County Tops April War Bond Quota
 These uncompleted books this week-end, and turn in the books for bonds," he suggested.
 Robb expressed the opinion that if all partially filled War Savings Stamps books were completed and exchanged for bonds before Monday night, the total "E" bond sales for April would exceed the $300,000 mark.
 Because several banks have not submitted totals and because sales in some of the county industries have not been reported, Mr. Robb said the figures given as of yesterday are subject to some revision when final reports are in. "We believe the revision will be upward," he added.

No April Court
 All jurors summoned as either grand or traverse jurors for the April term of Tioga county court, have been notified not to report, there not being enough business to warrant the expense of a term.

SHAFFER STORES COMPANY

NOTICE!

Beginning May 1, 1943, all retail deliveries by all local dairies will be made
Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays
 by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

We are proud to point out to the public that we have VOLUNTARILY limited our retail deliveries to seven in every two weeks since Feb. 9, 1942, or almost 15 months. We want to take this opportunity to thank our loyal customers whose 100% cooperation has made this possible. We want to ask for your continued understanding under this new system which in our particular case is slightly less economical and not as well suited to our set up as our own plan, but has been ordered for this community because of the savings that will be made by local dairies as a whole, and because this particular plan was favored by a majority of the local dairies when they were told that some curtailed delivery system had to be started.
