KIDS WILL BE KIDS

With so much to see and read these days they're apt to strain their eyes more than ever. Here's some practical advice for protecting your children's eyesight . . .

Temple Court

WATCH THEIR LIGHTING!

Even if there were a reading lamp in this picture, the bulb would be too far away from the floor to give Johnny the light he needs. When your kids read or study, see that they're near a good reading lamp . . . in some other position than this!

The best reading lamp is an I.E.S.! It's BUILT to provide ample, glare-free light -the kind that protects eyesight.
