

OBITUARY

MRS. SARAH McHUGH.

Mrs. Sarah McHugh, 70, a lifelong resident of Osceola Mills, died Tuesday, Nov. 24, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Michael Gorman, at Canton, Ohio. Mrs. McHugh is the last of her family and is survived only by one daughter with whom she has been living for the last six years. Previous to this time, she lived at Spike Island. Funeral services were held Saturday morning with burial in the Osceola Catholic cemetery.

MRS. ADAM C. EARON

Mrs. Elizabeth Muther Earon, 83, wife of Adam E. Earon, Beech Creek, died shortly after midnight Saturday at her home after having been ill for a number of years. Her death separates an unusual couple who would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary next March. Mrs. Earon was born in Lock Haven and she and Mr. Earon were married March 3, 1883. Both were well known in the Beech Creek vicinity, and in spite of their advanced ages in recent years have managed their own affairs in their own home. In addition to Mr. Earon, Mrs. Earon is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alva Hendricks of Mill Hill, and Mrs. Malcolm Johnson of Monaca, Pa.; also one son, Harry of Beech Creek, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; also a sister, Mrs. John D. R. Beaver, of Lock Haven. Funeral services were held at the Beech Creek Methodist church, of which she was a member, Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. Wallace J. Cummings, pastor, and the Rev. Elmer Ilgenfritz, Osceola Mills, a former pastor at the Laurel Run church officiating. Interment was made in Sunnyside cemetery.

WOODWARD

One day last week Orvis Orndorff lost a valuable horse by indigestion, caused by the animal swallowing foreign articles.

Elley Shreckengast, Jr., Verlye Shesley, Samuel Gill and Malcolm Boob, selective service men, were taken to State College on Saturday morning where they joined the rest of the group bound for New Cumberland. We wish them success for Uncle Sam.

The first day of deer season opened fair on Monday morning. It is too early to make any reports of the hunters' success.

A number of hunters were noticed in town on Sunday and Monday, but not near the number of last year's hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. Dias of Harrisburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ard for a few days' hunting.

Robert Ketter and a number of his chums of Pottsville, were the guests of his sister, Mrs. Carrie Fultz, for a few days' hunting this week.

Farmer Must Feed Millions In 1943

Goals Must Be Increased to Meet Extra Soldier's Requirements

The American soldier eats 2,485 pounds of food a year as compared with 1,406 pounds consumed by the civilian, according to figures recently released. In referring to these figures today, James E. Walker, Chairman of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Conservation Committee and of the USDA War Board for Pennsylvania, said: "When this 1,000 pounds a year extra that must go to each of our fighting men is multiplied by the millions of men that are expected to be under arms and when we add to this the extra millions that will be necessary for the United States to feed in the form of our allies and those in the countries we may occupy, it will give us a better idea of the tremendous job that confronts our farmers in 1943."

While our Pennsylvania farmers played an important part in the record harvest of essential war foods in 1942, it becomes increasingly evident that goals must be increased during 1943, Mr. Walker said. He emphasized that the State War Board is engaged now in gathering information so that it may plan with the farmers of the State to produce the record quantities of milk, eggs, meat, vegetables, and other commodities that will be required for the fighting and home fronts next year.

Important in putting across this job, he said, will be the community committee of the Agricultural Conservation Program. It will be these men who will contact and plan with farmers to bring about this immense production job. It will be these men who will contact and plan with farmers to bring about this immense production job. It will be these community committees who must assist in securing for farmers their fair share of the limited amount of other necessary farm supplies that will be available in 1943. It will be these men who must assist their neighbors in presenting their labor problems, that will be so vitally important next year, to the proper authorities.

These men, Mr. Walker stated, are to be elected at their annual community election meetings to be held throughout Pennsylvania, December 4. It is important in next year's war effort that the men elected at these community meetings be leaders in their respective communities; that they have a complete knowledge of the agriculture of their section, and that they rank among those who can lead and inspire their fellow neighbors to make the all-out effort that will be required next year.

Mr. Walker called upon all farmers to attend these meetings and exert their right to choose their own community farm leaders next year.

So long as your money holds out, you will have plenty of "friends" to help you spend it.
