

PINE GROVE MILLS

Donny Kepler, his wife and son, Donny, Jr., of Chapel Hill, N. C., spent some time recently with his parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. Will Kepler. The men folks enjoyed the bear hunt in Lycoming county.

Merle Rossman of Baltimore, Md., spent the past week at his parental home in Rock Springs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Rossman.

Our good friend Newton E. Hess celebrated his 80th natal day last Tuesday. Mr. Hess, one of Ferguson township's best farmers, is well known as a banker, lumberman and veteran thresherman. Congratulations to him and more years of health and happiness.

Ralph Williams and bride of State College, were pleasant weekenders with his aunt and uncle, Mary and William Gardner on the Gardner homestead.

At the M. A. Dreibelis estate sale the farm was purchased for $6200 by Bruce Dreibelis, and the town home by Miss Dorothy Dreibelis at $5100.

Mike Shoemaker recently purchased the G. Ed Cori farms at Oak Grove. Mike has been associated with the Shoemaker trucking company for some years and now will devote part of his time on his large acres.

Mrs. Mary Merritts of Altoona, was here in the valley last Sunday noting many changes since she left the country. She was the former Miss Mary Miller, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Miller. A lot of us remember her as a school girl when we graduated from the Kepler school back there.

Farmer Eugene M. Irvin was an important business caller in Altoona last Wednesday.

The well known hide man, Fred Resides, is making his usual rounds purchasing many pelts at good prices.

John Donley came in from Chestnut Ridge last Tuesday with a fine gobble that would make a most excellent meal. Anyway, turkey meat is not as tough as bear meat.

Farmer and Sheffield Farms milk inspector Henry L. Dale of Union county, was here recently looking after interests of the C. M. Dale estate on the lower branch.

At a regular meeting last Tuesday evening of Baileyville Grange the following new officers were chosen for the coming year: Master, G. Mac Fry; overseer, Robert Harpster; secretary, Paul Stephens; steward, Elwood Homan; assistant steward, Charles Myers; chaplain, Margaret Homan; treasurer, I. O. Campbell; secretary, Mrs. W. C. Shoemaker; gatekeeper, C. C. Rider; Ceres, Madeline Davis; Pomona, Lois Schilling; Flora, Ruth Martin; L. A. S., Ada Harper; executive committee, S. A. Homan (3 years), Edward Clouser (2 years); finance committee, Gilbert Barto; fire insurance director, I. G. Harpster; purchasing agent, S. A. Homan; pianist, Sara Donley; assistant pianist, Doris Schilling. The county master, V. A. Auman, of Centre Hall, will install these officers at the first meeting in January when all officers and members are urged to be present.

Farmer Homer A. Grubb purchased some fine steers last Tuesday at the Reigel auction for feeders on his large farm to help somewhat in the meat rationing.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Fry, son Hugh and daughter Nancy, were visitors Sunday at the E. T. Parsons and Fry home in Rock Springs.

Two of our expert plasterers, Clark and Charles Harpster, are employed on the new government project in White Deer Valley.

Most of our crack shots with their trusty rifles are in the woods this week for their share of venison.

The A. A. A. officers for the coming year will be voted on for this district Friday evening, December 4th in Baileyville Community Hall. All farmers are urged to vote at this meeting.

(From Last Week)

At the George Deibler home is a pair of fine twin girls, born last Monday. Both mother and babies are doing fine. Their names are Mary Lou and Margaret Marie. Mr. Deibler is boss farmer at the Millie Kepler potato farm.

Pvt. Harold Rudy was home on a short furlough over the past weekend and spent some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rudy, and his lady friend, Miss Ethel Mae Barto, returning to camp Monday.

From the Jesse Dean family three of their sons are now with the armed forces, Jesse, Jr., Carl and Andrew. And from the James Dean home three of their sons are in camp, Wilbur, Clair and James, Jr.

It's a girl at the Reed Hilliard home. The young parents are extremely proud. Mr. Hilliard is employed in State College.

Farmer Charles Martin was a recent patient in the Centre County Hospital, but is improving nicely at present.

The fall butchering is under way this week and will continue until the new year. Many large porkers will be slaughtered.

Judge Ivan Walker of Bellefonte, was a pleasant visitor at his farm last Monday, seeing to it that his tenant, Grover C. Beck, is all set for the coming winter.

Robert I. Cori and wife were din-

BENNER TOWNSHIP

(From Last Week)

Farmers are all busy husking corn and some are even plowing for the spring crops.

Ira Benner and Fred Marshall and wife, motored to Zion on Friday to help William Worrel's family butcher.

Francis Benner has moved from the Ira Benner property at Rock to the Haag house in Bellefonte on Saturday. Francis is working at the Piper Aircraft factory at Lock Haven on night turn and his wife decided she did not want to stay alone at night out in the country.

Quite a lot of people are suffering from severe colds and gripe, caused by the sudden change in the weather.

Clarence Johnson husked corn several days for Fred Neff and they finished up Saturday and moved his corn husker home.

Orvis Harris is husking corn in Buffalo Run Valley for the farmers. Florence Dugan of Bellefonte, is spending a few days here with her sister's family, Joseph Stover.

Guests at the home of Ira Benner this week were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Glasgow and son Robert, and Miss Ethel and Alice Spicer, all of Woodcrest; Glenn Glasgow from Bellefonte, Robert and Henry Klinefelter of Jacksonville, Emmanuel Pike, wife and daughter Fay of Buffalo Run; Francis Benner of Bellefonte, and Lester Marshall of Buffalo Run.

Houses are very plentiful just now as there are quite a few people leaving this section.

Many of the young girls are very lonely since so many of their young boy friends have been called to army service.

Miss Hazel Janet Benner returned home after spending a week with her grandparents, the Ira Benners.

Many of the married men with families have been given an exemption from the army but may be called when the two months are up. Sorry to note that Mrs. Harry Emmlinger of Coleville, has had another paralytic stroke, and has been bed-fast for several weeks. This makes the few strokes she has had in eight or ten years. We all hope for her speedy recovery.

Have you heard any news this week that you did not see in this newspaper? Why not be a reporter and send in any interesting item that you think others would enjoy reading?

Her guests Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Weiland in Stormstown, the latter expecting to enter the Clearfield Hospital Tuesday for a surgical operation. Her many friends here trust a complete and speedy recovery from the operation.

Miss Cowell of State College, our efficient music teacher in our Ferguson township schools, is back at her desk after three weeks' absence on account of illness.

Miss Anna Dale of Boalsburg, spent Thursday evening visiting her cousin, Mrs. Laura Krebs on West Main street.

Mrs. Arthur Burrell entertained her bridge club at her home on East Main street last Friday evening. Choice refreshments were served.

Prof. T. I. Mairs and Mrs. Dorothy Markle represented Washington Grange on the educational program at the county meeting last Saturday in Stormstown, and those on the same program from Baileyville Grange were Miss Margaret Harpster, Bertha Albright, Margaret Homan, Ada Harpster, Alva Johnston, Ruth Harpster and Madeline Davis.

One of our expert painters and paperhangers, Jack Johnston, has been off duty the past week on account of the gripe. The young man will enter Uncle Sam's service in early December.

The Mahlon Campbell family will till the large fertile acres of the Dreibelis Bros. farm after April 1, better known as farmer John F. Krebs homestead.

Dr. Newton E. Hess and bride of Virginia, spent some time last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hess on the Branch, and his grandfather, N. E. Hess, in State College.

Prof. Ernest L. Gilliland and wife of Caldwell, N. J., drove up Saturday morning for the Penn State football game and a short visit with his friends. His mother, Mrs. Edna Gilliland accompanied them to their home Sunday, where she will enjoy the winter months, having closed her home in Rock Springs for the season.

Our good friend, Daniel Frank was the past week an optical patient at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. His many friends here trust the treatment will be beneficial and complete.

Our big game hunters (bear shooters) are home from Potter county and just report hunters' luck, not even tracks of the bruin to shoot at. Sorry, no meat when rationing is about to hit us.

RUNVILLE

(From last week)

Some of our small game hunters, have bagged a goodly number of small game this season.

Forrest Walker of Milesburg, and son Mern Walker of Ohio, made a pleasant call at the Mr. and Mrs. John Furl home last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Furl of Bellefonte, were dinner guests with their parents, Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Lucas is visiting in Bellefonte the past few days.

Miss Lulu Zerby of Pine Hall, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Milligan Lucas at present.

The C. E. Flying Squadron last Tuesday evening at the U. B. church was well attended. Dr. Maynard Sparks gave a wonderful and inspiring message.

Mrs. Loraine Milton and Mrs. Sallie Furl returned last Tuesday afternoon from their Virginia trip, which they sure enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shiver of Hazelton, will spend Thanksgiving vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Conier.

It has been learned that Sgt. Ronald Confer, located in Hawaii, was united in marriage.

Earl Milton and Vincent Lucas will leave Dec. 1st for army duty. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Simons and baby of Lewistown, visited with home folks, Sunday.

PORT MATILDA

Mrs. Thomas McKivison is slowly improving at her home here, having been a surgical patient at Dr. Benson's sanatorium at Philipsburg.

The man or woman who thinks solely of what they can get out of life for themselves will discover that in the long run, it isn't much.

Everybody is in favor of reducing public jobs except the individuals who have the offices and the jobs, and who can blame them?

Feeding the nation may be a glorious and patriotic calling, but the farmers are anxious, as well, for adequate cash returns.

Gifts that Cheer FOR YOUR MAN OF THE YEAR

TOP COATS

That any man would appreciate, in Camels, Coverts and Tweeds.

$16.50
$19.75
$22.50

Finger-Tip Coats in Wool $8.95, $10.95 & $14.50

Suit Values

$16.50
$19.75
— UP TO —
$27.00

WHAT'S the percentage in feeling down at the cuffs on Christmas Day, just because you think you have to spend more than is really necessary for a new suit. Enjoy the holiday—be well dressed—have every feature that makes a really good suit. A wide choice of styles, fabrics, details!

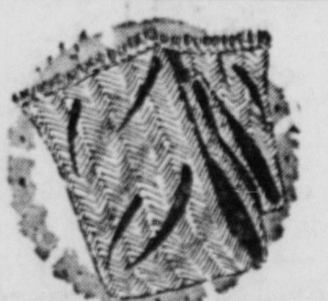

He'll appreciate one of our new

Hats
$1.95 to $3.45
Dress Gloves
$1.25 to $2.95
Adam Hats—$3.45

Shirts
He needs and wears them all year
$1.59
ADAM — $1.95
Wing Hats
$1.75 to $2.25

MUFFLERS
Plaid and solid colors.
Wool, Rayon, Crepe
MUFFLER SETS — $2.95
79c to $1.59

When he's "in mufti" he'll be glad to wear our attractively styled ties. Stripes, foulards, mogadors, monotones, moires and crepes, begin at
55c to $1.00
Gift Box Free.

FINE QUALITY HOSE 15c to 59c pr.

ROBES
in Beacon flannel, all wool flannel and silk. Comes in all colors.
$3.50 to $7.50

BEDROOM SLIPPERS $1.95 to $2.98
A small deposit will hold any item until wanted.

NATIONAL STORE
MEN'S AND BOYS' WEAR
TEMPLE COURT BLDG. BELLEFONTE, PA.

For Best Toy Values

Complete Assortments! Toys You've Never Seen Before!

"Star light, star bright, first star I see tonight." Many's the youngster who will gaze dreamily at the sky on Christmas Eve and earnestly wish for toys like these! Santa's made his first stop at our terminal of toys leaving behind old Christmas favorites and many, many new playthings that make no effort to hide the fact that Old Nick has gone modern! Plastics galore in everything from trains to dolls . . . and new wooden funmakers to give playtime joys throughout many busy hours. Santa's calling everyone for a visit to Toyland . . . and bring the youngsters too! Let them wistfully point out the things they "want more than anything else in the world," and see their rapturous faces Christmas Morn when they gather about the Christmas tree chock full of these exciting toys. Shop now and save at WOLF'S Toyland!

WOLF FURNITURE CO.

South Allegheny Street.

New Location

Bellefonte, Penna.