

LOCALS

—Mrs. T. N. Shaughnessy, of East Howard street, spent several days last week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Brumbaugh and family, in Altoona.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall and son, Carl Jr., last week moved from the Daniel Miller apartment in Bush Addition to Montoursville, where Mr. Hall has accepted a position.

—Pvt. Floyd Ammerman, of Bellefonte, who has been with the U. S. medical corps at Camp Pickett, Va., has been transferred to Ft. Benning, Georgia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saylor and the former's sisters, Mrs. Mary Saylor and Mrs. H. E. Dunlap, all of Bellefonte, last Wednesday attended the funeral of their uncle, Andrew Lazor, in Ebensburg.

—Mrs. Roger T. Bayard, of Tyrone, who has been seriously ill for the past six weeks with a heart condition, is reported to be steadily improving. She is now able to be up and about the home a greater part of the day.

—Mrs. Harold Gordon and son, Gary, of East Howard street, and Mr. and Mrs. George Miley, of State College, spent the weekend with Mrs. Gordon's and Mrs. Miley's brothers, Samuel and Donald Benner, Akron, Ohio.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dell Shearer and daughter, Martha Carol, of New Alexandria, last week moved to Bellefonte and are occupying the eastern side of a Bezer house on East Bishop street. Mrs. Shearer is the former Louise Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, of Milesburg.

—Miss Sara Krape, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Krape, of near Bellefonte, who for nearly four years has been employed at the U. S. Employment Service office in the White building, North Spring street, has been transferred to the Lewis-town offices, and began her duties there on Monday.

—Former Judge and Mrs. M. Ward Fleming and daughter, Mary, of East Linn street, spent the weekend with Judge and Mrs. Fleming's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fleming, of near Milesburg. They were joined by their son, John M. Fleming, who is with the U. S. Navy at Bainbridge, Md.

—Arthur Ward, of New York City, and his sister, Mrs. Charles Warren, of Mamaroneck, L. I., came to Bellefonte during the weekend and upon their return east were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Belle M. Ward, of East Linn street, who has cared for her home and who will spend the winter with her daughter, as has been her custom for the past several years.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Knapp of Halfmoon Terrace, returned Wednesday of last week from Philadelphia, where Mrs. Knapp underwent a surgical follow-up clinical test at the University of Philadelphia Hospital. Three months ago Mrs. Knapp submitted to the removal of an oestracoma cyst, or brain tumor, and it will be necessary for her to report in person every three months at the hospital for a precautionary check-up.

—Mr. and Mrs. Morris Campbell and daughter last week vacated an apartment in the Mrs. Belle M. Ward home, East Linn street, and have moved into an apartment in the Stutman residence, West Linn street, where they will reside until they find suitable living quarters in Williamsport. Mr. Campbell, who has been the architect's representative on the Bellefonte High School construction project, has accepted a position at the government ordnance plant in White Deer Valley near Williamsport.

—Joan Marie Crust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crust, of Willowbank street, who weighed only one pound, 16 ounces when she was born at the Centre County Hospital last September 24, now weighs 3 pounds, 13 ounces and is reported to be getting along nicely. The little girl remains at the hospital, where until recently she spent all of her time in an incubator. Now, she spends part of each day out of the incubator and is beginning to take nourishment from a bottle instead of being fed through a tube. Joan Marie has the distinction of being the smallest baby ever to be born at the local hospital. Her physician is of the opinion that she soon will be able to leave the institution.

—A dinner was served last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Newman, at Milesburg, in honor of Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Gettig, on their 25th wedding anniversary. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gettig and children, Jean, Archie, Clarabelle and Vernon Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gettig, and children, Jane, Barbara Edith and Earl, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Blair Newman and daughter, Peggy Elaine; Sgt. Lee Gettig, of Middletown; Miss Pearl Newman, Milesburg, and Pvt. and Mrs. Charles Fogleman, and daughter, Brenda, of Milesburg. Pvt. Fogleman is stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va. The silver anniversary dinner was a kind of family reunion and the day was a most enjoyable one.

—Miles O. Steele, aged 18, son of Mrs. Miles Steele, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., is a patient at the Centre County Hospital, having been admitted Friday for treatment of a fracture of the right arm suffered on November 7, when he fell out of Daniel Swire's car while driving along the old Lewistown Pike, south of Bellefonte. The accident happened when the car door unlatched and swung open while the machine was in motion. Miles was brought to the hospital dispensary for treatment at that time, but when the injury failed to heal, he was admitted for surgical treatment last weekend, and is reported to be recovering satisfactorily from an operation performed Saturday. The young man, his mother, and his brother and sister, Elwood and Miss Joyce, all of Niagara Falls, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Steele's father, D. A. McDowell, at Axe Mann.

—John Conaghan, of the Library apartments, spent the weekend in Brooklyn, N. Y., with his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Reardon.

—George Carpeneto, Jr., of Williamsport, former Bellefonte resident, who entered the U. S. service two weeks ago is now stationed at Miami Beach, Florida.

—Pfc. William Baumgardner has returned to his duties at Ft. Bragg, N. C., after spending a five-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Baumgardner, of Pleasant Gap.

—Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds last week moved from the Reynolds home at the corner of Allegheny and Linn streets, to her home on East Curtin street, which recently has undergone extensive alterations.

—Howard Smith, of State College, president of the Centre County Memorial Park, Inc., is a patient at the Centre County Hospital where he is undergoing treatment for an attack of the grippe. This is the second time Mr. Smith has had the same illness this fall.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Currier returned Monday to their home in Donora, Pa., after visiting for a week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Weaver of Penn street. Mr. Weaver, who is employed at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, was also home over the weekend.

—After spending several days in Bellefonte with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Currier, Jr., of West Linn street, Mrs. Joseph H. Watson, of St. Paul, Minn., last Thursday went to Lock Haven for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Diack, before returning to her home.

—Mrs. Winfield Love, of South Penn street, last week went to Martinsburg to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Kaizen, the reason for her visit at this time being to be with her grandson, Michael Kaizen, who is undergoing treatment for asthma and a sinus condition at Mercy Hospital, Altoona.

—The Young Woman's Guild of the Bellefonte Presbyterian Church will hold a musicale in the chapel of the church on Tuesday evening, December 8, beginning at 8:15 p. m. It was announced yesterday. A number of Bellefonte musicians and musical groups are to appear on the program, which will be announced at a later date.

—Allen Hewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Hewitt, of East Linn street, is suffering from an attack of pneumonia and is under medical treatment at his parental home. Dr. Hewitt has been bedfast since last Friday and during the weekend his illness was diagnosed as pneumonia. He is a sophomore student of chemical engineering at Penn State College.

—Philip Benner Ray, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Ray, of East Curtin street, last Tuesday was discharged from the Centre County hospital and is now reported to be getting along nicely at the Ray home, where a nurse has been aiding in his care. Born prematurely, the youngster was kept at the hospital for several weeks longer than usual in order to build up his weight and strength.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dean Shope, of South Spring street, yesterday observed their 27th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Shope were married in Bellefonte by the late Rev. Youcum, of the Bellefonte Methodist church, and have been residents of this community all their married life. There are two daughters in the family, Mrs. Paul Taylor of Bellefonte and Phyllis, at home. Mr. Shope, employe of the Elcan Metal Manufacturing Company, is president of the union at that plant.

—Ralph "Buck" Toner, of North Allegheny street, for the past 14 years an employe of the Bellefonte postoffice, has enlisted in the U. S. Armed services and departed Tuesday for the Reception Center at New Cumberland, from which point he expects to be assigned to a Volunteer Officers Candidate School. Mrs. Toner, the former Dorothy Lewis, who is now employed in the Extension Department at Penn State College, and the three Toner sons will continue to reside at North Allegheny street, where the youngest is in charge of Mrs. Toner's mother, Mrs. Cordie Lewis, who makes her home with her son-in-law and daughter.

—Best man at the wedding in Grace Methodist church, Harrisburg, Saturday afternoon, of Miss Dorothy Eachel James, only daughter of Pennsylvania's governor, Arthur H. James, and Frank A. Simon, of Austin, was Lt. John Tuten, U. S. A., of Washington, D. C., son of Mrs. Rebecca Tuten, of Harrisburg. The Tuten family formerly resided in Bellefonte, and Mrs. Tuten is a sister of Mrs. Harold Kirk, of West High street, Bellefonte. Ushers at the ceremony included George West, son of former Senator Harry Scott, of Phillipsburg. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Executive Mansion. Mr. Simon is a graduate of Penn State College and Dickinson Law School, and is now deputy Attorney General. He and his bride will live in Harrisburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas and granddaughter, Shirley, of Bellefonte, spent last Wednesday on a combined business and pleasure trip to Williamsport.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wilson and daughter, of Harrisburg, former Bellefonte residents, spent Saturday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Pifer and family of West Bishop street.

—Sgt. Harry Keeler, of Camp Cook, Cal., arrived in Bellefonte on Friday for a ten days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Keeler, and family of Blanchard street.

—Lieut. James Carpeneto, of Ft. Monroe, Va., arrived in Bellefonte, Saturday to spend a ten-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Louis Carpeneto and family, of South Allegheny street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Knisely, who are now occupying the Ripka house on South Water street, are making the Penn State-U. of Penn football game in Philadelphia, Saturday, at 7 p. m. in the commercial department of the Bellefonte High School. All interested persons must be registered by Thursday night, none will be admitted after that date.

—A regular meeting of the Bellefonte Woman's Club will be held Monday evening, November 23, in the Presbyterian chapel. The program will be in charge of the Drama Department. Music will be furnished by Miss Marjorie Wehr, vibraphone soloist.

—Among those from this area who attended the Penn State-U. of Penn football game in Philadelphia, Saturday, were E. K. Stock, Thomas Mensch, Clarence Thompson, Edward R. Miller, Edward Kern, James Decker, Thomas O'Brien and Russell Torsell, all of Bellefonte, and Malcolm Wetzel, of Milesburg.

—Paul R. Emerick, manager of the Penn Belle Hotel, who has been confined to his apartment in the hotel since Sunday because of an attack of pleurisy, yesterday was reported to be responding to medical treatment and his condition was regarded as being satisfactory. Mr. Emerick suffered a severe attack of the same illness about eight years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellerman and Miss Agnes McGowan motored to Washington, D. C., last week for a visit with Agnes Kellerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman, who is in training at Providence Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman returned home Saturday night, while Miss McGowan remained in the city for a longer visit.

—Pvt. Lawrence J. Butler, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roland Butler, is visiting relatives in the Howard area on a three-day furlough before leaving for foreign service with the U. S. Army. Pvt. Butler entered the Army about seven months ago and on November 3 volunteered for foreign service. He has been stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland.

—Robert Schaeffer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer, of East Curtin street, last week enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the Pittsburgh recruiting station and has been sent to a preliminary training center in Maryland. Schaeffer was a member of the senior class and was the chess champion of the Bellefonte high school, but discontinued his studies to enter the armed forces.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Blanchard, of West Linn street, and Mrs. Hassel Montgomery, of East Linn street, the Blanchards attended the wedding of Mrs. Blanchard's niece, Miss Elizabeth Brinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brinton of Philadelphia, while Mrs. Montgomery spent the time as the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Eschrick, and of Miss Margaret Brockerhoff, formerly of Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Enoch H. Adams, of North Allegheny street, suffered painful injuries Monday evening when she was struck by a car while visiting in Pittsburgh. In the accident Mrs. Adams was thrown to the roadway and suffered injuries about one leg, although no bones were broken. She arrived home late yesterday afternoon and is undergoing medical treatment. While Mrs. Adams is not confined to bed she is unable to move about to any great extent.

—Lieut. William S. Crumlish, who for some time has been serving with the Department of Military Science and Tactics at Penn State College, has been transferred to Camp Maxey, Texas, and left yesterday for his new assignment. Lieut. Crumlish, who is in the Engineering Corps of the Army, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Crumlish, of Pleasant Gap. Lt. Crumlish was accompanied by his mother, who will visit with her sister in Dallas for a few days.

—Sgt. Frank H. Hull, with the U. S. Coast Guard at Newport News, Va., arrived in Bellefonte, Friday to spend a week's furlough with his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houser, of North Allegheny street, and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hull, of West High street. Sgt. Hull was advanced to that rank from Corporal, in August, and more recently was transferred to Newport News from Norfolk, Va. Although he has been in the service ten months, Army life is not new to him for he served a three-year enlistment in the U. S. Army in the Hawaiian Islands before the war.

—Frank C. Williams, of Altoona, at one time one of Bellefonte's best known citizens, spent a few days here last week looking over the familiar scenes of his many years' residence here, while superintendent of the old Bellefonte Electric Company. Mr. Williams became superintendent of the local company in 1893 and was employed continuously in that capacity until 1903. Two years later he moved to Altoona where he was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad until his retirement by the company in 1937. Mr. Williams is a native of Curtin, son of the late James and Mary Matilda Williams of that place. He is the father of two sons and a daughter: F. C. Williams, Jr., G. L. Williams, and Helen Ehringer, all of Altoona.

—According to word received by Bellefonte friends, Thomas and William Shalcross, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Shalcross, of Bryn Mawr, former well known residents of Bellefonte, have enlisted in the U. S. Navy.

—Charles T. Noll, employed at the capitol in Harrisburg, motored to Bellefonte Tuesday to attend a Masonic ceremony during which he was presented with a pin in honor of his fifty years of active service in the local Masonic lodge. Mr. Noll, father of Dr. R. P. Noll, of Bellefonte, returned to Harrisburg yesterday.

—The annual union Thanksgiving Day service will be held this year in the Lutheran church of Bellefonte, at 9 o'clock, Thursday morning of Thanksgiving Day. This will be a union service of all the Protestant churches of Bellefonte and all are urged to attend. The Rev. H. C. Stenger, Jr., pastor of the Methodist church in Bellefonte, will preach the sermon on the subject: "A Chain of Providence."

—Harry Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beck of the Schlow apartments, South Allegheny street, departed on Tuesday for Aberdeen, Md., at his first step toward entering the Volunteer Officers Corps. For the past 14 years Harry has been employed as a machinist at the Universal Match Corp. plant here. He is the third member of the family to enter the armed forces. A brother, Staff Sgt. T. S. Grier, on East Linn street, is in the Signal Corps in California. Pvt. Thomas Beck, another brother, is with the Air Corps in Ft. Logan, Colorado. Still another brother, Paul Beck, for some time has been employed as a guard at the Middletown airport.

—The membership of Centre county's two rationing boards has been increased to nine members each. It was announced yesterday by Frederic G. Hoffer, of Phillipsburg, chairman of the County Rationing committee.

—Board No. 1 of State College, was increased in size from three to nine members, and Board No. 2 of Bellefonte, from five to nine members, from its complement of six.

—The appointments, as confirmed by the county committee, composed of Mr. Hoffer and W. W. Sieg of Bellefonte, and E. K. Hilshman of State College, are as follows:

Board No. 1, State College: Ray V. Watkins of State College, was named chairman to succeed Maurice Baum, resigned. Other new members of the board are: R. L. Watts, State College; Guy W. Stearns, Lemont; Frank L. Bentley, State College; Harold E. Alderfer, State College; and W. A. Ross, Port Matilda. Holdover members from the old board are: J. C. Lee, of Spring Mills, who also is the only member of the original rationing board still serving, and H. B. Baisor, of State College.

Board No. 2, Bellefonte: New members are Harry M. Smith, of Bellefonte; R. D. Williams, J. Tucker, of Pleasant Gap, and T. M. Kunes, of Blanchard. Holdover members: John S. Sommerville, chairman; R. E. Kech, Snow Shoe; R. E. Rowles, Phillipsburg; George S. Kellerman, Bellefonte; W. K. McDowell, Howard; and John C. Burger, Phillipsburg.

The boards will meet in the near future to effect their individual organizations and to study methods of procedure. It is planned to allow the work of the boards so that attention of the entire board will not be necessary for all detail work and so that all members share equally in the task. All ration board members serve without remuneration.

The Bellefonte Rationing board, located on West High street, Bellefonte, will be closed Tuesdays and Thursdays until further notice, it is announced by John S. Sommerville, chairman. The office will be closed to the public on those two days to give workers an opportunity to take care of necessary office work, it was stated.

The new schedule, which begins next week, is Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8:30 a. m. to noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m., and Saturdays from 8:30 a. m. to noon.

—The will of the late William J. Noll, Jr., of Pleasant Gap, filed for probate in the offices of Register Harry A. Corman this week, makes provisions for the continuance of the Noll Brothers store at Pleasant Gap which the deceased and his brother, J. Abner Noll, conducted for fifty years.

The will also disposes of the real and personal property of the deceased, including a number of shares of Whittaker Quarries and Pleasant Gap Water Company stock, which were distributed among relatives.

The will was signed March 20, 1937, and the executors are Mr. Noll's son and daughter, Ray C. Noll and Emeline E. Moore.

—Dr. Augustus S. Keck, of Altoona, president-elect of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, will address the November meeting of the Centre County Medical Society Thursday evening, November 19, at the Centre County Hospital on the subject of "Coronary Heart Disease."

—Marriage Licenses: Robert Max Roelofs... Sushton, Kan. Marjorie L. Potts... Humboldt, Kan. Ralph Theophilus... Pittsburgh. Anna Viola Ray... State College.

—Help Wanted: WANTED—Man to drive car and do chores around building at hunting club. W. Meeker, Snow Shoe, Pa. Phone 2101. 42-1f —MARKET QUOTATIONS: Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co., Inc., Flour Mill, Bellefonte. Wheat $1.20, Corn .90, Oats .80, Barley .80, Buckwheat .70.

—WANTED! 100 CARS: '28 to '42 Models. Top Prices Paid! Will Clear Balance Owed, Pay You Cash Difference. W. B. COOK, LOCK HAVEN, PA. Phone 2412.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisements contain more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat whose subscription is paid up to date, is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. Otherwise the subscriber will be charged the regular advertising rate. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Ration Boards Are Enlarged

Watkins New Head of College Group; To Distribute Duties

The membership of Centre county's two rationing boards has been increased to nine members each. It was announced yesterday by Frederic G. Hoffer, of Phillipsburg, chairman of the County Rationing committee.

Board No. 1 of State College, was increased in size from three to nine members, and Board No. 2 of Bellefonte, from five to nine members, from its complement of six.

The appointments, as confirmed by the county committee, composed of Mr. Hoffer and W. W. Sieg of Bellefonte, and E. K. Hilshman of State College, are as follows:

Board No. 1, State College: Ray V. Watkins of State College, was named chairman to succeed Maurice Baum, resigned. Other new members of the board are: R. L. Watts, State College; Guy W. Stearns, Lemont; Frank L. Bentley, State College; Harold E. Alderfer, State College; and W. A. Ross, Port Matilda.

Board No. 2, Bellefonte: New members are Harry M. Smith, of Bellefonte; R. D. Williams, J. Tucker, of Pleasant Gap, and T. M. Kunes, of Blanchard.

Chamber Commerce Committees Named

Chamber of Commerce committees named by Thomas Mensch, Chamber president, to serve during the coming year are as follows:

Membership Committee: S. E. Poorman, chairman, Edward Kofman, Charles Martin, James B. Craig, A. L. Francis, and M. L. Wetzel.

Activities Committee: J. B. DeHass, chairman, Earl K. Stock, Mahlon K. Robb, C. Ward Fisher, and Charles M. Thompson.

Industrial Committee: W. J. Emerick, chairman, Ray C. Noll, Fred Warner, W. W. Sieg, Bayard Magee, Newell B. Long, W. C. Smeltzer, Earl S. Orr, Walter McCormick, Charles Martin, Jesse H. Caum, and George Meeker.

Retail Division Committee: C. C. Brown, chairman, Clyde Stewart, vice chairman, Gover Corman, treasurer, Joseph Wagner, James Logan, W. Hassel Montgomery, O. A. Kline, and George H. Hazel.

Mothers Club Holds November Meeting

The Bellefonte Mother's Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. T. S. Grier, on East Linn street, with 22 members in attendance.

Articles read by members included: "Your Family Will be Mobilized," by Harry Hopkins, read by Mrs. Edward Miller; an article on finance by Mrs. Hays W. Matting, Jr. and article, "Lentils Are Better Than Steak," by Mrs. R. C. Blaney.

Several letters from boys in the armed forces indicated that they are being well fed, and that whatever sacrifices the public is making in foods is worthwhile.

The club is now engaged in making a woolen comfort for the Red Cross. The regular December meeting will be held on December 14 at the home of Mrs. Edward Miller.

Apartment for Rent

FOR RENT—Unfurnished apartment, three rooms and bath. Mrs. Paul Carter, North Thomas street. Dial 2136. 44-1f

FOR RENT—First floor apartment. Four large rooms and bath. 129 N. Allegheny street. Horatio S. Moore, 181 N. Allegheny street. 44-1f

FOR RENT—Three-room apartment on third floor Decker building, corner Spring and High streets. Dial 2621, or inquire of Decker Motor Co. 248

FOR RENT—Front half of attractive two-story house, suitable for two adults and two children. Mrs. R. V. Mull, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 541. 47-1f

FOR RENT—Four-room apartment, furnished. All conveniences, semi-private bath. Possession immediately. Mrs. Ben Becker, 116 E. Logan street, Bellefonte, Pa. 47-1f

FOR RENT—First and second floor, 4-room apartments, heat, garage, garden, light and bath. Located in excellent Mrs. Ben Becker, 116 E. Logan street, Bellefonte, Pa. 47-1f

FOR RENT—Apartments on South 2nd street, Bellefonte. All conveniences. Inquire of Mrs. E. M. Broderick, 203 E. Fairmount Avenue, State College, Dial 2757. 47-1f

FOR RENT—Very large and nice apartment over Everett's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny street, Bellefonte. Hot water; all night heat; 3 bedrooms, 2 connected; front view; large full bath; new kitchen; garage. Write Basil Mott, Spring Mills, or phone Centre Hall 30-R-2. 45-1f

Business Building

FOR RENT—Business building at Colburn, consisting of large 6-room and 8-a-room apartment, garage. A. C. Conifer, Spring Mills, Pa. Phone 22-R-2. 46-1f

Announcements

NOTICE—The Dr. E. B. Widmann and Dr. H. E. Kutz dental offices, located at 116 E. Logan street, will be closed all day Thursday.

BAKE SALE—The annual Thanksgiving bake sale will be held by the Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical and Reformed church, November 25th, at 102 S. Wagner street.

DANCE—Square dance every Thursday night at the Logan Academy, Pleasant Gap. Music by Joe Smiley and his Happy Harvesters of Lewisport. Dancing 8:30 to 12.

DINNER—The Ladies of the Lutheran Church of Pleasant Gap will hold their annual Thanksgiving dinner in Logan Grange Hall, November 26. Price adults 50c; children, 25c.

NOTICE—Until further notice my office will be closed every evening and all day Thursday, due to the fact that the local Rationing Board will hold their annual Thanksgiving luncheon at the necessary gasoline shortage. Dr. E. B. Widmann.

RUMMAGE SALE—The Willing Workers Class of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School will hold a rummage sale Saturday, November 21, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the room under the Brockerhoff Hotel building.

CHICKEN SUPPER—A roast chicken supper will be served in the basement of the Buffalo Run United Brethren church on Friday, November 20, from 6 to 8 p. m. Tickets 50 cents for adults, 30 for children. 47-1f

BAZAR—Mrs. Heverly's class of the Bellefonte Methodist church will hold a bazaar on Saturday, November 21, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the room under the Brockerhoff Hotel building. Baked goods, fancy work, stuffed dolls, etc., will be on sale.

BAZAR—The annual Christmas bazaar of the Bellefonte Episcopal church will be held on Thursday, December 3, at the Parish House. The bazaar will open at 2 p. m. Refreshments will be served. Tickets 50 cents for adults, 30 for children. 47-1f

DEAD STOCK—Removed promptly. B. M. Keller, Millheim, Pa. Phone 83-R-1, or Bellefonte 6168. Reverse charges.

DEAD STOCK—Removed promptly. Call Geo. J. Vogt, Centre Hall 59-R-4, or Lock Haven 2104, at our expense.

DEAD STOCK—Removed promptly. Call anytime at my expense, phone 678-1, Bellefonte, Lloyd L. Smith, Milesburg, Pa. 47-1f

FURNITURE REPAIRED—Repairs made to all kinds of furniture. Upholstering and slip covers made. Wm. D. Thompson's Upholstering Shop, 112 S. Wagner St., Phone 56-R-8, Bellefonte, Pa. 47-1f

SERVICING—Keep your Maytag working. Genuine parts and service. We service all makes of washers and sweepers. Sweeper brushes re-bristled. R. K. Owens Electric Store, S. Allegheny street, Dial 2036. 161f

MACHINE WORK—Cattle clipper knives sharpened. General machine work of all kinds. We also have in stock cold roll steel, cap screws, set screws, Woodruff keys, key stock, etc. Swartz Machine Shop, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 2041. 2-1f

Always Fresh! Always Delicious!

HYDE'S POTATO CHIPS

Made in Bellefonte. ASK FOR THEM AT YOUR GROCERS!

Floor Show EVERY NIGHT AT Harry's Tavern 8, Spring St. Bellefonte, Pa.

For Sale or Exchange

FOR SALE—1938 Ford tudor sedan, new battery, dealer's price. Inquire J. O. Brewer, Phone 632. 40-1f

FOR SALE—1929 Chevrolet coach in good condition. William Hoy, Bellefonte, R. D. 2, on Harvey Hoy farm. Phone 6478. 47-1f

FOR SALE—112 rats killed with can Shulites Red Squid. Guaranteed harmless to animals and poultry. O. A. Kline Hartway Co. and Schaeffer Hardware, Bellefonte, Pa. 47-1f

BURIAL VAULTS—Be sure it is a Duniap concrete burial vault when you must choose one. Made by Duniap Brothers for the past 25 years and sold direct to you for $40. Delivered anywhere in Centre County. Telephone Bellefonte 506, 242 or 276.

FOR SALE—Walnut bureau, wide mirror, hand-painted beech suite, chairs, 60 all kinds; electric vacuum sweeper, Philco radio; kitchen cabinets; high chairs for babies; children's table and chairs. Items have been reconditioned. William Thompson, Bush Arcade West High street, Bellefonte, Pa. Dial 45-1f

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—A two-year-old shorthorn bull or a four-week-old calf, or will exchange for a Guernsey heifer. Inquire of Edward C. Walker, Wingate, Pa. 47-1f

FOR SALE—One cow with six pigs, old. A. C. Williams, Julian, Pa. 47-1f

FOR SALE—One sow with six pigs, inquire of Ernest Moore, Julian, Pa. 47-1f

FOR SALE—A fresh Guernsey cow with second calf. Inquire of Paul Chaser, R. D. 2, Fort Matilda, Pa. 47-1f

FOR SALE—A purebred Holstein bull old enough for service. Inquire of L. O. Corum, B-3-C, Creek, Pa. 47-1f

FOR SALE—One bull, one heifer, Guernseys, 5 mo. old $17.50 each. Also five sheep. Howard Walk, Fort Matilda, Pa. R. D. 1, Box 99. 47-1f

FOR SALE—Very choice Holstein dairy heifers, $20 each. Non-related bull free with 3 head. Best of breeding. Homestead Farms, R. D. 2, McGraw,