice of 1-2 lemons
1 cup thick white sauce
Mix the meat and season with a little salt, pepper and lemon juice. Add to the white sauce and mix well. Spread on a platter to cool. Shape into balls, make a depression in the top of each ball. Roll them in fine bread crumbs, dip in egg slightly beaten, again in crumbs and fry in hot deep fat. Drain and fill the depression with a little tartar sauce. Garnish with a bit of green and lemon cut in fancy slices.
Cheese and Spinach Timbales
2 cups cooked spinach
1-2 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
Pepper
1-2 cup milk
2 tablespoons butter
1-2 lb. American cheese, grated.
Chop spinach very fine. Beat egg yolks, add milk, melted butter, cheese, seasoning and stir while hot. Mix 1-2 of cheese sauce with the spinach and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Fill buttered timbale molds with mixture and place in a pan of hot water, and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Turn out on a hot plate, garnish with slices of hard boiled egg and pour the rest of the cheese sauce around the timbales.
Scalloped Eggs and Asparagus
6 hard boiled eggs
1-2 cups white sauce
Salt and pepper
3-4 cup buttered crumbs
2 dozen stalks asparagus
Alternate in a greased baking dish, layers of sliced hard boiled eggs and asparagus which have been sprinkled with salt and pepper and white sauce. Put buttered crumbs over the top. Bake in an oven 400 degrees.
Almond Sweet Potatoes
Pare sweet potatoes and boil until tender. Mash well season with salt, pepper, butter and cream. Beat until light. Add chopped almonds. Put in greased baking dish, cover top with whole marshmallows. Bake in an oven 350 degrees until marshmallows are brown.
Harvest Salad
3 cups shredded cabbage
2 canned pimientos
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 green pepper, cut in rings
3-4 cup grated raw carrot
Celery and mayonnaise
Cut the pimento and green pepper into short thin strips and combine with the cabbage and onion. Mix lightly with mayonnaise. Select tender, curved stalks of celery and fill with carrots mixed with mayonnaise. Then cut crossways in 1-2 inch slices. Arrange the cabbage mixture in nests of lettuce and garnish with the celery strips.
Peanut Cake
3-4 lb. butter
7 eggs
1 lb. flour
1 lb. shelled pecans
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1-2 pint rose water
1-2 lb. citron
Cream butter and sugar, add eggs beaten separately and 1-2 the flour. Fold the fruit with the other ingredients. Add baking powder. Add nuts, raisins and citron which has been cut thin. Bake in an angel cake pan in oven 275 degrees for one hour.
