PUBLIC SALE REGISTER

PLEASE NOTE-The following applies to driving to public sales, as announced by the War Price and Rationing Board of Bellefonte: "If a person attends a farm sale with the idea of making a purchase, even though he does not make such a purchase, either due to the prices the articles bring or because there is nothing there that he actually needs, I would say it would come under necessary shopping.

"On the other hand, if he simply attends farm sales because they are more or less social gatherings, then he definitely would be violating the ban on pleasure driving."
