Book Review Features Victory Club Meeting

A review of Robert St. John's book "In the Land of Silent People," featured a regular meeting of the Victory Club, new organization of employes and nurses at the Centre County Hospital, Monday night. The review was ably given by Mrs. Betty

At the business session a discussion was held on the possibility of applying for group hospitalization for club members. The organization voted in favor of the purchase of a Service flag and of individual Victory pins. Five members of the group now are in the armed forces. The meeting closed with a social hour which refreshments were
