RECENT WEDDINGS

Horner—Black
Miss Gladys Black, of Tyrone, and Robert Horner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Horner of Tusseyville, were married on Saturday, November 23, at 2 o'clock at the W. C. Horner home, with Rev. A. G. Herr of Bellefonte, officiating. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the Horner home to the wedding party and guests.

Carlson—Beer
Announcements were received in Bellefonte recently of the marriage of Miss Mary Ann Beer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Beer of Johnstown, grandniece of Mrs. Susan Bricker, of Reynolds avenue, Bellefonte, to Scovel M. Carlson, of McKeesport. The wedding took place November 21 at the First Methodist church at McKeesport. The bride's mother is the former Alice Lowery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowery, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Johnstown.

Killing—McDermitt
Mrs. Louise Florus McDermitt of Mill Hall, R. D., daughter of Mrs. J. H. Florus of Flemington, and W. Frank Killing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Killing of Mill Hall, R. D., were married Saturday evening, November 21, in the parsonage of the First Baptist church by the Rev. Howard G. Young. The bride wore a street-length dress of blue crepe with tan accessories, with a corsage of mixed flowers. Mrs. Killing, a graduate of the Lock Haven High School in 1933, was formerly a nurse at the Lock Haven Hospital. Mr. Killing is employed by Ray Cullen. They are now residing at the home of the bridegroom at Sugar Run.

DeLancey—Meyer
Miss Natalie Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion B. Meyer, of West College avenue, State College, became the bride of Robert L. DeLancey, aviation cadet, United States Army Air Force, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. F. DeLancey of Phillipsburg, on Saturday, November 23. The double ring ceremony performed by Lieut. Oxman, chaplain of the new Selman Field pre-flight chapel at Monroe, La., took place before a candle-lit altar backed with gladioli and chrysanthemums. Mrs. DeLancey was graduated from Hood College, Frederick, Md., and at the present time is employed in the Registrar's office at Penn State College. Before entering the A. A. P. Navigation School at Monroe, La., the bridegroom was employed in Paul Mitten's Men's store in State College. At the present Mr. DeLancey is home on a short furlough between pre-flight and pilot school, and the couple is staying at the home of the bride's parents on West College avenue.

Black—Reese
Mrs. Hermance Reese of State College has announced the marriage of her daughter, Jacqueline, to Lieut. Richard Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Black, of Battletree, Mich. The wedding took place in the Battletree St. Thomas Episcopal church at 3 p. m. Saturday, with Rev. William A. Simms performing the ceremony. The bride attended Penn State College, where Mrs. Reese now is pianist in the School of Education. The bridegroom received his commission last August at Ft. Belvoir, Va., and at present is stationed at Camp Livingston, La. The couple will spend a short honeymoon in Chicago, Ill., and New Orleans, La. They will make their home in Pineville, La.

Poorman—Smith
Miss Esther Poorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Poorman, Bellefonte, and Mr. Elmer Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith, also of Bellefonte, were married Sunday, December 13, at 1:30 P. M. in the Bellefonte Evangelical church with Rev. H. H. Jacobs of that church performing the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father in the presence of members of the immediate families, was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth, and the groom by his brother-in-law. The bride was attired in a powder blue afternoon dress with navy accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Her sister wore a Lincoln green dress with black accessories and red roses. Miss Evelyn Hollibaugh played several selections on the organ including "The Indian Love Call" and the traditional wedding march. Both the bride and groom were graduates of the Bellefonte High School, the former in the class of 1942 and the latter in 1941. Mr. Smith is employed by the Service Combustion Company at Lebanon. Their plans for house-keeping and indefinite at the present time. A wedding supper was held at the home of Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith.
