RED STAMP VALUES,

Shopping For Rationed Foods Is Simple At Your A&P!

Trust your A&P to think up ways to make your shopping for rationed foods easy. If you've been worried about remembering what foods you can get with your blue stamps . . . and what items you can get with your red stamps, ease your mind. A&P has installed a simple system that lets you know at a glance what stamps to use for each rationed food.

When you shop at A&P, the RED NUMBERS on the ration point tags displayed with rationed foods tell that these items can be "bought" with RED STAMPS . . . The BLUE NUMBERS on the tags displayed with rationed foods tell you that the stamps you are required to "spend" are BLUE. That's all there is to it . . . Red numbers mean red stamps; blue numbers mean blue stamps.

BLUE NUMBERS For Blue Stamp Foods For Red Stamp Foods

Your BLUE stamps of War Ration Book No. 2 are vaild for these foods: Canned and bottled fruits and vegetables, juices, soups, baby foods, dried peas, beans and lenti's, dehydrated soups, ketchup and chili sauce, etc. These are marked with BLUE numerals to tell you that your BLUE STAMPS are required for their purchase.
