

CENTRE HALL AND VICINITY

MISS BARTHOLOMEW IS HOSTESS AT DANCE HERE

Miss Jean Bartholomew is hostess to a group of young people at a dance last Wednesday night at the former Bartholomew home, now unoccupied. These guests were present besides Miss Carrie Belle Emerick and Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, chaperones: Misses Lols Ross, Minerva Neff, Edna Rimmer, Phyllis Grove, Evelyn Royer, Fern Hanna, Beulah Bradford, Adaline Goodhart, Helen Wilkins, Esther Blazer, Alta Miller, Martha Spiker, Isabel Emery, Barbara Potter, Jean Hanna, Martha Mowery, Larue Brooks, Geraldine Rockey, Betty Slack, Betty Seaton, Edith Meeker, Ruth Hackett, and Joyce Bradford. Adon Foust, Chester Pletcher, Paul Bradford, Jr., Jack Brouse, Ernest Frank, Jr., Donald Brouse, Ardell Gross, Harry Burris, Jr., Miles King, Robert Ross, C. William Booser, Jr., Marlin Fye, John Rimmer, Jr., George Rakton, Eldon Whittman, Robert Bloom, Donald Ross, Donald Ross, Guy Foust and Fred Horner.

CHURCH SERVICES

Evangelical: Rev. W. K. Hosterman, pastor. Centre Hall—Church service, 10:30; Sunday school, 9:30. Bethesda—Church service, 2; Sunday school, 9:30. Locust Grove—Church service, 7:30; Sunday school, 9:30. Lutheran: The Rev. C. C. Otto, pastor. Centre Hall—Church service, 7:30; Sunday school, 9:30. Farmers Mills—Church service, 10:30; Sunday school, 9:30. Georges Valley—Church service, 9:00; Sunday school, 10:00. Methodist: The Rev. C. M. Hammond, pastor. Centre Hall—Church service, 9:30; Sunday school, 10:30. Sprucecreek—Church service, 10:45; Sunday school, 9:45. Presbyterian: Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, pastor. Lemont—Church service, 11; Sunday school, 10. Pine Grove Mills—Church service, 9:30; Sunday school, 10:30. Centre Hall—Church service, 7:30; Sunday school, 9:30.

MUNICIPAL MILLHEIM NEW SHOW TIME Shows Now 7:30 and 9:30 P. M. Admission 10c & 30c

LAST TIMES TONIGHT (Thursday) GEORGE BRENT and BRENDIA MARSHALL "YOU CAN'T ESCAPE FOREVER" Exposing the BLACK MARKETS

FRIDAY NIGHT ONLY (May 7th) SPECIAL STAGE & PICTURE PROGRAM! —On the Stage— THE GREGG TOWNSHIP BAND (80 Band Members) Director—Harold E. Breon

—On the Screen— The Laugh Comedy of the Year! MARJORIE MAIN ZASU PITTS "TISH"

NOTE: Only One Complete Program Starting Promptly at 8 p. m. CHILDREN 15c ADULTS 25c SATURDAY NIGHT ONLY (May 8th)

Here's a picture that is different... It's Tops in Entertainment! MARGARET CHAPMAN "PARACHUTE NURSE"

Excitement, Thrills and Not a Dull Moment! —Also— Beautiful Girls... Musical Tunes... all in— "FLYING WITH MUSIC"

COMING—MAY 12-13 "Journey For Margaret" Robert Young and Laraine Day

AS AMERICAN AS Paul Revere... The "New Liberty Chair" $19.50 LOOK FOR THIS BRAND UNDER THE SEAT! Liberty Chair. Chair comes decorated with the American Eagle and trimmed in gold on a black finish with light arms.

BRACHBILL'S Spring Street Bellefonte, Pa.

REFORMED: Rev. D. R. Keener, pastor. Centre Hall—Church service, 10:30; Sunday school, 9:30. Tusseyville—Sunday school, 10; church service, 9.

RED CROSS DRIVE HERE NETS TOTAL OF $325.85

The recently-closed Red Cross drive, organized by the Centre Hall Woman's Club, netted $525.05 in Centre Hall borough and Potter township. Personal contributions in town amounted to $204.71. These organizations contributed as follows, amounting to $304.25: Lutheran Sunday school, $25; Reformed Sunday school, $15; Evangelical Sunday school, $10.54; Methodist Sunday school, $5; Eastern Star, $5; Progress Grange, $5; Woman's Club, $5; Clover Club, $10; Yo-Yo Club, $1.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS INTERESTING REVIEW

The recent engaging book, "We Took to the Woods," by Louise Rich was reviewed by Mrs. Samuel Grove at a Woman's Club meeting in the high school building last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Grove described, sometimes in the words of the author, the adventurous life of the Rich family in their Maine back-woods home. The fine humor and philosophy of the writer were reflected in the review.

GLEANERS' CLASS TO BUY SERVICE FLAG

Mrs. William Bechtel entertained the Gleaners Evangelical Sunday school class at her home last Wednesday evening. This group has recently merged with the Women's class of the same Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz spent most of last week in Harrisburg.

Miss Cora Homan made a business trip to State College on Monday and while there visited Mrs. Lula Reish.

Mrs. Mazie Lee and Ronald and Donald Brent spent Saturday at the Claude Wert home.

The May meeting of the Centre Hall Woman's Club will be held on Monday, May 10, instead of the usual date. The Garden Section has arranged for a canning demonstration to be given by Miss Helen Butler at this meeting.

The Juvenile Grange, under the direction of Mrs. J. Thomas Delaney, will present a Mother's Day program at the next meeting of Progress Grange, Friday evening, May 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sharer called at the John W. Delaney home on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jacob Sharer, Sr., and Mrs. Ollie Weiser spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Carper at Millheim.

Clair, David and Nevin Zerby and Mrs. J. Thomas Delaney had Saturday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Delaney.

Mrs. Elsie McClellan left recently for Homer City, where she will keep house for the Oscar Sherman family.

Mrs. Robert Mann, nee Miss Thelma Clark, of Chicago, visited last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Packer.

Joan Ritz, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Jodon, is ill with mumps.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society met last Wednesday evening at the G. O. Benner home.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner of State College, are visiting for ten days with their son, the Rev. John W. Wagner and family, in Hudson Heights, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bilger of Pleasant Gap, and Mrs. E. M. Hewett were Easter guests at the P. E. Cori home near State College.

DAUGHTERS OF EASTERN STAR MEMBERS PRESENT PROGRAM

The daughters of Eastern Star members presented a Mother's Day program at the close of the regular meeting here Monday evening.

The program follows: "The Rosary," piano solo, Yvonne Malone; "I Am Happy," duet, Sandra Keener and Kate Jamison; "The Sunshine of Your Smile," bell lyre solo, Betty Seaton; "A Toast to Mother," reading, Virginia Decker; piano solo, Jane Vogt; "The Youngest in the Family," musical reading, Joan Rae Mamolen; "Little Laddie Little Lassie" and "Carolina," violin duets, Nancy Meyer and Nancy Watts, accompanied by Lois Meyer; "My Mother," duet, Clara Lou Wetzel and Gloria Brooks; "Traumer," piano solo, Donna Luse; "Mother Love," duet, Barbara and Eleanor Potter.

Refreshments for the guests and members followed the program.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS INTERESTING REVIEW

The recent engaging book, "We Took to the Woods," by Louise Rich was reviewed by Mrs. Samuel Grove at a Woman's Club meeting in the high school building last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Grove described, sometimes in the words of the author, the adventurous life of the Rich family in their Maine back-woods home. The fine humor and philosophy of the writer were reflected in the review.

After the business meeting and the program, Mrs. George Sweeney of the finance committee, conducted a "poke lunch" sale which netted $5.75 for the treasury.

The Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, who gave a report of the Presbyterian at this meeting, also had charge of the devotions. Mrs. Chester A. Snyder read a paper on "Missions in Korea" and Mrs. Harry W. Potter read one on "The North American Indian." These other members and guests were present: Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. J. A. Heckman, Mrs. T. A. Auman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raymond, Jack Hoener, Mrs. P. P. Henshall, Miss Bess Benner, Mrs. Ches. Slack, Mrs. Philip Bradford and Mrs. Lovan Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cuff of Hackettstown, N. J., spent last Thursday at the W. W. Kerlin home and poultry plant here. This was Mr. Cuff's last trip through this area as feed salesman. He has accepted a position as an agriculture extension worker in New Jersey.

Wagner Geiss of Bellefonte, called last Wednesday on Mrs. E. M. Hewett.

The Rev. and Mrs. Delas R. Keener, daughter Sandra, and Russell Bohm were dinner guests last Wednesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Delaney.

Mrs. Robert Rhoades met her brother, Pfc. Harold Biddle and wife, from Fort Dix, at the train in Lewistown on Saturday, and took them to Pleasant Gap where they spent the weekend with his parents.

Pfc. George Marks of Fort Dix, spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Martz.

Mrs. J. Elmer Royer has gone to Port Matilda to take care of her daughter, Mrs. Darling W. and infant daughter, who returned recently from the Philadelphia Hospital.

J. Elmer Royer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Grove and family. He was a dinner guest on Monday of Mr. and Mrs. W. Abner Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf of Annville, spent the weekend here with relatives.

Miss Jane Foceman, who spent the winter in Millheim, returned to her home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Durbin Fetterolf of Millheim, called on Miss Warren Homan and family on Sunday.

A group of friends and neighbors celebrated Mrs. Jacob Sharer's birthday with her at her home here on Monday evening.

Mrs. C. D. Confer is spending ten days in Madison, Wis., visiting her son, Pvt. Edgar Harter of the U. S. Army Air Corps.

The local Ministerium met Monday afternoon at the Evangelical parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lair from Bellefonte, visited Mr. and Mrs. Rome Gingrich on Sunday.

Mrs. Della Reiber returned to her home here last week. Her daughters, Mrs. Edward Heck and Mrs. Richard Wolfe, with whom she spent the winter, returned with her for a few days.

These local WCTU members attended a regional meeting Tuesday afternoon and evening in Milesburg: Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. Harry W. Potter, Mrs. C. A. Spiker, Mrs. P. P. Henshall, Mrs. Lovan Smith and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. John B. Wert, Jr., president, has called a meeting of the Centre Hall-Potter Alumni Association for Friday evening at 8 o'clock, in the high school building.

Miss Betty Ross of Potters Mills, spent Friday night as a guest of Miss Betty Sweeney.

Mrs. Edgar Miller, Mrs. William Hanna and daughter Jean, made a business trip to Danville on Saturday.

Miss Bonnie Powell of Boalsburg, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leighty.

Miss Lois Ross spent several nights last week with Miss Jean Bartholomew here.

Mrs. Ada Strayer of Lewistown, spent the weekend at the Bartholomew home.

S. T. Reigel has been ill since Saturday with an attack of grippe.

Mrs. Emmett Brooks visited on Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. James Parks, in Bellefonte.

Sell $118.20 in Stamps. The War Stamp booth conducted every Saturday morning in the Murphy store by members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Bellefonte, sold $118.20 in stamps Saturday morning, officials reported yesterday.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Harold E. Bradford was a dinner guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams. Mr. Bradford was inducted recently into the army and is stationed at Camp McClellan, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Rimmer entertained these guests on Sunday: L. K. Dale, Miss Margaret Dale and Miss Mary Ellen McClain of Boalsburg, Cpl. and Mrs. Fred Dale of Pleasant Gap, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale and son Jack, of Bellefonte.

The Evangelical Woman's Missionary Society will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. George Ralston.

Daniel S. Daup, Frank White, Albert Emery and John Dutrow spent Saturday night and Sunday at an Allegheny Mountain hunting camp.

Mrs. D. M. Bradford became a patient in the Centre County Hospital last Tuesday for treatment of an abscessed leg. She was operated on Thursday and is much improved at present.

Sunday guests at the D. M. Bradford home were: Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb McClellan and three children of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker and three children.

Donald Rose of Somerset, spent the weekend with Dean Bradford at State College.

Scoutmaster Robert Rhoads and assistant J. Ernest Wagner, accompanied ten Boy Scouts on an overnight camping trip to Greens Valley Saturday afternoon. The boys slept in tents and cooked their own meals over an open fire. An unscheduled thrill of the trip was the nearby cycling of a panther during the night. These Scouts made the trip: Robert McClellan, John Slack, Harry McClennahan, Jr., Arthur Thoman, Jr., Taylor Potter, Bernard Vogt, Dick Meyer, Lee Stover, Sonny Confer and William Daup.

The local schools which recently collected scrap for the Sittin' junk last week for $134.24. The rural schools will receive about $45 and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison about $7. The remaining sum will be spent for new library books.

Senior baccalaureate services will be held in the Reformed church May 23, with the Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick delivering the sermon.

Mrs. P. P. Geary left last Thursday for Wilkesburg, where she visited Miss Martha Speer, superintendent of Columbia Hospital. J. Frank Smith, Mrs. Geary's father of Bellefonte, visited during her absence with Mr. Geary.

Mrs. Anna Bartholomew and daughters entertained Mrs. Ada Strayer of Lewistown, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison and children to dinner on Sunday.

The St. Luke's Lutheran church will observe family Sunday, May 23, at the evening service. Special recognition will be given to the oldest mother, the youngest mother, the mother with the largest immediate family, the oldest father, and the youngest father who are present at this service.

The Rev. and Mrs. Delas R. Keener and daughter Sandra, were dinner guests on Sunday of Mrs. Sylvia Gerobole in Spring Mills.

The mothers of members will be guests of the Reformed Youth Fellowship at the regular meeting Sunday evening. Some of the mothers have also been asked to participate in the service. Mrs. M. Tibbens Zuber of Spring Mills, will speak on this occasion.

A male quartet and a tenor soloist from Burnham sang special music at the Reformed church service, Sunday evening. The quartet including Arthur M. Sips, Harry E. Shaanoff, Robert E. Haeber, and Paul M. Kline, sang "Winning Men For Jesus," "We Shall Shine as the Stars," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Raymond M. Galvin, soloist, sang "My Friend," and "No One Ever Cared For Me Like Jesus." He was accompanied by Mr. Kline.

Mrs. George Seaton entertained the Ladies' Bible class of the Reformed church at her home last evening. The Friendship Bible class will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Harold D. Bohn.

J. Frank Smith of Bellefonte, and P. P. Geary had Sunday dinner with Mr. Geary's sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown and Mrs. Ollie Auman, in Millheim.

The WCTU is planning a Mother's Day program for Tuesday evening, May 11, in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. M. L. White of State College, will be a guest speaker and the local group will present a pageant. All mothers with children under six years of age are invited to come and bring the children.

A district Sunday school convention was held in the Presbyterian church last evening with the Rev. Charles McClay of Phillipsburg, as the principal speaker.

Miss Barbara Potter spent the weekend with Miss Beverly Vonada in Jacksonville.

The following group of Lutheran women attended the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Northern District of the Central Pennsylvania Synod in Rebersburg, Wednesday: Mrs. Ernest Homan, Mrs. Roy Dutrow, Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, Mrs. Fred Luse, Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mrs. F. K. Frank, Mrs. Clayton Homan, Mrs. Harold Leighty and Mrs. Clarence C. Otto.

The Lutheran Missionary Society Group B will meet Tuesday evening with Miss Bertha Sharer as hostess.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Otto and Ann Troutman spent Ann's birthday last Friday, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Troutman, in Sunbury. A surprise party was arranged for the little four-year-old at the home of her parents, The Rev. and Mrs. Otto spent Friday night and Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Foust in Muncy.

Doors open 7:30 o'clock. CHILDREN 15c ADULTS 25c Tax included

HOWARD

Miss Cella Lucas spent the week-end with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas, at State College. His mother, Mrs. Eliza Lucas, also spent Saturday with them, being called home on account of the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Laoma Williams.

Miss Mary Lou Burkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Burkey, was admitted to the Lock Haven Hospital Friday as an emergency appendectomy patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Allison of Chester, spent a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Heverly and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison.

Floyd Haines, son of Fountain Haines of Howard, R. D., and an apprentice seaman, Bainbridge, Mass., is visiting his parents for a few days.

William Huffman accompanied Mrs. Elsie Marshall to Alabama recently, to visit the latter's son there.

Mrs. Lucas returned home Monday from New York City, where she had gone to attend the exercises when her daughter, Jacqueline, who is in training for a nurse in one of the hospitals there, received her cap and apron.

Mrs. Warren Woods is able to be about again after being ill for more than a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faxon of Boalsburg, were dinner guests at the Warren Woods home Friday evening.

The Garden Club had charge of the entertainment program at the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club, Tuesday evening. Beside a display of flowers, many novel arrangements such as a May pole, vegetables arranged as flowers, miniature bouquets, table pieces, pointed plants, etc., for which the prizes of fifty cents each were given, Mrs. William Tucker and Miss Bertha Romney received them. A musical program was given with vocal solos by Miss Harriet Showers and Mrs. Hosley; vocal duet by Misses Jean Tucker and Beverly Corman, and a piano solo by David Lewis, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gingham and son Don, made a trip to Lock Haven on Friday.

A. H. Smith, whose garage burned down in January, is rebuilding on a much larger scale. It will occupy most of the space from the hotel building to Sunset avenue.

Miss Freda Weaver was taken to the Centre County Hospital last Thursday evening and underwent an operation for appendicitis the following morning. Mrs. Edith Hill is assisting at the S. E. Noll home during her absence.

Jack Herman and Mr. Busky of Philadelphia, both well known in this community, left for the army last week.

Mrs. Harry Showers and nephew, James Huffman, spent the weekend with the William Derone family in Williamsport.

Russell Spicher was home from camp for the weekend and left Monday for the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Roy Rockey, who has been in poor health since April 11, is improving slowly.

Edward Noll and Henry Knoffhsinger, who were tearing down the old Homer house, had the misfortune of being hurt quite badly when the house collapsed, causing them both to fall from the ladders upon which they were working. Both were taken to the Centre County Hospital for treatment but later returned to their homes.

Instructor Ensign Terry Noll and student, Cadet George Van Woert Smith parachuted to safety last Friday afternoon at Barrington, Ill., near the Chicago Naval Air Base, when after Cadet Smith had done a number of acrobatics, something happened to the plane and the occupants were forced to bail out. Ensign Noll landed in a willow tree and Cadet Smith landed about fifty yards away in a field. The plane crashed in a ploughed field about 100 yards from a highway.

Mrs. Armintha Rockey of Ohio, is keeping house for the Orrie Mulberger. Mrs. Mulberger, who broke her hip in the winter is gradually feeling better.

Mrs. Paul Keller of Philadelphia, spent a few days last week at the Noll-Smith home. Mrs. Hubert Koch of State College, also visited there one day during that time.

PLEASANT GAP

Robert Kelly has been absent from his post at Melroy's for the past few days suffering with an abscessed tooth.

Jerry Gill, our oldest resident who is in the nineties, has been quite miserable for the past week or more. Mr. Gill is quite active as a rule and he hope it will not be long until he again enjoys his usual good health.

Mrs. George Magargel, Jr. and daughter Ruth, spent Sunday at Howard.

Mrs. Ward Hill has been quite ill at her home with the grippe and pink eye.

Mrs. Forest Benford resigned her position as stenographer at State College last week.

Mrs. Harold Brooks, who had been working at the Sylvania plant at Mill Hill, resigned her position recently.

William Huffman accompanied Mrs. Elsie Marshall to Alabama recently, to visit the latter's son there.

Mrs. Lucas returned home Monday from New York City, where she had gone to attend the exercises when her daughter, Jacqueline, who is in training for a nurse in one of the hospitals there, received her cap and apron.

Mrs. Warren Woods is able to be about again after being ill for more than a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faxon of Boalsburg, were dinner guests at the Warren Woods home Friday evening.

The Garden Club had charge of the entertainment program at the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club, Tuesday evening. Beside a display of flowers, many novel arrangements such as a May pole, vegetables arranged as flowers, miniature bouquets, table pieces, pointed plants, etc., for which the prizes of fifty cents each were given, Mrs. William Tucker and Miss Bertha Romney received them. A musical program was given with vocal solos by Miss Harriet Showers and Mrs. Hosley; vocal duet by Misses Jean Tucker and Beverly Corman, and a piano solo by David Lewis, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gingham and son Don, made a trip to Lock Haven on Friday.

A. H. Smith, whose garage burned down in January, is rebuilding on a much larger scale. It will occupy most of the space from the hotel building to Sunset avenue.

Miss Freda Weaver was taken to the Centre County Hospital last Thursday evening and underwent an operation for appendicitis the following morning. Mrs. Edith Hill is assisting at the S. E. Noll home during her absence.

Jack Herman and Mr. Busky of Philadelphia, both well known in this community, left for the army last week.

Mrs. Harry Showers and nephew, James Huffman, spent the weekend with the William Derone family in Williamsport.

Russell Spicher was home from camp for the weekend and left Monday for the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Roy Rockey, who has been in poor health since April 11, is improving slowly.

Edward Noll and Henry Knoffhsinger, who were tearing down the old Homer house, had the misfortune of being hurt quite badly when the house collapsed, causing them both to fall from the ladders upon which they were working. Both were taken to the Centre County Hospital for treatment but later returned to their homes.

Instructor Ensign Terry Noll and student, Cadet George Van Woert Smith parachuted to safety last Friday afternoon at Barrington, Ill., near the Chicago Naval Air Base, when after Cadet Smith had done a number of acrobatics, something happened to the plane and the occupants were forced to bail out. Ensign Noll landed in a willow tree and Cadet Smith landed about fifty yards away in a field. The plane crashed in a ploughed field about 100 yards from a highway.

Mrs. Armintha Rockey of Ohio, is keeping house for the Orrie Mulberger. Mrs. Mulberger, who broke her hip in the winter is gradually feeling better.

Mrs. Paul Keller of Philadelphia, spent a few days last week at the Noll-Smith home. Mrs. Hubert Koch of State College, also visited there one day during that time.

Harry Kelley, Jr. was home Sunday from Camp Pickett, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warne and daughter Alice of Ridgefield, N. J., arrived at their summer home in Greens Valley last Sunday. Mr. Warne will spend the month of May there. Miss Warne two weeks, and Mrs. Warne will remain for the summer.

Mrs. Mary Noll of Millheim, visited her sister, Mrs. John Ripka, over the weekend, and on Sunday, Clarence Ripka took them to Renovo to see the Boyd Rachaus.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brooks of Spring Mills, were callers in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Knoffhsinger were home from Harrisburg for the weekend.

The Decker boy who had been working nearly a year, came home to stay a few days ago.

The Boy Scouts spent last Saturday night in Greens Valley, where they had hiked earlier in the day, and returned home Sunday after an early sunrise service. Assistant Scoutmaster, George Magargel, Jr., and William Tucker were with them.

HOWARD

Thomas Pletcher is able to be out again after a severe attack of the grippe.

The funeral service of Mrs. Laoma Williams, widow of Lou Williams, held at the Neff funeral parlor, Sunday, was largely attended. Mrs. Williams, who had been spending her winters with her niece, Mrs. Fleming James of Hinton, W. Va. since her husband's death five years ago, died at their home last Thursday. She was a member of the Walnut street Church of Christ and the P. O. of A. The burial tributes were many and beautiful. Few immediate relatives survive, she being the last member of their family. Those attending from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Fleming James of Hinton, W. Va., Mrs. Rena Pierson of Clarksburg, Mrs. I. K. James of Pittsburg, Va., Henry Stauffer of Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams,

Harry Williams of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Beightol of Howard, R. D., Mr. and Mrs. Schuman Williams, Mrs. William Bowes, Mrs. Cluel Miller, Blanchard, and Mrs. James O'Connor of Bellefonte, Rev. M. B. Rogers officiated and interment was made in the Schenck cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings and son, Rev. Wallace J. Cummings of Middletown, spent the past week with friends in Howard. The men were angling along the surrounding streams for speckled beauties.

Mr. Stephen Penick and son Cecil Gross, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allison returned to their homes at Chester, after a pleasant visit with their parents, Mrs. Carrie Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison.

Mr. N. J. Weickert, instructor in the Howard High School, was called to Gettysburg, Sunday, on account of the death of his mother.

A&P BAKED GOODS VALUES! Especially for Mother... BUT A FAMILY HIT, TOO! Jane Parker MOTHER'S DAY CAKE Each 48c

Get Your Copy of the May Issue of WOMAN'S DAY Only 2c A National Magazine for Women

Table with columns: Item, Pts., Price. Includes Sliced Apples, Iona Peaches, Iona Pears, Grapefruit Juice, A&P Grape Juice, Tomato Soup, Green Beans, A&P Corn, Peas, Red Kidney Beans, Baby Foods, Spaghetti Sauce.

Fresh Sunnyfield Print BUTTER Lb. 53c 2 Red Stamp Points

Table with columns: Item, Pts., Price. Includes Smoked Squares, Pork Sausage, Meat Loaves, Cooked Salami.

PURE LARD Lb. 18c 5 Red Points Required

No Points Required for... FRYING CHICKENS Lb. 57c, CHEESE 18c

Sweet, Ripe, Delicious STRAWBERRIES Pint Box 20c

Table with columns: Item, Price. Includes Grapefruit, Oranges, Crisp Carrots, Yellow Onions, Green Beans, Tomatoes.

Make Salads More Delicious With ANN PAGE SALAD DRESSING Qt. Jar 30c

BUY WAR BONDS REGULARLY!!!

SELF SERVICE A&P SUPER MARKETS

Table with columns: Item, Price. Includes A&P Prunes, Seedless Raisins, Elbow Macaroni, Egg Noodles, Peanut Butter, Baker