OBITUARY

SCOVEL B. SWAN FUNERAL
Funeral services for Ensign Scovel B. Swan, a victim of the Boston fire and husband of Mrs. Betty Mae Noll, Swan of State College, were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Swan, 28 E. Bennett street, Kingston, at 10 a. m. Monday, followed by services in the Reformed church at Jacksonville at 3:30 p. m. Monday. Burial followed in Jacksonville cemetery.

JOHN B. MCKEAN, Sr.
John B. McKean, Sr., of McKeesport, Snow Shoe native, died Tuesday at his home. He was 71. The deceased, who lived for a time in Altoona, was born at Snow Shoe August 30, 1871. His wife, the former Josephine Daugherty, one son, and four daughters survive. He was the last of his family.

MRS. J. F. STRUNK
Mrs. Cora Mary Strunk, 79, of State College, died at her home at 7:45 p. m. Friday, December 4, 1942, of complications following an illness of three weeks. Mrs. Strunk was born at Spruce Creek on December 1, 1863, a daughter of Henry L. and Elizabeth Garner Harvey. She was married on April 25, 1888, to J. F. Strunk, who survives. Six surviving children are: Mrs. Comer Shope, of Howard; Mrs. Ray Baird, of State College; Walter H. Strunk, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Esther Williams, of State College; Arthur H. and Gilbert M. Strunk, of State College. Two brothers and one sister, George C. Harvey, of Lock Haven; Dr. John H. Harvey, of Toledo, Ohio, and Jella M. Noll, of Philadelphia, also survive, in addition to ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Mrs. Strunk was a member of the Church of Christ, and she and her husband celebrated their golden wedding anniversary four years ago. Funeral services were held from the late home Monday afternoon, with Rev. Paul Mackey, Howard evangelist, officiating. Interment was made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

STERLING T. MILLER
Sterling Tets Miller, 67, died at his home in Rebersburg, Wednesday, Dec. 2, after an illness of several months. The deceased, a carpenter, was born in Booneville, a son of George and Rebecca Miller. His wife and one daughter, Velma M., at home, survive, in addition to these brothers and sisters: Lynn Miller, of Jersey Shore; George Miller, of Avis; Lawrence Miller, of Tyler'sville; Mrs. Jean McCarty, of Williamsport; Mrs. Cyrus Stamm, of Loganton, and Mrs. Wilbert Shaffer, of York. He also leaves a grandchild and one great-grandchild. He was a member of the Reformed church and the I. O. O. F. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Reformed church by the Rev. F. J. Denbeaux. Interment was made in the Reformed cemetery.

BUSH HOLLOW
Sunday school as usual next Sunday at 9:30 a. m., followed by the regular preaching service. Everybody welcome.
We have decided not to have cottage prayer meetings for a while as the bad weather seems to keep so many people away from the services. Hoping later to start them again.
The writer missed sending in items last week, so some of the following items should be written last week.

MRS. W. F. HASSINGER
Mrs. Lydia Catherine Hassinger, 60, widow of W. F. Hassinger, died at the Lock Haven Private Hospital Friday afternoon after a week's illness. She had been in ill health for a number of years but fell at her home about ten days ago and suffered a broken hip. Born in Zion, she lived for the past 29 years in Flemington and Lock Haven. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran church and of the Naomi Lodge. Surviving her are three sons and two daughters: Herschel D., at home; Kenneth W., Miss Lois and Mrs. George Miller, Lock Haven; and Quentin D., of Buffalo; also two sisters, Mrs. John Thomas, of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Christine Hauser, of Orange, N. J. Funeral services were held at the late residence Monday afternoon with Dr. Jacob Diehl officiating. Interment was made in Zion cemetery.

DONALD JUNIOR CARVER
Donald Junior Carver, of Scranton, a native of Bellefonte, died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Shepe, in Milesburg, Friday, December 4, 1942, as the result of an attack of influenza. The young man, employed as a machine operator in the coal mines at Scranton, had come to Milesburg early last week to hunt, and was a guest at his grandparents' home when he became ill. He was a son of Andrew C. and Dora Shope Carver and was born in Bellefonte on January 18, 1923, making his age at time of death 19 years, 10 months and 16 days. His parents and grandparents are the sole survivors. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Shope home in Milesburg, with Rev. H. W. Phillips, pastor of the Milesburg Baptist church, officiating. Interment was made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

MRS. H. B. HUMMEL
Stricken with an acute heart attack, the death of Mrs. H. B. Hummel occurred Friday morning about 5 o'clock at her home in Philipsburg. She was born August 10, 1878, a daughter of Philip and Catherine Shimmel, of Sington, Clearfield county, on January 1, 1901, she and Mr. Hummel were united in marriage. Surviving, along with her husband, are the following sons and daughters: Melyin, of Philipsburg; Vera, wife of John Dillen, of State College, R. D.; Philip, of Philipsburg; Boyd, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Marian, wife of Harry Sticker, of Martha Furnace. Mrs. Hummel was a member of the United Brethren church. Having lived many years in her community, she was known and loved by a large number of friends. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home, in charge of her pastor, the Rev. Budd Smith, with burial in the Summit Hill cemetery.

MRS. MICHAEL S. QUIGGLE
Mrs. Ella S. Quiggle, 62, sister of Frank Karstetter, of Spring Mills, died early Saturday morning at her home in Lock Haven, following a two weeks' illness of complications. Born in Carroll, she went to Castanea as a young girl and lived in that vicinity the balance of her lifetime. She was a member of Castanea Evangelical church. Surviving are her husband, Michael S. Quiggle, five daughters and five sons: Mrs. Hugh Fleming, Mrs. Royal Shaffer, Mrs. Reginald Kuntz, Mrs. Richard Bowers, all of Lock Haven; Mrs. Roy LeBaron, of Sunbury; Lee S. R. Scott, Frank H., Wilson B., and Ernest, of Lock Haven; also by two sisters and five brothers, Mrs. Elroy Bower, Jersey Shore; Mrs. Etta Heller, Williamsport; Frank Karstetter, Spring Mills; Winfield Karstetter, Greenburr; Oliver, of Erie; Robert, of Lock Haven; and John Karstetter, of Jersey Shore; and by 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the late residence, with the Rev. Heyburn L. Fritz, officiating. Interment was made in Rest Haven Memorial Park.

latter's brother-in-law, all of Williamsport, spent a couple days hunting deer near here. Paul was the lucky one as he had a nice 7-point buck to take home Saturday evening.
