

Echoes From the Past

Fifty Years Ago

Irvin Luse, of Milesburg, has been engaged by the State College baseball club to occupy the pitcher's box during the coming season.

Cows won a round in Bellefonte Council when a vote on petitions to ban cows from roaming at large on the streets of town showed only 1 councilman against the freedom of cows.

Since Collins' Furnace is in operation more workmen are noticeable on our streets. The difference on pay day will be felt decidedly by our merchants.

Thursday evening, if the weather is favorable, the newly organized band will make its first public appearance on the diamond.

Bezer Brothers, the Allegheny Street butchers, killed a fine steer last week, the largest to be brought to Bellefonte for a long time.

Extensive alterations are being made at the rear of the Brockerhoff House this week.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

At present a force of laboring men is breaking ground for a piece of railroad in the vicinity of the glass works that seems to start at the Collins' Furnace and comes in toward Bellefonte along the road at the glass works meadow and keeps on the south side of the Mitchell residence.

George O'Bryan, Axemann coal dealer, suffered painful injuries about the head and shoulders when he fell from an overhead trestle at his coal yard.

While piling lumber at the Abramson Engineering plant Edward Miller, Bellefonte carpenter, suffered a puncture wound about three and a half inches deep in one hip when he fell and landed on a spike projecting from a board.

James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, who for a number of years has been interested in welfare work at Rockview penitentiary, had made arrangements with the management of Main's Circus to send a number of clowns and acrobats to the institution on circus day to give a brief performance for the benefit of the inmates.

Fire caused by a can of paint which had been left near a kitchen range destroyed the home of Mrs. M. J. Constance early Sunday morning at its contents early Sunday morning at State College. The house was owned by Lawrence Woomer, and had been leased to John Long, who had moved his household goods into the premises, but who was living elsewhere while painting was being completed.

The historic colonial doorway of the Curtin residence, once the home of Dr. Constant Curtin and later, for about one year, of Pennsylvania's war Governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, was purchased by A. L. Kocher, of the Pennsylvania State College, from J. O. Heverly, who was razing the old stone house to make way for a business building.

Thomas Lamb, employee of the local P. & R. baggage station, suffered painful burns of the face and neck while looking after the fires at the station one morning. Upon thrusting a poker into the bed of coals, gasses ignited sending a sheet of flame out the furnace door. His hair was singed and his face so severely burned that the skin peeled off. He was confined to his home on North Allegheny street.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

George O'Bryan, Axemann coal dealer, suffered painful injuries about the head and shoulders when he fell from an overhead trestle at his coal yard.

While piling lumber at the Abramson Engineering plant Edward Miller, Bellefonte carpenter, suffered a puncture wound about three and a half inches deep in one hip when he fell and landed on a spike projecting from a board.

James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, who for a number of years has been interested in welfare work at Rockview penitentiary, had made arrangements with the management of Main's Circus to send a number of clowns and acrobats to the institution on circus day to give a brief performance for the benefit of the inmates.

Fire caused by a can of paint which had been left near a kitchen range destroyed the home of Mrs. M. J. Constance early Sunday morning at its contents early Sunday morning at State College. The house was owned by Lawrence Woomer, and had been leased to John Long, who had moved his household goods into the premises, but who was living elsewhere while painting was being completed.

The historic colonial doorway of the Curtin residence, once the home of Dr. Constant Curtin and later, for about one year, of Pennsylvania's war Governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, was purchased by A. L. Kocher, of the Pennsylvania State College, from J. O. Heverly, who was razing the old stone house to make way for a business building.

Thomas Lamb, employee of the local P. & R. baggage station, suffered painful burns of the face and neck while looking after the fires at the station one morning. Upon thrusting a poker into the bed of coals, gasses ignited sending a sheet of flame out the furnace door. His hair was singed and his face so severely burned that the skin peeled off. He was confined to his home on North Allegheny street.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

George O'Bryan, Axemann coal dealer, suffered painful injuries about the head and shoulders when he fell from an overhead trestle at his coal yard.

While piling lumber at the Abramson Engineering plant Edward Miller, Bellefonte carpenter, suffered a puncture wound about three and a half inches deep in one hip when he fell and landed on a spike projecting from a board.

James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, who for a number of years has been interested in welfare work at Rockview penitentiary, had made arrangements with the management of Main's Circus to send a number of clowns and acrobats to the institution on circus day to give a brief performance for the benefit of the inmates.

Fire caused by a can of paint which had been left near a kitchen range destroyed the home of Mrs. M. J. Constance early Sunday morning at its contents early Sunday morning at State College. The house was owned by Lawrence Woomer, and had been leased to John Long, who had moved his household goods into the premises, but who was living elsewhere while painting was being completed.

The historic colonial doorway of the Curtin residence, once the home of Dr. Constant Curtin and later, for about one year, of Pennsylvania's war Governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, was purchased by A. L. Kocher, of the Pennsylvania State College, from J. O. Heverly, who was razing the old stone house to make way for a business building.

Thomas Lamb, employee of the local P. & R. baggage station, suffered painful burns of the face and neck while looking after the fires at the station one morning. Upon thrusting a poker into the bed of coals, gasses ignited sending a sheet of flame out the furnace door. His hair was singed and his face so severely burned that the skin peeled off. He was confined to his home on North Allegheny street.

Rev. George E. Smith, for four years pastor of the Bellefonte United Brethren church, had resigned to accept a call to the Huntingdon church.

A rummage sale held at the Undine fire house by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Bellefonte Hospital netted approximately $350, officials of the Auxiliary reported.

T. Clayton Brown purchased the house at the corner of Spring and Bishop streets which he had occupied for some time. He expected to make a number of improvements.

Marvin Rothrock, who had been employed as a clerk in the local office of the State Highway Department, had accepted a position as assistant to Fred Craft, at the American Lime and Stone Company plant. Mr. Craft was superintendent of the Sunnyside operations.

August Glinz, proprietor of the Garman House, returned from an eleven-month tour through France, England, Switzerland and Germany. He reported that a glass of good beer could be purchased in Germany for one cent in American money, but costs 800 marks of Germany money.

A large frame building on Rockview penitentiary grounds, used as a bakery while a permanent bakery building was under construction, was burned to the ground in a fire of undetermined origin.

The Phillipsburg Journal says that contractor Tennis, of Lewisburg, is gathering his forces and the necessary equipment preparatory to beginning work at once on the new railroad running from Phillipsburg to Altoona and Phillipsburg Railroad. Quite a number of teams, carts, etc., arrived last week and in a few days is expected that a large force of men will be at work on the line and the road pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

At present a force of laboring men is breaking ground for a piece of railroad in the vicinity of the glass works that seems to start at the Collins' Furnace and comes in toward Bellefonte along the road at the glass works meadow and keeps on the south side of the Mitchell residence.

George O'Bryan, Axemann coal dealer, suffered painful injuries about the head and shoulders when he fell from an overhead trestle at his coal yard.

While piling lumber at the Abramson Engineering plant Edward Miller, Bellefonte carpenter, suffered a puncture wound about three and a half inches deep in one hip when he fell and landed on a spike projecting from a board.

James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, who for a number of years has been interested in welfare work at Rockview penitentiary, had made arrangements with the management of Main's Circus to send a number of clowns and acrobats to the institution on circus day to give a brief performance for the benefit of the inmates.

Fire caused by a can of paint which had been left near a kitchen range destroyed the home of Mrs. M. J. Constance early Sunday morning at its contents early Sunday morning at State College. The house was owned by Lawrence Woomer, and had been leased to John Long, who had moved his household goods into the premises, but who was living elsewhere while painting was being completed.

The historic colonial doorway of the Curtin residence, once the home of Dr. Constant Curtin and later, for about one year, of Pennsylvania's war Governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, was purchased by A. L. Kocher, of the Pennsylvania State College, from J. O. Heverly, who was razing the old stone house to make way for a business building.

Thomas Lamb, employee of the local P. & R. baggage station, suffered painful burns of the face and neck while looking after the fires at the station one morning. Upon thrusting a poker into the bed of coals, gasses ignited sending a sheet of flame out the furnace door. His hair was singed and his face so severely burned that the skin peeled off. He was confined to his home on North Allegheny street.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

George O'Bryan, Axemann coal dealer, suffered painful injuries about the head and shoulders when he fell from an overhead trestle at his coal yard.

While piling lumber at the Abramson Engineering plant Edward Miller, Bellefonte carpenter, suffered a puncture wound about three and a half inches deep in one hip when he fell and landed on a spike projecting from a board.

James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, who for a number of years has been interested in welfare work at Rockview penitentiary, had made arrangements with the management of Main's Circus to send a number of clowns and acrobats to the institution on circus day to give a brief performance for the benefit of the inmates.

Fire caused by a can of paint which had been left near a kitchen range destroyed the home of Mrs. M. J. Constance early Sunday morning at its contents early Sunday morning at State College. The house was owned by Lawrence Woomer, and had been leased to John Long, who had moved his household goods into the premises, but who was living elsewhere while painting was being completed.

The historic colonial doorway of the Curtin residence, once the home of Dr. Constant Curtin and later, for about one year, of Pennsylvania's war Governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, was purchased by A. L. Kocher, of the Pennsylvania State College, from J. O. Heverly, who was razing the old stone house to make way for a business building.

Thomas Lamb, employee of the local P. & R. baggage station, suffered painful burns of the face and neck while looking after the fires at the station one morning. Upon thrusting a poker into the bed of coals, gasses ignited sending a sheet of flame out the furnace door. His hair was singed and his face so severely burned that the skin peeled off. He was confined to his home on North Allegheny street.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

George O'Bryan, Axemann coal dealer, suffered painful injuries about the head and shoulders when he fell from an overhead trestle at his coal yard.

While piling lumber at the Abramson Engineering plant Edward Miller, Bellefonte carpenter, suffered a puncture wound about three and a half inches deep in one hip when he fell and landed on a spike projecting from a board.

James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, who for a number of years has been interested in welfare work at Rockview penitentiary, had made arrangements with the management of Main's Circus to send a number of clowns and acrobats to the institution on circus day to give a brief performance for the benefit of the inmates.

Fire caused by a can of paint which had been left near a kitchen range destroyed the home of Mrs. M. J. Constance early Sunday morning at its contents early Sunday morning at State College. The house was owned by Lawrence Woomer, and had been leased to John Long, who had moved his household goods into the premises, but who was living elsewhere while painting was being completed.

The historic colonial doorway of the Curtin residence, once the home of Dr. Constant Curtin and later, for about one year, of Pennsylvania's war Governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, was purchased by A. L. Kocher, of the Pennsylvania State College, from J. O. Heverly, who was razing the old stone house to make way for a business building.

Thomas Lamb, employee of the local P. & R. baggage station, suffered painful burns of the face and neck while looking after the fires at the station one morning. Upon thrusting a poker into the bed of coals, gasses ignited sending a sheet of flame out the furnace door. His hair was singed and his face so severely burned that the skin peeled off. He was confined to his home on North Allegheny street.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Duell, Clearfield county, and Charity Swisher, Centre county.

Over the County News

Private Earl D. Motz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Motz, of Woodward, stationed at the Atlantic City Basic Training Center, AAF Technical Training Command, has been promoted to the grade of Private First Class.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miller of Millheim, left last Tuesday morning for New Orleans, La. They are making the trip primarily to deliver the Denial sedan belonging to their son, Lt. John R. Miller, to him there at his post duty.

The ownership of the Millheim Water Company was officially transferred to the Borough of Millheim last Tuesday afternoon at a meeting in the Farmers National Bank & Trust Company.

The Gregg Township Band, musical organization of eighty members, under the direction of Harold T. Breen, will give a concert in the Municipal Theatre, Millheim, Friday evening, May 7, to begin at 8 o'clock.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

The H. P. Sheffer family of Boalsburg has headed the call of "All-out for Victory." Mother, father, daughter and son are all connected with the armed forces.

JULIAN

If the old saying is true that the last Friday in the month rules the weather for the next month, we probably will have a very blustery month.

Mrs. James Reese has been confined to her bed with a serious attack of muscular rheumatism. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Nora Bron spent Friday in Bellefonte. Mrs. Fulgar of Lock Haven, spent the weekend with Mrs. Nora Bron.

Staff Sgt. Charles J. Williams, who had a 20-day furlough, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Williams, also other friends and relatives. He left last Friday for Fort Bliss, Texas, where he will be permanently located for a definite time, training more men for the service of Uncle Sam. Charles recently sailed from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, where he had been stationed for three years and 10 months.

Those who visited over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dando were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dando and children of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Dando of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. J. K. Turner and Mrs. Nora Bron spent Thursday at the home of the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Irwin of Harrisburg.

William Flack spent the weekend at his home with his wife and little daughter, Vonnie.

Those who called and visited over last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Williams were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shoemaker of Pennsylvania Furnace and Mrs. Eugene Markle of Pleasant Gap, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Nora Bron, Mrs. Fred Andrews, Hubert Alexander of Bellefonte, Gail Dando of Cleveland, O., William Flack, stationed with the Marines.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Green and daughter Olive, spent Sunday at their home here in Julian.

The beggar, as he had done many hundreds of times, requested a gift of money, but Peter realized the opportunity for a much more valuable gift.

"Peter doth not thus speak before he be certain of the purpose and intent of God," said John Calvin. "And surely in these words he commandeth him to hope for some singular and unwonted benefit; yet here may a question be moved, whether they have power to work miracles as often as they would. I answer, that they were ministers of God's power in such sort, that they did attempt nothing of their own will or when he knew that it was expedient it should be so. Hereby it came to pass that they healed one and not all. Therefore, as in other places, it was the Spirit of God to be their guide and director, so also in this point."

Peter had no money to give the beggar but this did not prevent him from helping him. The Great Apostle realized the truth expressed by William Allen White that "service is the coin which humanity's greatest debts are paid."

Portions of the Bible have recently been printed in four new African languages—languages first reduced to writing by missionaries. They are the Nkutu and Okela tongues of the Belgian Congo, and the Parawa and Ganawari of Northern Nigeria.

The first edition of St. Mark in Okela was destroyed by a bomb, but a second was printed. Two African Christians translated St. Mark into Parawa, and another assisted in translating the same book into Ganawari. The entire Bible or portions of it have now been published in 288 African languages.

"Governor Lehman is already setting up far-reaching machinery for bringing essential needed food supplies to the people of Mexico and Algeria," says Dr. Charles-Edward A. Winslow, of Yale University. "It is unfortunate that even on such a local issue there is not yet unanimity among the American people... Shakespeare has a message on this point: 'Aflaith not a Jew, eyes, hath not a Jew hands, organs, dimensions, senses, affections, passions, fed with the same food, hurt with the same weapons, subject to the same diseases, healed by the same means, warmed and cooled by the same winter and summer, as a Christian is?'"

Arrangements have been made between the Selective Service officials and the staff of the American Friends Service Committee whereby religious objectors now in Civilian Public Service Camps may volunteer for work on dairy farms. The Department of Agriculture has approved twenty-six counties throughout the nation in which this service can be carried on.

During the summer months, the Committee on Town and Country of the Home Missions Council of North America and the Churches of Christ in America will sponsor nearly forty in-service training schools, institutes, graduate courses, conferences and camps for rural ministers in various parts of the United States. The purpose of the schools is four-fold: to help ministers become acquainted with tested methods of town and country church work; to assist them in securing an understanding of the trends and problems of modern country life; to develop fellowship among ministers in town and country; to increase contacts of ministers with agricultural leaders.

"We speak of this work as a global war," said Bishop Arthur J. Moore, of Atlanta, Georgia. "It is having and will have global results. Our attitude will be global also. It was once said that this nation could not endure half slave and half free. Now we know that the world cannot be half good and half bad, half independent and half undependent, half Christian and half pagan. If Christ is to be supreme everywhere, he must be supreme everywhere. This applies to our own democracy. The time has come when this country must really be evangelized in its attitudes and human relationships. Not otherwise can we play our proper part in the post-war world. This land of ours must be Christianized not only for its own sake but for the sake of its influence in the future. Here is destined to be the main base of both Christian missions and political democracy and freedom, probably for a century to come. The influence we exert in the world will depend in no small degree on the character of our own social life."

Weekday church school—to which public school pupils are released from classes for from one to three hours for religious instruction—are now in operation in more than 800 school systems in forty-one states, according to Dr. Roy G. Ross, Jr., director of the Council of Religious Education. Bills now in legislative process in Wisconsin, New Jersey and California would add those states to the list.

Jewish, Catholic and Protestant church members are being urged by a committee, headed by leaders of all three faiths, to set aside a period of several prayer meetings when they will write letters of friendship to individual persons in Russia. The letters—5,000,000 of them are sought—will be collected by any of the numerous branches of Russian War Relief, and from their headquarters at 11 East 35th Street, New York, forwarded in shipments of relief supplies to as many people in the Soviet Union. The purpose of the campaign is to help promote understanding between these two countries now allies in arms. June 22 is the "deadline" for these letters.

Prescriptions filling is a serious business with us. Prescriptions are the most important part of our lives. That's why your best protection is a good prescription service.

WHITE BROS. DRUG STORE Bellefonte, Pa.

WHEN WINDS GET ROUGH A Windstorm Policy Protects You From Financial Loss. See John F. Gray & Son General Insurance Phone 497-J Bellefonte, Pa.

BABY CHICKS White Leghorn - Br. & White Rocks - N. H. Redd and Rock Red Cross. Straight or Sex. Extra Select Broiler Cockerels for quick growth. Order direct $2.45 for 50. Write for my prices on Baby Chicks NOW! Gervin K. Schaeffer McAllisterville, Pa.

KELVINATOR ELECTRIC STOVES MELROY'S Phone 6951 PLEASANT GAP, PA. PHILCO RADIOS BENDIX HOME LAUNDRY

Removal of Calcium The ordinary calcium, or glue-whiting type, can be washed off the walls with water. Sometimes it is necessary to add some alkaline material, such as soap powder, ammonia, trisodium phosphate, or borax to the water.

When you speak of cooperation always remember that this includes your cooperation when matters are not being done exactly as you would like to see them done.

Is District Manager Dr. Thomas M. Thompson, Phillipsburg, has been named state district medical director for Montgomery and Bucks counties, succeeding Dr. Howard W. Hassell, who died Tuesday. Dr. Thompson served two years as district director for Clearfield, Centre and Clinton counties.

Are you investing in War Bonds? Doughnuts can be prevented from absorbing too much of the fat in the cheese, lemon juice, salt and pepper, then the beaten egg. Place the mixture in buttered muffin tin and put in a pan of warm water. Bake. Unmold and serve with tomato sauce.

Peeling Onions The next time you peel onions you can prevent your eyes from watering if you hold a pin or needle in your mouth during the process.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

William G. Gordon, et ux. to John L. Wetzler, of Milesburg, tract in Boggs Twp. $1.

William G. Gordon, et ux. to John L. Wetzler, of Milesburg, tract in Boggs Twp. $1.

Charles E. Woodring, et ux. to Charles E. Woodring, of Williamsport, tract in Wood Twp. $1.

Joseph E. Brugger, by heirs, to Flora A. Curtin, of Atlanta, Ga. tract in Unionville, $1.

Derrill C. Ross, et ux. to Earl E. Bartley, et ux. of Port Matilda, tract in Port Matilda, $1.

Russell M. Malloy, et ux. to William N. Haupt, et ux. of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, tract in Spring Twp. $1.

Ira J. Sprankie, et ux. to Edward R. Houser, et ux. of Bellefonte, tract in Bellefonte, South Ward, $1.

Katie Weaver, Adm., to R. E. Vonada, et ux. of Aaronsburg, tract in Penn Twp. $125.

Annie N. Mensch, to R. E. Vonada, of Aaronsburg, tract in Haines Twp. $100.

Harvey J. Markle, et ux. to Helen Marion Treasurer, of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, tract in Spring Twp. $1.

Harvey J. Markle, et ux. to Helen Marion Treasurer, of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, tract in Spring Twp. $1.

William A. Strouse, et ux. to Edward L. Facer, of Allentown, tract in Patton Twp. $500.

Millheim Water Co., to Millheim Borough, tract in Penn Twp. etc. $23,000.

Mary Haley to Clarence James Henry, of Phillipsburg, tract in South Phillipsburg, $1.

J. Fred Connor, to Kenneth C. Em-Inhizer, et ux. of Bellefonte, R. D. 1, tract in Spring Twp. $2,000.

A. S. Greninger, to Beecher Greninger, of Tylersville, tract in Miles Twp. $200.

Paul Vinay, to John O. Polothko, of Osceola Mills, R. D. tract in Rush Twp. $750.

P. H. Gherrity, by execs., to Geo. M. Brown, et ux. of Bellefonte, tract in Bellefonte, South Ward, $1.

James F. Keim, et ux. to Philbert Gill, et ux. of State College, tract in State College, $1.

Mary Ann Meek, by heirs, to George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, tract in Patton Twp. $3,000.

Dory Swisher, et al. to Gladys Swisher, of Rush Twp., tract in Rush Twp. $1.

Charles E. Hartscock, et ux. to Ethel A. Adams, of Port Matilda, R. D. 1, tract in Patton Twp. $1.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Lucas attended church services at Howard, Sunday morning.

Clyde Oyer of Salamanca, N. Y., greeted friends over the weekend at Mt. Eagle.

Mrs. Guy Lucas and family called at the Phil McCartney home Sunday p. m.

Lavern Runkle is on the sick list. He has many friends who hope for him a speedy recovery.

Don't forget to honor your mother next Sunday, May 10th.

Mrs. Estella Nelson and Clyde Oyer were dinner guests at the L. L. McCartney home, Sunday.

J. F. McCartney spent Saturday night with a son at Pleasant Valley.

The farmers are very busy getting oats and potatoes into the ground.

Mrs. Amanda Boyer of Avis, was buried on Thursday afternoon at Fairview.

FAIRM CALENDAR

Timely Reminies from The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Pasture Saves Grain—Pennsylvania's increased swine population will require a large amount of additional feed this year. Livestock specialists of the Pennsylvania State College recommend the use of pasture where possible to provide a high protein feed and save grain.