

May Buy Ambulance.
The Lock Haven Fire Police Association is discussing buying a community ambulance to answer all fire and accident calls and to cooperate with the activities of the Red Cross and the city and state police.

The group will discuss the plan with managements of the local hospitals in the near future.
The French, we are advised, face breadless months. They can thank Der Fuehrer.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Olson—Bloomquist
Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bloomquist, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, announce the marriage of their daughter, Jeanne Eleanor, and Ensign Warren G. Olson at 8 o'clock Monday night in San Francisco, Cal. The bride is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School in last year's class and has been attending Gettysburg College. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Olson, of Escanaba, Mich., was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1942. He has been on duty in the south seas since last July.

Houser—Aikley
Miss Jane Aikley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark N. Aikley, of East Linn street, Bellefonte, became the bride of Pfc. Ellis Houser, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Houser, of East High street, Bellefonte, at a ceremony performed March 25 in the Methodist parsonage at Denver, Colorado. Attendants were Pfc. Carl Follmar, of Lock Haven, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Louise Houser, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Houser is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School, attended the Lock Haven State Teachers' College, and for some time has been employed in the offices of the De-Hias Electric Company on North Allegheny street. Pfc. Houser was inducted into the U. S. Air Corps on December 29, 1942, and is now stationed at Denver. Prior to his induction he was employed by a Lewistown agency. Mrs. Houser has returned to Bellefonte and will continue her employment here.

Heck—Taylor.
At a ceremony performed in the presence of a small group of intimate friends, Miss Lora Grace Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Taylor of Pearsell, Texas, became the bride of Sgt. Donald F. Heck, foster son of Mrs. Jerry Gramley of Rebersburg. The ceremony was performed by the brides' pastor at the bride's paternal home at 8:00 o'clock Saturday evening, April 3. The bride is a senior in the Pearsell High School and will graduate on May 21, 1942. Sgt. Heck graduated from the Hershey Industrial School in 1936 and was at home with Mrs. Jerry Gramley before entering the service. After entering the service in Sept. 1941, Sgt. Heck was stationed at Aberdeen, Maryland for three months and from there he was sent to Midland, Texas. After spending a few months at that air base, he was stationed at Duncan Field, San Antonio, Texas where he is at present.
