

LOCALS

Mrs. Charles Brachbill, of South Spring street, Friday went to Philadelphia on a business and pleasure mission.

Pvt. Harold E. Bradford, of Centre Hall, former employe of the Bellefonte State Store, is stationed at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Lt. William J. Schwartz, MC, of East Curtin street, Bellefonte, has been assigned to the 28th Medical Training Battalion at Camp Grant, Ill.

Mrs. Thomas Caldwell, of East Bishop street, is recuperating from a recent illness. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mayne Caldwell, of Clearfield, is here to be with her.

Rev. H. H. Jacobs, beginning his fifth year as pastor of the Bellefonte Evangelical church, Tuesday observed his birthday anniversary at his home on Willowbank street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Riedy and two children, Janet and Kermit, of Homestead Park, Pittsburgh, came Friday for a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Drebbel, of State College, and other friends.

Mrs. Kenneth Hoag, of near Harrisburg, left during the weekend for Little Rock, Ark., to join her husband, Pvt. Hoag, who is stationed there with the armed forces. Pvt. Hoag is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hoag, of West Linn street.

C. E. Oyler, of Salamanca, N. Y., took a brief vacation on his duties with the B. & O. Railroad on Saturday and came to Centre Hall to visit his numerous friends. Mr. Oyler is brother of Roy Oyler, well known auctioneer of Howard, at whose home he was a guest.

Karl E. tin can Kusse, county salvage chairman, asks Boy Scouts and others to report at the Gamble Mill at 7 o'clock Friday night to process a number of cans which have been turned in without flattening.

The boys are asked to bring can-openers to aid with the work.

Mrs. George B. Thompson, of West High street, who had been a surgical patient at the Centre county hospital for several weeks, Tuesday afternoon was taken to the Phillipsburg State Hospital to undergo special treatment. Mrs. Thompson made the trip in the Widowsown ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Swint, of North Thomas street, have stored their furniture and have left Bellefonte. Mr. Swint, employe of the Bell Telephone Company, has been transferred to Wilkes-Barre, and Mrs. Swint has gone to Rochester, N. Y., to be with her sister, who is ill.

Seaman second class Andrew Joseph Lambert, better known locally as "Newy", has finished his basic training at Bainbridge, Md., and has entered the Chicago University at Chicago for special training in signaling and radio work. He is a son of Mrs. Tracy Lambert, Milesburg.

Anthony Stico, of Pittston, and his son, Elmer Stico, of Waterbury, Conn., spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Irvine and family, at their home west of Bellefonte. The younger Mr. Stico has entered the armed forces and is scheduled to report soon to New York City where he will begin officers' training.

Miss Betty Campbell, of the Gazette apartments, North Allegheny street, expects to leave tomorrow for Everett, Washington, for a visit with her fiancé, Pvt. George Plagiano, formerly of Bellefonte, who is stationed at Paine Field near Everett. Miss Campbell, employe in the Titan Metal Company offices, expects to be absent for about two weeks.

Pvt. Vincent Morgan Lucas, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3, youngest son of the late John A. Lucas, who was sent to New Cumberland on December 1, 1942, and who was transferred from there to Camp Adair, Oregon, spent a week's furlough at his home here. He returned to Camp Adair Monday, and received a promotion from private to corporal. Before entering army service he was employed at the Titan for more than five years.

Reports have reached Bellefonte that Jack Montgomery, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Montgomery, of Bellefonte, was wounded in action and is now in an English hospital. The reports are entirely without official confirmation. According to information available in Bellefonte, Montgomery suffered head wounds, but is not in serious condition. He is a brother of Gordon Montgomery, also a former well Bellefonte resident.

A course on production, conservation and processing of foods will be given by the Agriculture and Home Making Departments of the Bellefonte High School in cooperation with the State Department of Public Instruction. The course will cover a period of 40 hours of work and will meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 in Room 116 of the high school building. The class will meet this Thursday, May 6th and is open to any interested persons.

The Girls Athletic Military Society of the Bellefonte High School is sponsoring a contest in which a king, queen, prince and princess will be chosen. This contest is the main event sponsored this week, which is good posture week, by the C. A. M. S. The king and queen will be chosen from junior high and the prince and princess from junior high. The contestants for king are Charles Ammerman, Robert Rockey and Guy Gorman. The contestants for queen are Martha Bloomquist, Fay Jones, Marjorie Wehr, Betty Smith and Jane Wagner. Those for prince are Tom Kellerman, Curtis Wagner, Lee Smith, Dick Bonnell and Dick Capers. For princess are Barbara Steger, Joan O'Hara, Dorothy White, Betty Lou Herman and Virginia Miller. The winners will be announced and presented at the spring frolic on May 7, 1943.

Miss Nina Lamb resumed her duties at the First National Bank, Monday, after spending a week's vacation at the family home on North Allegheny street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haupt, of Centre Hall, are now occupying the former Russell Mallory home on Halfmoon Terrace which they purchased some time ago.

Lt. James H. Carpeneto, of Ft. Stanish, Mass., is spending ten days in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. Louis Carpeneto and family, of South Allegheny street.

Miss Cecelia Moerschbacher, of Pittsburgh, was an overnight guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Moerschbacher, of South Thomas street, during the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Richard Waite and daughter, Molly Jean, have made arrangements to move from the A. C. Hevlyer bungalow on East High street to one of the Brooks apartments on East Linn street.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clemson and sons, Daniel, Jr., and Franklin, last Wednesday moved from the Mull house on West Curtin street to one of the Hippie apartments on North Water street.

Mrs. Tillie Rittmiller and son, Lawrence, who had been occupying an apartment in the Stutzman house on West Curtin street, last week moved into one of the Hippie apartments on North Water street.

Bud Coldron, for several months employed at the State Store in Phillipsburg, has been transferred to the latter's home, A. C. Kenneth Marshall, who is serving as an aviation cadet in the U. S. Air Force now at Maxwell Field. He is to be transferred to some other base soon for further training.

Miss Augustus Hyslop, of the Hazel apartments, North Allegheny street, last Thursday went to Mt. Alto for a weekend visit with her sons, Billy and Bobby Hyslop. During the absence of her sister, Mrs. Wallace Ebb, the former Martha Shoemaker, was here to take care of their mother, Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker, who is recovering from a lengthy illness.

Miss Agnes Kellerman, nurse in Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C., arrived in Bellefonte, Friday, to spend a month's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellerman and family, of East Bishop street. Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman and son Thomas, and Miss Caroline Kaichik spent the Easter weekend in Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman's son, William, who is a Navy Aviation Cadet at the University of Pennsylvania at that city.

During the past weekend we corrected our mailing list and all subscriptions received up to May list have been credited. The expiration date of your subscription is printed on the pink slip. If you have not been given proper credit, the month of May is the time when we mail out statements to subscribers whose subscriptions are either due or past due. If you want to avoid receiving a pink slip, send in your subscription now.

Rev. H. D. Lower, of East Lamb street, pastor of the Bellefonte A. M. E. church, last Thursday attended a quarterly district conference of that church in Wilkes-Barre. Upon his return from the conference he was accompanied by the Rev. Sidney King, of Pittsburgh, district superintendent; Rev. C. S. Butcher, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. W. A. Bryant, of Altoona, and two lay delegates from the western part of the state, all of whom were overnight guests at the Lower home, Thursday.

Miss Emmy Lou Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Craig, 61 West Curtin street, has been awarded a letter by the Women's Athletic Council at Bucknell University for participation in intermural athletics. The letter award is given to those girls who have earned a total of 750 in points conducted by the Athletic Council. A junior at Bucknell, Miss Craig is seeking a degree in the liberal arts course, all of which she has completed. She is a member of the Bucknell Concert Orchestra and Pi Phi Sorority.

George Von Gunden, of East High street; Robert Barnhart, of East Lamb street, and Edmund Cain, of Pleasant View, Monday departed for San Francisco where they will board a ship bound for Honolulu. The three men have been accepted as civilian electricians by the Navy Department and have been ordered to the Hawaiian Islands where they will be employed on Navy construction.

Auxiliary First Class Alta Zimmerman, daughter of Catherine Zimmerman, of Bellefonte, has been transferred to the Fourth Women's Army Auxiliary Corps at Fort Devens, Mass., from Army Administration School at Nacogdoches, Texas. She is part of the personnel which will operate this post as a training center for new recruits. Hundreds of recruits are coming in each week from every state in the country. It is estimated that eventually 10,000 at a time will be receiving their basic training as auxiliaries at Fort Devens. When their training is completed, they will be sent to army posts to work or will go to specialist or officer candidate schools. Auxiliary Zimmerman is among those selected to carry out this tremendous program to release man-power for the fighting front.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cowher, well known residents of Bellefonte, last Thursday observed their 33rd wedding anniversary at their home on East Logan street. Mr. and Mrs. Cowher were married in Bellefonte on April 29, 1910, at the residence of Rev. J. L. Stover, in Bush Addition. Their entire married life has been spent in Bellefonte. For several years Mr. Cowher was employed by the late Judge and Mrs. A. O. Furst, of West Linn street, and for a number of years afterwards he was chauffeur for Mrs. Edward H. Richard, of Bellefonte, until about four years ago when Mr. Richard moved to Norristown. Since then he has been employed by Bellefonte borough. The couple are the parents of two daughters, Margaret, now Mrs. Albert King, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Eleanor, at home. A son, Gerald, died 14 years ago at the age of seven years. Mrs. Cowher was the former Gertrude Brown, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Anemans.

Pvt. David Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Love, of South Penn street, who entered the army on April 17, has been sent from New Cumberland to Camp Lee, Va., to receive his basic training.

Donald Rine, seaman second class, stationed at St. Louis, Mo., arrived in Bellefonte last Thursday to spend a ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rine, of Halfmoon Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Royer, of New Cumberland, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pargey, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., spent the weekend at the O. A. Kline and the Mrs. Clark Carson homes, both on East Bishop street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stockdale, of Blairsville, have moved to Bellefonte and are now occupying an apartment in the Mrs. Alvina Stover house on East Bishop street. Mr. Stockdale is an instructor at the Bellefonte airport.

Girl Scout Troop No. 8 of Bellefonte will sponsor a jamboree in the YMCA gymnasium tomorrow (Friday) night. The jamboree will feature a style show, booths, a dance, and refreshments sold restaurant style. There will be fun for young and old and prizes will be awarded. Half the proceeds will be turned over to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Elsie Marshall and William Hoffman, of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, accompanied Mrs. Kenneth Marshall to Alabama for a short visit with the latter's husband, A. C. Kenneth Marshall, who is serving as an aviation cadet in the U. S. Air Force now at Maxwell Field. He is to be transferred to some other base soon for further training.

Miss Augustus Hyslop, of the Hazel apartments, North Allegheny street, last Thursday went to Mt. Alto for a weekend visit with her sons, Billy and Bobby Hyslop. During the absence of her sister, Mrs. Wallace Ebb, the former Martha Shoemaker, was here to take care of their mother, Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker, who is recovering from a lengthy illness.

Miss Agnes Kellerman, nurse in Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C., arrived in Bellefonte, Friday, to spend a month's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellerman and family, of East Bishop street. Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman and son Thomas, and Miss Caroline Kaichik spent the Easter weekend in Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman's son, William, who is a Navy Aviation Cadet at the University of Pennsylvania at that city.

During the past weekend we corrected our mailing list and all subscriptions received up to May list have been credited. The expiration date of your subscription is printed on the pink slip. If you have not been given proper credit, the month of May is the time when we mail out statements to subscribers whose subscriptions are either due or past due. If you want to avoid receiving a pink slip, send in your subscription now.

Rev. H. D. Lower, of East Lamb street, pastor of the Bellefonte A. M. E. church, last Thursday attended a quarterly district conference of that church in Wilkes-Barre. Upon his return from the conference he was accompanied by the Rev. Sidney King, of Pittsburgh, district superintendent; Rev. C. S. Butcher, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. W. A. Bryant, of Altoona, and two lay delegates from the western part of the state, all of whom were overnight guests at the Lower home, Thursday.

Miss Emmy Lou Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Craig, 61 West Curtin street, has been awarded a letter by the Women's Athletic Council at Bucknell University for participation in intermural athletics. The letter award is given to those girls who have earned a total of 750 in points conducted by the Athletic Council. A junior at Bucknell, Miss Craig is seeking a degree in the liberal arts course, all of which she has completed. She is a member of the Bucknell Concert Orchestra and Pi Phi Sorority.

George Von Gunden, of East High street; Robert Barnhart, of East Lamb street, and Edmund Cain, of Pleasant View, Monday departed for San Francisco where they will board a ship bound for Honolulu. The three men have been accepted as civilian electricians by the Navy Department and have been ordered to the Hawaiian Islands where they will be employed on Navy construction.

Auxiliary First Class Alta Zimmerman, daughter of Catherine Zimmerman, of Bellefonte, has been transferred to the Fourth Women's Army Auxiliary Corps at Fort Devens, Mass., from Army Administration School at Nacogdoches, Texas. She is part of the personnel which will operate this post as a training center for new recruits. Hundreds of recruits are coming in each week from every state in the country. It is estimated that eventually 10,000 at a time will be receiving their basic training as auxiliaries at Fort Devens. When their training is completed, they will be sent to army posts to work or will go to specialist or officer candidate schools. Auxiliary Zimmerman is among those selected to carry out this tremendous program to release man-power for the fighting front.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cowher, well known residents of Bellefonte, last Thursday observed their 33rd wedding anniversary at their home on East Logan street. Mr. and Mrs. Cowher were married in Bellefonte on April 29, 1910, at the residence of Rev. J. L. Stover, in Bush Addition. Their entire married life has been spent in Bellefonte. For several years Mr. Cowher was employed by the late Judge and Mrs. A. O. Furst, of West Linn street, and for a number of years afterwards he was chauffeur for Mrs. Edward H. Richard, of Bellefonte, until about four years ago when Mr. Richard moved to Norristown. Since then he has been employed by Bellefonte borough. The couple are the parents of two daughters, Margaret, now Mrs. Albert King, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Eleanor, at home. A son, Gerald, died 14 years ago at the age of seven years. Mrs. Cowher was the former Gertrude Brown, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Anemans.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Love and daughter, Jean, of State College, were weekend guests of Mr. Love's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linn Love and family, of East Logan street.

The Junior Section of the Women's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Elmer Swartz on Blanchard street with Mrs. John Covey as co-hostess, Monday, May 10 at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holland and the daughters, Jean and Anne, of Williamsport, spent the weekend with Mrs. Holland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thomas, at their home on East Curtin street.

Miss Marie Kelleher, of South Spring street, spent the weekend in Jackson Heights, L. I., as a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bertrand and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Balliet on Saturday moved from an apartment in the former Bernstein house, now the Thomas property, on East Curtin street, to the Mrs. George A. Beezer apartment in the Library building.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hogenogler, of Clearfield, were Bellefonte visitors Saturday, having come here on a business mission. The Hogenoglers were residents of Bellefonte before moving to Clearfield about 15 years ago.

Lt. J. G. Weisel, stationed at the Naval Training Station in Bainbridge, Md., spent the weekend in Bellefonte with Mrs. Weisel and their son, John, at the home of Mrs. Weisel's father, John Curtin, Sr., of West Linn street.

Miss Mary Toner, of East Howard street, night supervisor at the local Bell Telephone exchange, is enjoying a week's vacation from her duties. Miss Toner spent four days last week in Altoona and attended a meeting of telephone employes there.

Mrs. James Fanning, of South Water street, returned home during the weekend from Corning, N. Y., where she had spent ten days with her mother, William Custer, who recently suffered an illness. Mrs. Custer is reported to be recuperating nicely.

The Misses Mary Knapik and Regina McCoy spent several days the forepart of the week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Knapik, of Halfmoon Terrace. Miss Knapik and Miss McCoy are nurses at the Lockport City Hospital, N. Y.

The Bellefonte Mother's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Martin, on East Curtin street, at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, May 13. Members are urged to note the change of time for the meeting from the regular day, Monday, to Thursday.

Mrs. James Kerschmer has returned to her home on East High street from Pen Yan, N. Y., where she had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frederick, who is recuperating in the Pen Yan hospital from a recent appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bertschey, of Hot Springs, Ark., arrived in Bellefonte, Sunday, called here by the critical illness of Mrs. Bertschey's father, Peter Saylor, of Penn street, who died at his home Tuesday, May 4. Mrs. Bertschey is the former Helen Saylor of Bellefonte.

The monthly meeting of the Bellefonte Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Bayard Magee, 153 East Curtin street, Tuesday afternoon, May 11, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The topic will be "Herbs and Victory Gardening," with Mrs. D. A. Grove leading the discussion.

Among those from out-of-town who were here Sunday for the Vansyckle-Johnson wedding at the Van R. Johnson home on North Spring street, were Mrs. E. Hollibaugh, of Franklin, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. VanSyckle and Mr. and Mrs. Russell VanSyckle, of Andover, N. J., and H. B. Mallory, of Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weaver, of West Logan street, and Mrs. Jacob Shook and son, Doyle, of the Cadillac apartments, spent the weekend in Butler with Mr. and Mrs. Weaver's son, Pvt. James R. Weaver, who is a patient at an Army hospital, and undergoing treatment for a knee injury suffered several weeks ago while on overseas duty.

Mrs. John Miller and daughter, Pamela, who have been in Lakewood, Florida, for nearly a year, were expected to arrive in Bellefonte yesterday and have arranged to occupy rooms in the Hoag-Dubbs house at the corner of Spring and Linn streets. Lt. Miller, former Bellefonte High School coach, who has been stationed with the Army in Florida, is now serving in Australia.

The Bellefonte Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor another of its popular square dances in the Army gymnasium, North Spring street, on Friday evening, May 14. Admission will be 35 cents. Good music and an experienced caller will be provided. The PTA especially invites those who are beginners in the art to attend the dance, pointing out that there will be plenty of demonstrators on hand to give instructions.

At a Chapter Night ceremony held by the Bellefonte Women of the Moose, Wednesday night of last week, five candidates were initiated into the chapter. They were: Lois Kruger, Lila Staubs, Rilla Runkle, Laura High, and Minnie Seeger. The ceremony was in charge of Anna Parsons, homemaker chairman, and Alice Neidigh, child care and training chairman, both of State College. Edna Gray and Josephine Pennington, both of State College, gave readings, and Ruth Ishler, also of State College, played a piano solo. A quartet composed of Edna Gray, Clara Lynch, Dora Meredith and Virginia Smith sang several numbers, and Mrs. Grace Haupt, former associate dean, and Miss Neidigh, spoke on Mooseheart. The evening closed with a penny supper.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Over Thirty Thousand Persons Read These Columns

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived from its use, it is undeniably Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisements contain more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged. REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat who subscribes in paid up, is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. Otherwise the subscriber will be charged the regular advertising rate. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Lost and Found

LOST—A female beagle blood, black, white, brown marks. License No. 3255. Finder please notify John Barton, Fleming, Pa. 1817

LOST—War Ration Book No. 2 issued to Emaline Alterio, Pleasant Gap, Pa. Finder please return to Albert A. Pleasant Gap, Pa. 1817

LOST—No. 1 Rationing Book issued to Hannah Luck. If found return to Mr. and Mrs. William Lucas, Fleming, Pa. Phone 104-R-12. 1817

LOST—The small red license plate No. 487918, between Millersburg and State College. Finder return to this office or Samuel H. Royer, Howard, R. D. 2. 1817

FOUND—A bag of peas near my home. Owner can have same by identifying the bag. Please advise us at the home of L. R. Bickel, Linden Hall, Pa. 1817

Help Wanted

WANTED—Middle-aged lady or man as waiter at Bellefonte Lunch, S. Allegheny street. 1817

WANTED—Lady to take care of house and invalid wife. Inquire of O. V. Schell, Milesburg, Pa. 1817

WANTED—A middle-aged woman to take care of house. Please advise us at the home of H. H. Royer, Rebersburg, Pa. 1817

WANTED—A lady for housekeeping job in family of two persons. Inquire to Robert R. Shope, P. O. Box 415, Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

WANTED—Girl or woman to help on farm about a mile west of Zion, Pa. Inquire of D. L. Cooper, Bellefonte, R. D. 2, Phone Zion 5631. 1817

WANTED—A middle-aged woman to do housework, in family of two persons. Inquire of Mrs. J. H. Bickel, Linden Hall, Pa. 1817

WANTED—A boy to help on farm; needs no experience. To drive a team of horses. Joseph E. Weadler, Centre Hall, Pa. R. D. 1. 1817

WANTED—A middle-aged woman to help do housework. A good home and some wages. Theo. B. Haupt, Bush Addition, Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

WANTED—Experienced painter and paper hanger for steady work. Apply at the local hardware store, The Hardware Company, Lock Haven, Pa. Phone 2244. 1817

WANTED—A middle-aged woman to keep house and act as companion for an elderly lady. No washing. Box H. W. D. care of Centre Democrat. 1817

WANTED—Men to cut paper wood, mine props, logs, mill work. Contract on by the hour. House and cabin suitable for family use. Rent set at job. Inquire of G. W. Holt & Son, Fleming, Pa. 1817

WANTED—Teacher; wonderful opportunity for college student or recent graduate to teach in school with established publishing firm, $800 for ninety days. Write 1032 East Estate Trust Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa. 1817

WANTED—Gas station operators or clerks—earn big money. Own your own business—small business men or anyone qualified to own and operate a gas station. Write for facts. Box 834, Bloomington, Illinois. 1817

Public Sales

Additional Sales Page 3 Second Section

Saturday, May 15 CLIFFORD REED attorney-in-charge for the heirs of Mary C. Reed, will offer at public sale at 10 o'clock, the following items of personal property:

HOUSEHOLD GOODS—Kitchen cupboard and chairs; living room chairs; dining table and six chairs; living room suite; ocean and stool; 6 can-seated chairs; living room table; mirror; bed and spring; dresser; wash stand; wardrobe, rug 8x10; carpet; stand; gasoline lamp; day bed; wooden bed, single; drop-leaf table; 2 rocking chairs; chairs; crocks and tin dishes; and other articles. Sale at 1 o'clock. Terms cash. 1817

Saturday, May 15 HARRY P. HEISEY will offer at public sale at his residence in Main street, Pleasant Gap, Pa., the following:

HOUSEHOLD GOODS—Sofa; pull-up chair; 3-piece living room suite; leather rocker; hair mirror; 4 rockers; 2 straight chairs; 9-piece dining room suite; kitchen cabinet; refrigerator; stand; electric lamp; day bed; 4-burner gas range; 2-burner electric stove; 2-burner electric oven; Singer sewing machine; 6-piece bedroom suite; coil springs; chest of drawers; 4-piece iron bed and spring; single iron bed and spring; 2 salivated tubs; trunk; and many other articles too numerous to list. Sale at 12:30 o'clock p. m. May 6 & 7, 1943. P. M. Dubbs, clerk. 1817

Work Wanted

WANTED—A boy 16 years old wants work on a farm. Mrs. Helen Grove, Coleville, Pa. Phone 2785. 1817

Fur Storage

FUR STORAGE—Your furs are safe here from fire, theft and moth. Bring them in or we will call for them—don't let warmer weather catch you unawares. R. C. Winters, High street, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 2028. (Huberburg).

FOR SALE—Eight-week-old pigs. Inquire of Roy F. Zimmerman, R. D. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—One Holstein cow with second calf. To freshen soon. Mrs. Lundy Steele, Julian, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—Ten pigs, 6 weeks old. Inquire of M. M. Vonada, Bellefonte, R. D. 2, Phone Zion 1721. 1817

FOR SALE—Two good work horses and a good set of harness. Lawrence A. Palmer, Drifing, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—Pigs 6 to 8 weeks old. Four boys, ready for service. J. H. Mitchell, Lemont, Pa. Dial State College 3764. 1817

FOR SALE—A black mare, 11 years old, weight 1350 pounds. Inquire of Fern T. Dinkler, R. D. 2, Howard, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—Two ponies, will work or pull, 40 and 48 months old. One yearling Holstein heifer. Warner Weaver, R. D. 1, Port Matilda, Pa. (Dix). 1817

FOR SALE—Four purebred Holstein heifers, 16 months old. Accredited by Penn. State. Inquire of H. L. Knecht, R. D. 1, Mt. Hall, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—Registered Guernsey bull calves T. B. and B. W. disease tested. Also some New Hampshire Red chickens, 9 weeks old. William Cooper, Bellefonte, R. D. 3. 1817

FOR SALE—One Oliver 40 work beam plow, new. James J. Markle, R. D. 2, State College, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—130 pieces of 15-inch tile. 2 feet long. Inquire of Frank Weller, R. D. 1, Port Matilda, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—Red Clover seed, home-grown. Inquire of Miller Motor Co., Centre Hall, Pa. Phone 66. 1817

FOR SALE—Reclaimed Manchu soy beans for seed. Inquire of Roy F. Zimmerman, R. D. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

Real Estate for Sale

FOR SALE—A 1-1/2 Empire grain drill in good condition. Inquire of Charles F. Hippie, Water St. Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—150-gal capacity incubator, like new. Earl Gettig, Bellefonte, R. D. 2, (Jacksonville) Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 6767. 1817

FOR SALE—Five good tires in good shape. Size 325-550R19. Inquire of David C. Brown, Bush Addition, Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—One electric brooder, 300-day-old chicks. Will sell cheap to quick buyer. Homer Pult, Port Matilda, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—A 1936 G. M. C. pick-up truck, motor overhauled, good tires. Inquire at William Swanson Store, Clearfield, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—International tractor, 8-16, and plow. Electric range, like new. Phone 184-R-22, Centre Hall, Pa. A. B. Smith. 1817

FOR SALE—A 1941 Chevrolet dump truck, perfect condition. Inquire of Decker Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 2621. 1817

FOR SALE—A Hot Point electric refrigerator, 8 cubic feet. Inquire of John Matis, R. D. 1, Port Matilda, Pa. Waddie. 1817

FOR SALE—Colorado Blue Spruce, ranging from 24 inches to 48 inches. Inquire of Mahlon Bowen, eight miles east of Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—1937 Dodge truck, flat top, 4-door, 4-wheel drive, will exchange for dump truck, same size. Inquire of Andy Kosko, Clearfield, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—Manchu soy beans for seed. Inquire of Roy F. Zimmerman, R. D. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—A 1936 G. M. C. pick-up truck, motor overhauled, good tires. Inquire at William Swanson Store, Clearfield, Pa. 1817

FOR SALE—International tractor, 8-16, and plow. Electric range, like new. Phone 184-R-22, Centre Hall, Pa. A. B. Smith. 1817

FOR SALE—A 1941 Chevrolet dump truck, perfect condition. Inquire of Decker Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 2621. 1817