

VOLUME 62. HEADLINES of Week: In the U. "Yanks Bomb Rhur Coal Mines' In the Nazi Press: "Lewis Yanks 2 brawls, 1 error. Losing team: the Yanks.

THE ONLY difference between ohn L. Lewis and Hitler is one additional little mustache-above the eves instead of under the nose.

LIONEL BARRYMORE has reachably owes his longevity to what he learned from Dr. Kildare scripts.

GERMANY will long remember Africa as the place where they did their goose-step to the Swan Song.

FROM an Army Newspaper: 1st for divorces? 2nd Private; Marriage.

off when nothing else does!

IN CHINA you are considered to be one year old when born. In Germany, at the same age, you're mark ed for death.

ON ONE of those local Women's Programs the other morning we heard the commentator ask her visitor how come it takes a woman so much longer to dress than a man. Mrs. Mary Lindsey of Beech "Because" was the snapperoo, "they have to slow down on the curves!">

THEN there's the woman who sued a Texas druggist! after using a vanishing cream for three months her nose was just as long!

A 15 YEAR old girl was turned her home in Beech Creek township. down by the WAVES in Chicago, She had been well until a week prewith the explanation that she was vious when she caught cold, which too young to be a Ripple.

OUT IN Oklahoma a city slicker ing her death. walked up to what used to be an 'Funeral wreaths, doughnuts, in- odist Church for 75 years, she taught the flames. The high wind, which valid cushions and life preservers" a Young Man's Bible class there in changed suddenly, caused a threat was the answer. 63 years at the Lindsey homestead.

IN. WYOMING a Mrs. Donald She is survived by five daughters. Drake was granted a divorce when three sons, 33 grandchildren, 57 she testified that since her marriage great grandchildren and two great- of Watsontown R. D. 1, was destroyher husband had talked to her only great grandchildren. The daughters ed by a fire which was discovered day morning following a couple of three times. She was awarded the are Mrs. Ward Kunes of Jersey while members of the Steele family abandonment of a a stolen Moncustody of their three children.

ADD Typographical Er-roars: (from a Cincinnati, O. suburban Haven; Mrs. Forrest Linn of Han- The origin is not known. Neighbors weekly) Louse Party at her home Saturday of Beech Creek. Two brothers, Earl Dunn farm. night. E. Bullock of Beech Creek, and Wil-

WHILE you're complaining about his Bullock of Howard, also survive. the lack of ration points some of our Funeral services were held at the finest young men aren't complain- home Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock ing about a more important point- with the Rev. Wallace J. Cummings, the one they have to face at the end former Methodist minister at Beech of an enemy's bayonet! Creek, officiating, Burial was made in the Clark cemetery.

Is Seriously Burned Bobby Campbell, the 7-year-old cap and thrust it into the kitchen weekend with her at the Lawson son of Mrs. Geraldine Campbell of resulting explosion. Wellsboro, suffered first degree burns He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. of the face Sunday from exploding asoline. With other boys he was Herman Phillips, who live between

The Most Widely Read Newspaper In Centre County

A childish impulse to learn the home under lock in a place where effects of a dynamite cap when the pig feed was kept. Late Thurs-Private: What is the greatest cause thrown into a fire, cost the life of day afternoon the boy's mother opfive-year-old Herman Phillips, Jr., ened the locker to get feed, and had ADD to definitions: Burlesque last Friday morning who died at the gone out to feed the pigs, when the Show-where the attendance falls Philipsburg State Hospital as the re- boy got the cap and thrust it into sult of an explosion the previous the stove. He suffered a severe head injury. afternoon The small boy took a dynamite His skull was fractured when the stove lid blew off and struck him. The blast nearly tore his right leg Woman Survived off and severely lacerated the left

SECOND

SECTION

By 100 Relatives He was rushed to the Philipsburg hospital where he was admitted at 5 o'clock. Surgeons worked over him and administered blood transfusions in a futile effort to save the little Creek, Has Many Survivfellow's life. He died at 1:45 Friday ing Relatives morning The father is a miner employed at the Westmoreland clay mines at Mrs. Mary Ellen Lindsey, 83, who has 100 direct descendants living, Morgan Run.

died Thursday morning. May 6, at Timberland Burns. A devastating forest fire, one of the most serious in that area this later turned into pneumonia, causseason, destroyed approximately 75 acres of valuable young timberland The wife of the late Hezekiah north of Marion Heights, near Shaauto accessories and gasoline shop Lindsey, Mrs. Lindsey was born on mokin. The blaze was sighted by and asked the owner what he had September 12, 1859, in Beech Creek. the tower watchman, and a large in the shape of automobile tires. A member of the Beech Creek Meth- force of fire fighters soon battled her earlier days, and had lived for to the entire mountain area.

Farm Home Burns.

The frame home of Jesse Steele, Shore: Mrs. Harry Heverly of Beech who operate a gasoline station at Creek; Mrs. Clarence Kunes of Lock Montgomery, were not at home. "Mrs. Frank Sweetland de- eyville, and Mrs. Russell Clark of succeeded in removing a few artilighted friends with a brilliant Altoona. Her sons are William, cles form the first floor. The farm sylvania Railroad engineer and beat-Charles and Devester Lindsey, all was formerly known as the William ing him, and also the theft of the ville, from Williamsport,

Called as Navy Nurse. Lieut. Joyce Kahl Dunford, who 14

Atlanta, Ga., has received word to Main street, Lock Haven, collapsed report for overseas duty. Her par- at her home during the blackout a report of the accident. Mr. Boyer a letter of congratulation from Secents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Trim- last Thursday night and was adble, of Waterloo, S. C., spent the mitted to the Lock Haven Hospital. stove. He was fatally injured in the General Hospital. Lieutenant Dun-

The Centre Democrat

BELLFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1943.

Volunteer Firemen Cancel Meeting Is Recaptured

BOXES

PARKWAYS

Given as Reason For Cancellation

For the first time in the 51 years the Lycoming county jail ended last existence of the Central Pennsyl-Wednesday when a cell door of the vania volunteer firemen's associa-Williamsport prison again closed on tion, there will be no annual con-

Representatives of the 12,000 fireeered an intricate escape Monday men in the district voted Thursday to suspend "all conventions" for the State Police on patrol across the war's duration. The 1943 conclave

> the food rationing situation made has been registered as a conscienit virtually impossible for that com- tious objector and was ordered by munity to properly entertain the the Northumberland County draft proceedings. convention, even if limited to 700 or board to appear on May 18 to en-800 delegate.

Pheasant Killed.

when it flew against the car of Albert Boyer, of Sunbury, was turned

Mrs. Herman Gensib, 44, of East over to Game Protector Bruce P. Yeager several days ago, along with of Northumberland, have received was driving east of the Lewisburg retary of War Stimson, in recogni-Bridge on the Northumberland-Mil- tion of the fact that they have seven ton highway when the bird sudden- sors in the armed forces. Mrs. Kistland Chapter of War Mothers.

area south of Buffalo Run as "the Henry W. Shoemaker, the renowned good his escape. He made his way

Spring Mills Youth Pleads Guilty to Burglary and the Theft of Two Automobiles Nevin F. Auman, 18, White Hill Industrial School Parolee, Charged With Crimes Committed In Two Counties

NEWS,

FEATURES

NUMBER 19

Nevin F. Auman, 18. of Spring been left. Auman took the bicycle at CENSORSHIP: Mills, pleaded guilty to burglary Salona where he had been staying charges at a hearing Friday before for the last two months and rode to editors of the Penn State Extension Squire F. L. Baird of Milesburg, and Lock Haven, leaving the blcycle and News, writes this department that was committed to the county jail in taking the car which was later re- the reason the Bellefonte airport Bellefonte for the next term of covered in Salona. court.

Auman was charged with stealing the barn near his home and took at Penn State was because it was gasoline containers and tools from him to Rockview for questioning. a storage shed at Decker's saw mill, Later he was taken before Squire Spring Mills, on Wednesday of last Baird at Milesburg for a hearing. week. State Police said that Auman Auman will first face the more used the stolen articles to break open serious charge of burglary in Centre a pump at the saw mill and obtain county before answering to the Clingasoline for a car he had stolen in ton county charges. Lock Haven Tuesday.

Auman, who was arrested three years ago for stealing gasoline at Arthur Beach Held the Casselberry garage in Lock Haven and served a term at White Hill industrial School, was on parole at he time of his arrest Wednesday at his home in Spring Mills by State Police from Rockview who were inat Woman Must Face Next

A Visitor In Seven Thousand Homes Each Week

of kerosene from the saw mill camp. The State Police also had information from Lock Haven police that

T. W. Cox's car was missing and ob- dent who celebrated his 47th birth- to Mr. Kusse for an unfortunate ertained a statement from Auman day May 4th, by barricading himself ror who admitted stealing the car, and in his home and passively resisting the kerosene to be used when he arrest by sleging State Police officers could not find gasoline. for over five hours, was taken back Auman, it is reported, also admit- to Philipsburg Thursday afternoon ed stealing the car of John Young, to be given a hearing before Justice salary; We feel sure you'd get your Lock Haven, on April 15 at the Lock of the Peace J. Mac Pearce. Haven Silk Mill where a bicycle had Beach, upon advice of Attorney T.

placed under $4,000 bond for appear-Conscientious Objector. ance in court. He was taken to Phil-

John Groff Bailey, Jr., son of Dr. The Kane representative reorted and Mrs. J. G. Bailey, of Milton, ter the civilian public service camp with intent to kill and pointing at Big Flats, N. Y. The youth was deadly weapons. The first charge is graduated this week from Dickin- a felony carrying penalties of a fine they must maintain. On the other son Junior College in Williamsport not to exceed $3,000 and sentence hand, we realize the Bellefonte A ringneck pheasant hen, killed and was presented the Dart award. not to exceed seven years. The sec-

Seven Sons in Service

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kistner Advertising is what puts the other ly flushed from the roadside into ner is president of the Northumber-

GA! GA! Among the things which set this corner to cutting paper dolls and wishing for a padded cell is a new ruling by the U. S. Postal Depart-ment. Up until this year postal trucks and other postal vehicles have not required licenses of any kind. This year-a year when priorities on metal are at their highest -and for the first time in historythe Department rules that postal vehicles must carry special license plates-made of metal.

Items

Random

James H. Coogan, Jr., one of the was not mentioned as the flight The State Police found Auman in training center for Air Corps Cadets believed such information might have been against the wishes of the Air Corps censor. "We were indeed sorry to learn that anybody felt that it was an intentional slight," Mr Coogan writes.

ERROR:

NOTE

When, in the news columns of this newspaper last week, Karl E. Kusse was referred to as "Karl E. tin can Under $4,000 Bail Kusse, county salvage chairman." the editors weren't being smart, nor were they taking a snide pot-shot at Man Charged With Shooting Mr. Kusse. The line was written "Karl E. Kusse, county tin can salvage chairman," but the linotype mangled the line and the error wasn't caught until most of the edi-Arthur Beach, Chester Hill resi- tion was off the press. Our apologies

To Bellefonte school teachers, who currently are seeking an increase in increases if you could sit down with the school board some time and show board members exactly where C. Jackson, walved hearing and was the money to pay the proposed increases could be obtained. This corner feels that consideration is absolutely the only one which might and was returned to the Centre county jail at Bellefonte after the prevent increases from being granted. We believe that most teachers are underpaid, considering the mon-Beach was charged with attempts ey and time they must spend in prewith intent to kill and pointing paring for their profession, and the position in the community which school district taxes are near the ond charge is a misdemeanor and celling and that when 54 teachers bears a fine not exceeding $500 and are granted increases, a big piece of a sentence not exceeding one year. extra money has to come from some where. If the teachers can solve that fine or jail sentence or both may be problem in economics we feel sure they'll get their pay increases, and

(Continued on page Siz)

ODD AND

Jackson Thomas, 21-year-old Geor- vention this year. gia chain gang fugitive who enginriver from Harrisburg picked up had been scheduled to be held in Thomas along the highway Tues- Kane in August.

toursville car in that section. Authorities linked Thomas with burglarizing the home of Reid H.

Fortenbaugh, 50, an Enola Penncar of Thomas Martin, Montours-

Collapses in Blackout.

has been training for a nurse at ford attended the Blossburg School. fellow out of business

Georgia Fugitive Who Es- Food Rationing Situation vestigating the theft of ten gallons caped Lycoming County Prison, Caught Forty-eight hours of freedom from

Jail Breaker

aying in an abandoned truck on Morgan Run and Sanborn. He was the Donald Root property. One of one of four children, next to the the lads lighted a match which oldest. The dynamite caps were kept in touched off the fumes

Find Skeleton of Man in Tree

The skeleton of a man dead three | search started at that time failed to four months was found Monday to produce results until 10:30 o'clock morning by State and Clinton coun- Monday morning.

ty police hanging from a tree near No identification has been estabthe Castanea reservoirs of the Lock lished.

Haven Water Company. The body is said to be in a bad First discovered about 6 o'clock state of decomposition, practically Sunday evening by Ralph Jordon, nothing except bones remaining. a Pennsylvania Railroad employe The clothing is tattered and one residing in Lock Haven, who came shoe is missing. The remnants of upon it while hiking with a com- clothing afforded no means of idenpanion, it was hanging in the bran- tification.

ches of a tree about 1,400 feet from Examnined by the Clinton county the home of Boyd Keller, water coroner, the body was ordered recompany superintendent, situated moved to a Lock Haven undertakapporximatly two miles from Lock ing establishment while Sheriff D. E. Grenoble and Corp. Neil J. Gal-Haven

Jordon reported his gruesome dis- lagher, of the State Motor Police, covery to police Sunday night but a continue their investigation.

Learn Your Air Raid Signals

people a confused knowledge of the "blue" period.

meaning of the different air raid sig-nais. For this reason the following is printed, with the suggestion that it be carrefully studied and wild turkeys found there were the studied and wild turkeys found there were in the carrefully studied and wild turkeys found there were the studied and wild turkeys found there were it be carefully studied and, if pos- ends, Normal activities resumed. sible, memorized. In each blackout Normally this is the procedure to drill there are the following periods: be followed. The alert period is or-

1. ALERT-blackout signaled by dered whenever there is a possibility long, steady blasts of horns and sir- of raiders appearing over a certain ens. Homes, business places and non- area. While the blackout is required, war industries blackout completely. normal activity is permitted to con-Street lights go off. Pedestrians may tinue as far as possible.

3. ALERT-signaled by long steady a preliminary alert. Or there may be known as the "River Hill" tract, was that such a place really exists. continues. Pedestrians may travel. raids.

Offers Mink Coat to Get Maid

If you find a maid or hired woman lem to that of a man who hoped it hard to get, you might offer to let would induce his lazy sister to take

Famous "Barrens" in Centre County The shooting occurred at the home

his machine

teresting article regarding the to 703.9 acres purchased several corn patches comparatively unpro- Sportsmen frequently call the area determined purpose of bringing her Centre County Barrens appeared years ago and designated State ductive. The term "Pine Barrens" is the "Exmoor" of Pennsylvania, after home. He shot at Mrs. Junker for in the April issue of the Pennsyl-Game Lands No. 176. The entire frequently noted in historical refer- the famous hunting grounds in Dev- allegedly interfering. vania Game News, published by acreage acquired from the Boal es- ences. Thomas Smith, deputy sur- onshire in England, because of the After the shooting. Beach was the State Game Commission. The article was written by W. Guard tate is now part of State Game veyor of Bedford county, who sur- large deer herds and the magnificent overpowered by family members and Lands No. 176, bringing the total of veyed warrantee tracts of land in heads carried by the bucks. It was police were called. He was hand-Conklin, who also took the photographs illustrating the story, and those lands to 5,811.9 acres. Atten- what is now Patton township, Cen- favorite hunting territory of the In- cuffed and en route to jail he jumpthrough the courtesy of Leo A. tion is invited to the map of State tre county, in 1770, mentions the dians, and according to Colonel ed from the moving car and made Luttringer. Jr., chief of the divis-Game Lands No. 176. ion of Public Information of the Game Commission, the Centre are fully justified in taking pride in likewise used in another survey re- Shawnees of Centre and Blair coun- cessfully held off all attempts to ar-Democrat publishes the photo-ownership of this rather unusual port of July 26, 1794. tract of land, and its acquisition ap- Strictly speaking, the name is mis- from other parts of that region, a evening after additional State Police graphs which were used in the Game News story.) pears decidedly pleasing to Pennsyl- leading and somewhat unjust. few lingered in the "Barrens," loath reinforcements and a supply of tear vania State College authorities. In- Granted that the waterable is low, to leave, while others camped there gas arrived on the scene cidentally, we are indebted to a grad- and that the sandy clay soil is too when migrating across the State. It The Game Commission, in December. 1942, acquired title to 5,108 acres uate forester of State College, Wal- poor for agricultural uses, neverthe- is recorded that the pioneer hunters ter F. Westerfeld, recently located less the area has in the past, and of the 'Barrens' disliked sharing this of that exceedingly interesting secin Cumberland, Maryland, for much can in the future support good for-of the interesting information con-est growth if given protection from Red Men, and if an Indian hunted who broke her hip in a fall a numtion of Centre county called the Barrens. Because of the unusual character of the area and its histori-cal background, this section is well known to all persons who were ever in all probability the first impres-known to all persons who were ever in all probability the first impres-priate forest management practices. The way of the buck. For this reason, becating and breaking her left writt connected with The Pennsylvania stranger is that of a desolate waste, elers mention the fine chestnuts, Shoemaker, the Indians hunted in throughout the State. The acreage covered with an almost impenetrable oaks, and pitch, white and yellow two's and threes; one always on State College, as well as sportsmen large quantities of iron ore and the a forest. He will not soon forget the shame because, after all, it was man exceptionally large and robust.

"Ghost" town of Scotia.

The land was conveyed to the befell him on his first visit. The veg- The area attracted special atten- where else in Centre county. The Commonwealth by the Estate of Col- etation expresses a struggle of nature tion of French explorers in 1790. mud flats formed by wash from the onel Theodore Davis Boal, through to overcome the shortcomings of They reported the vast acreage in iron ore in past years, were tracked his son the Hon. Pierre deLagarde man; a vegetation crying out against the center of Pennsylvania which as though by flocks of sheep. Ac-Boal, present United States Ambas- man's misuse of this land in the had a peculiar geological formation, cording to Dr. P. F. English, of the sador to the Republic of Bolivia, past. The inclination of the stranger mostly sand and clay, while all the Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit, travel. Cars may continue on low The raid period signifies that raid- South America, and Claude G. Aik- probably, is to leave before being surrounding country was limestone. Pennsylvania State College, one deer ers are practically overhead. Once ens, executor of the Colonel Boal es- overcome by utter loneliness. But on It is peculiar that the "Barrens" to 18 acres was found in 1938 on a 2. RAID-signaled by rising and they pass, the alert period is re- tate. It comprises three tracts con- a return visit, and many do return, should comprise a broad strip of un- sample plot of 1.344 acres in the falling of sirens, short intermittent sumed again in case the raiders re- taining respectively 4.811.2 acres, he feels the peculiar charm of the fertile land within the very fertile "Barrens" as compared to one deer blasts of horns. Blackout continues with war industries blacking out. In cases where raiders might come inst mentioned tracts lie adjacent but charm nevertheless, one that to a table, rising 100 to 300 feet range.

Cars stop and turn out lights. Called "red" period. above the signaled first without separately since the 279.3 acres, though it is only to convince himself Evidently the French explorers did abundant and many nest and spend not discover the presence of rich de- the entire year there. Some quality blasts of horns and sirens. Blackout a series of alternating alerts and a gift to the Commission, subject, Many wonder how the name "Bar- posits of iron ore in this section, al- in the vegetation, or the large diver-however, to a reservation of mineral rens" originated; a question that rights to April 14, 1952. The 17.5 seems to have no definite answer al-had knowledge of its existence. (Continued on Page Fire) of Mrs. Jerry Dixon, mother of Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Junker, after Mrs. Beach left her husband who had been drinking heavily and had gone JACKPOT (ED. NOTE: The following in- acre tract is detached from the a- though it is possible the Indians or- Wildlife is and apparently always home. Beach was said to have gone forementioned tracts, but is adjacent iginated it when they found their has been abundant in the "Barrens." there armed Monday night with the head by only a few inches.

imposed by the court.

Term of Court

insburg under State Police custody

On each of the charges, either the

According to testimony given to State Police officers. Beach fired a shot at his sister-in-law, Mrs. Elva

Dixon Junker. The shot did not strike the woman but missed her

Mrs. P. T. Blackburn, of Fayetteville, N. C., inadvertently staged a scrap drive when she killed a six-pound hen for a party dinner at her home. In the hen's gizzard she found a small safety pin opened, three straight pins and 24 copper .22 calibre shells

Sportsmen and the Commission great Pine Barrens." This name was historian, was the last retreat of the to his Chester Hill home and suc- OH, YES, THE EGGS

James Manno, 29, of Chicago escaped with only a bruised right foot and right elbow when his truck containing 210 cases of eggs was struck by a freight at a crossing. "What about the eggs?" queried Policeman Albert Leddin of Manne. "I don't know" replied Manno. "But I'm afraid to look. Something seems to be driping."

sion of the "Barrens" gained by a Accounts of early settlers and trav- according to our good friend Colonel locating and breaking her left wrist. PITY THE PAYMASTER

A small business man of Boise

Idaho, discussing difficulties of wartime oeration, made this report: "I normally employ 22 persons. During 1942 there were 153 names on the payroll, and of these only four, including myself, were there at both the start

Engagement Announced.

Suffers Second Mishap

Mrs. Lee Fritz of Picture Rocks.

acquired is in Ferguson, Half Moon, so with clumps of aspen, dense patches ported. But today, when the "Bar-Men ascribed the fine heads of the the engagement of Miss Naomi There still exists among a lot of correctional clumps of aspen, dense patches ported. But today, when the "Bar-sople a confused knowledge of the "blue" period.

ties. Long after they had vanished rest him until 5:30 o'clock Tuesday monotonously rolling topography, to a large extent who made the area Last year more signs of deer were observed in the "Barrens" than any-

for goats? COWS

Q .- Do soy beans make a good hay | Q .- What is the best soil for cu cumbers? A .-- Yes. Excellent for goats and A .- They prefer a warm, welldrained, sandy soil, and need plenty

Q .- What can be done to keep the of plant food. Apply some fertilizer at planting time and give two or worms out of rhubarb? A .- Those are little weevils that three side-dressings as season ad-

> Q .- What will keep rust and worms off my parsnips?

A .-- Corrosive sublimate properly barb stalks after the first frost in autumn; this reduces the population the trouble because it is most likely

Q .-- Can you tell me where I can sell peppermint oil, menthol test 55 might be good customers.

treat corn, beans and most small Q .- I want to build an outdoor garden seeds with semesan dust or chicken shelter using wallboard beone of the chemical preparations cause lumber is so expensive. How the seed dealer can supply; and use can I waterproof the wallboard? 3-8-7 fertilizer, about 5 pounds to A.-Put on at least two coats of 100 square feet. black asbestos roof paint.

her wear your mink coat. the job. The following advertisement ap-One woman wished to know if eared under "Help Wanted" in the she could have the job immediate-Newark, N. J. News last wcek: ly and could she have Saturday "Girl (white), General housework, night off. She had a date she wishown room, radio; good salary; nice ed to impress, home for right party; can wear my mink coat for day off. Mrs. Burns, 133 Keer ave., Newark. WA-3-2361." Another inquired what she might wear when it got too hot for mink. Virtually all asked the size of the The telephone was kept so busy coat before asking the size of the during the afternoon and evening pay envelopé.

that at 11 p. m. a weary Mrs. Burns left the receiver off the hook. In all, Mrs. Burns estimated, there were 100 calls. Most eager inquirer The calls, Mrs. Burns related lat- of all was the man who pleaded his er, varied from that of a man who wanted to know whether a similar offer might solve his domestic prob-God knows I can't get one for her."

Iron ore "pits" in the "Barrens." Thousands of tons of ore were removed by Andrew Carnegie and others

Old railroad grade through the "Barrens" now used as a drive infest many plants with large, juicy vances, stems similar to rhubarb. Burdock is one of these, so keep all burdock and similar weeds cut. Cut all rhu> and winter carry-over. Q .- What is the spray for fruit trees to prevent worms in the fruit? A .- Arsenate of lead.

due to maggots.

Q-How can I prepare potato, per cent or better? Q.-How can 1 prepare plant-and the price good, and I will send ing to get the best results?

A .- Dip potatoes 11/2 hours in 1 to you the names of some firms that 1000 mercuric chloride solution;

