A Stenographer Goes to Washington

By RUTH M. BICKLE, Pine Grove Mills.

(In the following article will be found the intimate experience of a Centre County girl who answered the call for office work at the Nation's Capital. With no attempts at fancy flights of rhetoric, the author gives us a word picture of her emotions in meeting the adventure of going to Washington as a stenographer, which, she declares, applies to many more girls than herself.)

I liked my work there very much ed there. One of these girls had the day. as two of my classmates also workalso taken the examination and fully large to the girl from the small ien! He had never heard of the ships. I am not sorry that I came town just out of school.

store for me. Little did I dream what I would go through before I to get me starte rection, at least. would be home again. I didn't I rode for what seemed miles to so unimportant.

I said "Goodbye" to all my friends and relatives and was all ready to leave all that which had been mine for so many years. As I looked about the bedroom and noticed all the little things that meant so much to me, the tears rolled down my cheeks. It wasn't that I didn't want to leave, but was something that I cannot explain. When my sister very close to each other.

relatives. After I had boarded the Washington.

called a taxi and went straight to gave me a lot of help.

Fort Devens, Mass, on Sunday, after the home of my father's friends. I After I had been there seven weeks spending a short furlough with reladoor and said, "You are Ruth Bickle, ington on Monday.

After dinner, the lady's niece came quite so well. happened to be an opening there, me home and I to be there. to sleep again that night.

All the girls at the house but one to her aunt's residence until we were up and off to work before I could find somewhere else to live. girl I slept with went to work in the was always cold and there was nevafternoon. She was very nice to er any hot water. We had to do our me. She took me out for breakfast laundering in the bathroom and with her that morning. I could not that was most inconvenient. We eat for my heart felt like it was finally found a lovely place quite a made of lead. She called a taxi for distance out from the main part of me and gave me the address where town, but yet convenient to trans-

I was to report. I met several girls from my home games down there. We could en-State of Pennsylvania. Two other tertain any of our friends there, girls and my self had to report to too. That is where I am staying another building in another part of now. Finally they gave me a certain room someone to travel back and forth

(Continued from first section) | to report for work, but it was too late to report that day, so I was allowed to go home for the rest of

I had no idea how to get back to passed, but she would not even con- Washington that night. After sevsider leaving home and going to eral inquiries, I found the bus which Washington to work. I tried to per- took me back to the main part of suade her to come with me but to Washington again. When I got off no avail. I resigned from that job the bus in there, I was completely and made preparations to come to lost. I had no idea where I was or Washington. I was terribly excit- in which direction to start for home. ed at the thought of coming way I inquired from a policeman who down here all by myself to work and was standing on a street corner how the $1440 a year salary looked aw- to get home. And can you imagstreet which I spoke of. I finally found another policeman directing no idea what the future held in to get me started in the right di- go back to a small town and have think that I would ever wish for me and then got off the street car. that small town that I considered I walked up the street a couple of blocks thinking I was near home. I didn't notice anything that looked familiar and decided that I was lost. I finally called a cab and the before I was to leave, I suddenly had the funniest feeling in the pit of a very tired and I reached home the funniest feeling in the pit of a very tired and discouraged girl. my stomach. As I was ready to crawl I had one whole day in Washington. into my own bed for the last time I don't think I was ever so tired in for several months, I didn't want to all my life. I went to bed early that night and arose the next morning feeling very refreshed and ready for the first day's work. With the from work.

I am going to skip over the first came in and found me crying, she few weeks very briefly. The first cried too. Although she was 81/2 two weeks were the most miserable years younger than myself, she was I have spent or ever hope to spend. the only sister I had and we were I never knew what homesickness was, but I learned fast. I felt like I cried myself to sleep that night I was going to die, and in fact pray- dletown, spent a few days last week and woke up the next morning feel- ed that I might die. I could not eat here with his parents. His trip home ing quite blue. We had to rush to or sleep. I cried so much. I never was made mainly because of the illthe train that morning. I was at the wanted to go home so much in all ness of his mother. verge of tears and tried to keep my life, I could not understand why them back. I managed to do so, I had ever left home. I longed for Haven Hospital, was able to return spent the weekend in Johnstown at and State College friends. until my father said "goodbye" to the small town that I had laughed to his home on Sunday. me and gave me some money in case at when I was there. I wrote my I should get short. I really cried folks very depressing letters and hard then. My mother and sister they wrote and told me that if I drove me to the station in a neigh- wanted to I should come home. I two weeks. boring town. I could easily tell that wanted to resign and go home on had never been away from home be- finally overcame this homesickness when he is to report for duty. fore except on visits to friends and and began to like my work and even train and found a seat, I began to I was assigned to work in the Navy cry again and tears fell steadily un- Department in the Discipline Of- Quantico, Va., spent the weekend til the train reached the next town. fice. My work consisted of taking with his mother, Mrs. Lulu Gard-I tried to enjoy the trip and did dictation and general office work. ner. to some extent. I was very excited I enjoyed my work immensely. My to some extent. I was very excited and could hardly wait until we had bosses were all very helpful with denly ill on Thursday and has not reached our destination.

A few days after I had been fully recovered as yet. My father had some friends in there, another girl came into the washington at whose home I was office. She was from South Dakota to go when I reached there. The train arrived in the city about 5:45 ing lunch together and soon became and it seemed to me as if all the girl in the office at this time. The expects to bring his son, Richard, hurried in all directions. I wonder- experience working before, while I very serious coasting accident.

had never seen them and did not I was given permission to have tives and friends in Lock Haven and know just what they would be like, three days off to go home over a Beech Creek. or how they would act toward me- weekend. One of the girls from the a stranger to them. When we had house who lived near my home and reached the apartment, I paid the I went home together. I wrote my cab driver and took the elevator to parents and they met us at the the third floor and reached the train at one o'clock in the morning apartment without any trouble. I I was never so glad to see anyone raised the knocker and hesitated, in my life. I enjoyed a wonderful then knocked very gently. A very visit with my folks and friends over nice looking young man opened the the weekend and returned to Wash-aren't you?" Before I had time to Over Labor Day weekend two of Mass., and Seaman Edward L. Rureply a lovely lady came and em- my very best friends from my home pert of Bainbridge, Md.; also Miss braced me as if she had known me town and two other girls came and Jean Carpenter of Jersey Shore. all her life. She knew who I was spent the weekend with me. One right away. They both treated me was the girl whom I had tried to very lovely and made me feel very get to come with me when I came. much at home. She had prepared She was very much impressed with a grand dinner, and, after I had Washington, and after she had gone rested and freshened up a little af- back home, she began talking about ter my long and tiresome trip, we coming here to work as she still sat down and ate. It was a deli- had the opportunity. About the midcious and pleasant meal. No one will dle of October she and an older sisever know just what it meant to me, ter came here to work. They lived a lonely and discouraged girl, to be quite a distance from me, so I really treated so nice when I felt so blue, didn't see much of them. The young-I will never be able to thank them est girl liked it right from the first, while the older girl didn't like it over with a girl-friend. This girl Five weeks after I had been home came from about 25 miles away from I had one day off and went home my home town and had been work- for the weekend again. It was only ing here for about six weeks. She a short visit but I enjoyed it very stayed at a private home and there much. My folks were glad to have and I went there to stay that same During the last of October, shortnight. I could not room with that ly before I went home, Mary, the girl, but roomed in the next room girl who had found me a place to with two girls who were sisters and stay, and I became very dissatisfied came from Wisconsin. There were with where we were staying and six other girls there besides myself, began to look for a new home. We I was very tired and was glad to searched day and night and all of retire for the night. My heart was our spare time for either a room or heavy that night and I cried myself an apartment. We could find neither. At last one of the girls moved up the next morning. The The house where we were staying portation. We had a lovely room, I spent nearly all that day going a nice landlady, and had laundry through all the red tape that is in- priivleges in the basement. There voled with working for the govern- was a room in the basement fixed ment at the Civil Service Building, up so that we could dance or play town, so we all went together. Most About the first week in Novemof the girls had someone with them, ber we got another new girl in our but I was not so lucky. It would office. She was near my age, being have been a lot nicer if I had. We about a year older, and hailed from reported to the other building and California. She was staying in Balthere we had our pictures taken and timore with some relatives; and again were asked a lot of questions; traveled from there each day which some of them the same ones I had made quite a long trip. There was a answered a hundred times before. vacancy at the house where we Finally I was separated from the stayed, so I asked her if she would other two girls. I was told to re- like to come out and look at the port for work at Arlington, Virginia. room. She went along one night I took a bus from that building and and liked the room very much. She reached Arlington, where I was put moved in just a few days later, It through the third degree again. was and still is very nice having with to work. It makes the trip seem much shorter.

I find that the romantic adventure that I had anticipated faded the first week I was here and the glamour just isn't here. I have very little time to do any sight-seeing. I work 8 hours every day and spend 2 hours traveling to and from work, so by the time I arrive home at night, I am ready to turn in for some rest. Sundays we always sleep and do various things in the after-

lem. I have gradually become used fall on the ice last week. to waiting for everything such as nearly get killed trying to get on. You just have to learn to push right back. You forget your manners in Washington; there doesn't seem to be any place for them.

good times here as well as hardthat otherwise I would not have adventure. I really didn't realize just what I was undertaking. I had no idea what the future held in a home of my own, that is when the observation patient of the Philipsworld is free again.

RUTH M. BICKLE.

BLANCHARD

The proceeds from the March of Dimes for the infantile paralysis drive are all reported. Most of the funds were returned by the various schools. As yet the third and fourth grades, teacher, Mrs. Williams, who her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Milton house and they will occupy one secraised $3; next highest, the fifth and Block. and tenth grades, $2; Big Run branch. returned, T. M. Kunes, $1.30, an unnamed doner, $2, W. H. Vonada, $4. collected in our vicinity.

Pfc. Paul Bowes, stationed at Mid-

John Coder, a patient in the Lock has been unable to work for the last town Sunday a. m.

ering from her recent illness Pvt. Paul Gardner, stationed at

Mrs. Alice Harter was taken sud-

m. I had never done traveling, good friends. There was one other William Spangler reports that he people in the world were there in girl from South Dakota was sever- home from the hospital on Satur-Hundreds of people al years older than I and had some day. Richard was the victim of a ed where they all came from. I was fresh out of high school. She Pyt. Wilbur Rupert returned to Fort Devens, Mass, on Sunday, after

> Apprentice Seaman Edward L. Rupert, undergoing training at the U. S. Naval Station at Bainbridge, Md., s spending a furlough with his father, Joshua Rupert, of Beech Sunday forenoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Neff were Pvt. Wilbur Rupert of Fort Devens,

L. FRANK MAYES

General Auctioneer

Real Estate Sales A SPECIALTY!

CALL STATE COLLEGE, 2842 Why not have the benefit of competitive bidding in the sale of your property.

Past experiences have proven that public sales of real estate demand higher prices.

a number of Farms and several Residences will be offered at public sale in the near future.

Watch for Dates!

DECORATE in the Morning

ENTERTAIN

in the Afternoon

WASHABLE WALL PAINT

- Paints Over Wall Paper
- Dries 1 Hour—No Odor
- · Easy to Apply · Wide Choice of Colors

Redecorates Average Room for $2.65

CLASTER'S

PINE GROVE MILLS

last Wednesday in the Philipsburg Word comes from Chicago that

The Hon. William 'Bill' Copley of years at Cresson. as late as possible, go to church, Washington, D. C. and Argentina, Carpenter R. L. Musser returned One of the worst things here, I locomotion with crutch and cane on licely from his recent injury. think, is the transportation prob- account of a knee-cap injury by a Messrs, Alexander Johnston and buses and street cars, and then on our State highway to replace the nome with them two new Allis-Chalwhen one does finally come, you vacancy of W. Randall Poust, who mers tractors. is now employed in Altoona. Among the spring sales listed so Johnston is somewhat lame from a

I must admit that I have many March 11, and the Lake B.os. at their farm, March 15.

Farmer Alvin K. Corl has been confined to the house the past work with a bad case of grippe, but is improving at this writing. James Corl assisting with his farm chores.

Mrs. James Poust is this week an burg State Hospital. She was admitted last Thursday.

John W. Miller is out among our farmers with his baling machine tieing up straw and hay.

in an army camp.

sixth grades, teacher, Mr. Kamp, Mrs. Gladys Pry and Mrs. Helen move from their Tusseyville farm to help of two other girls from the $2.90. Other returns as follows: sev- Fry were dinner guests Thursday at the homestead to continue the farmhouse I learned how to get to and enth and eighth grades, $2; ninth the "Dick" Irvin home on the ing operations and the Wasson milk > last week installed a telephone at and daughter at the Dale mansion The latter amount was the largest their business stand. Now you can near State College. He returned to say hello to Alex, but not to Ben, as the south Feb. 1st. or in Altoona with his relatives. He Capital Tuesday p. m.

The Misses Gertrude and Maude boring town. I could easily tell that my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go for the first train I could get, but my mother hated to see me go Robert Davy enlisted last week in Miller were Saturday dinner guests "Self-determination," as applied The adult folks enjoyed to hear the Lohr and Russell Whitmyer as dele- old Clark, his churn, left on Sunday in State College. The professor is known once, in this country, as se- in participating in the singing. Mrs. Clyde Bowes is slowly recov- not as well as his friends would like cession.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rossman are but they all trust for his rapid reproud parents of a baby girl, born covery.

State Hospital. Her name is Anna Rev. Albert D. Minich is now chap-Jane. Allen is a former resident of lain in the U.S. Army. The Rev. was Ferguson township, now caretaker a former pastor of the Spruce Creek on the highway in Halfmoon Valley. Presbyterian church and for some who is spending the winter with his to his home Saturday from Pittsaunt, Miss Corene Copky, is making burgh hospital and is recuperating

Edward Frank were business visitors Harry Geathart is now employed Thursday in Harrisburg, bringing Farmer and school bus driver Earl far in our section are Sol H. Lohr foot injury sustained at his farm on the Newt Hoy farm, March 4; R. last week, and Sam Homan is also P. Ritter on the C. M. Dale farm, on the limpy order with a broken toe, while on his lumber job, the toe getting between a large railroad tie and frozen mother earth.

Mrs. George Robison, the former Miss Mary Reed and son, George, Jr., have returned to their home on South Water street after a several months' visit with Mr. Robison, radio technician of the U.S. Army, stationed in Texas.

At the Samuel B. Wasson sale last Thursday, one of the largest sales for many years in this section, everyone seemed to be well supplied with money and gas. The sale to-Mrs. Harold Dean departed Friday taled $12.187. That genial auctioneer for Miami, Fla., to spend some time Jack Smith, was back home by 5 with her husband who is training m. Horses sold for around $150 each, high cow. $250. The 20 cows averaged Hon, and Mrs. J. Will Kepler spent $150 each; hogs at 17c pound. Mr. grades have not reported. The high- some time recently in Washington, and Mrs. Wasson are arranging their est honors go to the first and second D. C., guests of their daughter and large stone farm house for a double tion, their son, Paul and family will route to State College.

school, $1.60. Some other cards were The Johnston Bros., popular farm W. R. Dale of Tampa, Fla., spent equipment agents for Allis-Chalmers the past two weeks with his wife

Rev. James N. Fisher and family end with his father, J. Cal Gates much interested in the gospel chor-

Marybelle Miller has been quite ill The young divine very ably filled the ald, were callers in Bellefonte Mon- youngsters. Here are some of the day. with an attack of rheumatism. She Lutheran church pulpit in Johns-day, laying in supplies for spring songs, "God Has Blotted Them Out."

1155 Sixteenth St., N. W

Washington, D. C.

THE POTASH YOU ARE USING IS AMERICAN POTA

WOODWARD

George P. Irvin was a recent visit- were business visitors at the County last Monday for medical observation trip. and further treatment.

Miss Fisher, who were looking over gave a glowing report of the conventhings in his home here for a few tion at Sunday evening's E. L. C. E. Mrs. Harry (Mildred) Brindle was days, left on the bus for Milton last services. he is somewhere on the "other side." Mrs. James Peters and son Harry, taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Thursday morning on a business Three of our soldier boys, Pyt.

returned home Friday last after a John C. Gates of Altoona, was a It should not be forgotten that the last week one day on a three-day vival services last Wednesday evenue that the past week one day on a three-day pleasant caller over the past week. pleasant caller over the past week- Evangelical Booster Band was very furlough and was the guest of his uses they sang. The band consisted parents, He returned to his soldier their monthly meeting at the home the parental home of Mrs. Fisher. Farmer A. Fred Fry and son Don- of children of some twenty or thirty duties in Atlantic City on Thurs- of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowersox last

"In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "Climb Guisewite and Mabel Wolfe, in com-Up Sunshine Mountain" and others. pany with Carl Bechtol, Charles Pvt. Harold Bechtol and Pvt. Har-John Sheesley and housekeeper, day afternoon and evening. They among friends.

Carl Motz, Pvt. Harold Bechtol and Pvt. Carl D. Motz arrived in town Pvt. Harold Clark enjoyed the rening while here on a furlough,

The Evangelical Ladies' Aid held Tuesday evening. All enjoyed a so-Misses Tillie Bowersox, Erma cial period after the regular business convention at Houserville on Satur- having enjoyed their furloughs are taken by women.

When the Army called for men to volunteer, even before Pearl Harbor, the instant response broke all previous enlistment records. Now the President has authorized 150,000 volunteers for the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps - immediately. The sooner these women are trained, the sooner the men they replace can help to win

Tens of thousands of WAAC auxiliaries and officers already are enrolled. They are proving that the American woman can do a man's job in Before this crucial year ends, the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps will need more officers than there were in the Regular U.S. Army in 1939.

Days are passing-days vital to American victory. If you have been thinking about joining the WAAC, the time to do it is at once. If you are a healthy United States citizen, age 21 to 44. inclusive, any race, color or creed, go to the nearest U. S. Army Recruiting and Induction Station today, and get full information on the openings. pay, promotions and training in the WAAC, Total War won't wait. Your country needs you now!

Technical Leader Technical Sergean 114.00 Staff Leader Staff Sergeant 96.00 Technician, 3rd Grade 96.00 Leader Technician. 4th Grade Technician. 4th Grade 78.00 Jr. Loader Corporal 66.00 Technician, 5th Grade Technician. 5th Grade Auxiliary, 1st Class Private, 1st Class In addition to above pay, enrolled members are provided with food, quarters, clothing, dental and

U. S. ARMY RECRUITING AND INDUCTION SERVICE

POST OFFICE BUILDING

BELLEFONTE, PA.

