Buston Twp. now has 34 boys in the service. A number of them are in foreign lands. The people all over our land are proud of their soldier boys. We realize that they are the best in our land or any land.

Quite a large crowd was in Bellefonte on Saturday, April 17 to see the last contingent leave for camp. It is always a sad occasion, but many folks came away a little more sad and indignant as well because of the condition of the cars the company furnished for the boys to ride in. They must have been some of the oldest cars the company own. Several of the boys tried to raise the windows to say a last good-bye to their friends. The windows had not been raised for so long that it was impossible to get them up.

As the boys are going to the army at a great sacrifice, many leaving jobs and families and may be called on to make greater sacrifices we do not know how great, we think they deserve something better.

Welfare Campaign Opens Today

(Continued from page one) In other years the government, through the National Youth Administration, provided the library with workers, and paid up to $5,000 a year for such help. The NYA program has been discontinued and the library now must provide its own workers. That's why the library is included on the list this year.

The opening salute of the drive was sounded last night when fund officials and team captains met at the Bellefonte High School cafeteria to complete final plans. The dinner program opened with an invocation by L. C. Heineman, "Y" secretary, and a salute to the flag.

Among those who spoke briefly were the following representatives of the institutions participating in the Welfare Fund: Mr. Heineman, for the "Y"; Jesse H. Caum, for the Hospital; Clyde M. Stewart, for the Boy Scouts; Mrs. A. C. Heverly, for the Girl Scouts; Charles A. Schaeffer, for the Legion; Mrs. Ernest Hess, for the Millsburg Fire Company; Rev. H. D. Lowber, for the A. M. E. church; Adjutant M. E. Mason, for the Salvation Army; Dr. Theodore Jackson, for the Crippled Children; R. C. Blaney, for Associated Charities; Guy Brown, for the Athletic Association; and Mrs. Robert Mills Beach, for the Library. The benediction was given by Rev. Mr. Lowber.

Orvis Reed, president of the Central Labor Union, has indicated that labor will take an active interest in the drive this year, and with the success scored by labor in the recent War Fund drive of the Red Cross, the aid of the organization is expected to be most valuable.

The burden of the success of the drive rests with seven teams named to get in touch with every wage or income earner in the area. Team captains have distributed pledge cards to their workers and all solicitors have been urged to report frequently so a close check can be maintained on the progress of the campaign.

The teams, their divisions and their captains, follow: Team No. 1, Titan Metal Plant, W. W. Sleg with Philip B. Ray as assistant.

Team No. 2, Lime Plant, Fred Warner.

Team No. 3, Small Industries, E. Keith Anderson.

Team No. 4, Public Employees, J. M. Curtin.

Team No. 5, Professional People, Philip H. Johnston.

Team No. 6, Stores, E. L. Plumb.

Team No. 7, all other classifications, Earl S. Orr.

Officers of the Welfare Fund, elected in January, are: C. C. Brown, president; E. L. Plumb, first vice president; Philip B. Ray, second vice president; Hays W. Matern, Jr., treasurer; and Mary Harvey Scott, secretary.

To aid in determining the amount of your pledge, Welfare officials suggest that you give one cent of every dollar of your annual income. Last year pledges totaled $14,506, and payments to date total approximately $14,000.

The budget is approximately $2-500 more this year than were the pledges in 1942. If everyone gives a few cents more, the 12 institutions will be able to continue their essential duties without curtailment.
