HAUPT BROTHERS IN SERVICE

PFC. JAMES R. HAUPT

A/C PHILIP E. HAUPT

The Haupt brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Haupt, of South Allegheny street, Bellefonte, entered Uncle Sam's forces in the early months of 1942 and now are undergoing advanced training.

Pfc. James R. Haupt, 30, was inducted into the service on April 7, 1942, and was sent to Camp Pickett, Va., where he was employed in the checking department.

On December 17 he was sent to Camp Phillips, Salina, Kansas, and was made a member of the Field Artillery. Before entering the service he was employed by the Titan Metal Company.

A C Philip E. Haupt, 24, gave up his job at Everett's Drug store, Bellefonte, on November 5, 1940 to enlist in the Air Corps, and is now well on the way toward occupying a bombardier's seat in one of Uncle Sam's bombers.

Phil was sent to Langley Field, Va., for his preliminary training. From there he was sent to Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., and on July 21, 1942 he was transferred to Santa Ana, California, for the special training required by bombardiers. After going to school there for six weeks he was assigned to Roswell, New Mexico, to complete his training.

Both brothers attended the Bellefonte High School. James is a member of the Bellefonte Elks Club. Announcement recently was made of his engagement to Miss Helen Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jenkins, of the Plaza apartments, Bellefonte.

Aerial Gunner

Taylor A. Watson, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Watson, of Milesburg, has been in the Air Corps since October of this year. He was sent to Atlantic City for a short time and then transferred to the Flexible Gunnery School, Fort Myers, Florida where he is training at present. Pvt. Watson was born and reared in Boggs township. He is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School, class of 1940. Before entering the service he was employed by the Titan Metal Company.

Two Physicians Called to Army

Coburn and has been practicing in Bellefonte for the past ten years. Dr. Corman is a director of the First National Bank, Bellefonte. He will leave about February 1 for Miami.

Other Bellefonte physicians now in service are Dr. Harold B. Harris, stationed at Ft. Eustis, Va., and Dr. Richard H. Hoffman, with the U. S. Army in Egypt. Both now hold commissions as majors.

Medical men remaining in Bellefonte after the middle of February will be Dr. E. H. Adams, Dr. LeRoy Locke, Dr. Joseph A. Parrish, Dr. J. C. Rogers, and Dr. John K. Covey, the latter specializing in eye, ear, nose and throat ailments.

Training at Louisiana
John C. Stern, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stern of Unionville, formerly employed by the West Penn Power Company of Bellefonte, and residing on East Bishop street, Bellefonte, having enlisted in the United States Army in the Engineering Corps, is now stationed at Camp Claiborne, Louisiana, where he expects to be for a period of nine weeks basic training, after which he expects to be transferred to an Officers Training School. His wife is at present with her mother in Unionville.

Meets Brother in Ireland
Mrs. William H. Jones of Chambersburg in a letter from her son, Martin, better known as Jim Gates, was informed that he had seen his brother, Russell, of the Flying Squadron, in Ireland and spent two days there before being transferred to England. The Gates brothers and their mother, Mrs. Jones are former residents of Bellefonte.

Every citizen should cooperate in the food rationing plan. If for no other reason, just because millions of American men are willing to fight for this country.

At Mississippi Camp

Private First Class Alfred L. Peters, of West Decatur, Pa., has been stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss., since his induction into the army, May 16, 1942. His promotion to Private First Class was received in October. Previous to his induction into the service, Pfc. Peters worked for Mr. Bierly, of Jacksonville. He is familiarly known to his many friends as "Sox."

In Marine Corps

Corporal James A. Kunes, who before entering the service made his home with J. Irvin Graham, Boalsburg, is in training as a Leatherneck. "Jim," as he is familiarly known, graduated from Lock Haven High School in 1932. He was employed as a carpenter when he enlisted in the U. S. Marines in March, 1942. After completing his basic training at Parris Island, S. C., he was sent to the Naval Training Station at Grove City College for three months. At the completion of his course at the College he was promoted to the rank of corporal. At the present time he is stationed at the Naval Air Base, Corpus Christa, Texas.

Completes Mechanical Course
Clair A. Lambert, of Bellefonte, has completed his course of studies as an aviation mechanic in the Army Air Force Technical Training School at Amarillo, Texas, according to information received this week. His graduation from this technical school now fits him for airplane maintenance and he will be sent to some air base where he will assist in keeping America's Flying Fortresses in the air for Allied victory.
