

Echoes From the Past

Fifty Years Ago

The addition to the upper works of Mann's Axe Factory, Mill Hall, will be soon completed. Twelve new stones and about that number of polishers will be placed in position.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Adam Sheesley, Coburn, and Mary Kennely, Spring Mills; William J. Twigg, Rebert, and Matta S. Wilson, Boalsburg; Harvey W. Hampton and Nora Young, both of Bellefonte; Joseph Mertens and Agnes Joseph, both of Phillipsburg; William Summers, Portland Mills, and Mary Letzell, Aaronsburg.

On Monday evening a portion of the Bellefonte Bicycle Club took a spin out to Pleasant Gap and concluded their ride by a spurt along Allegheny street. Noticeable in the procession, mounted on a Victor, was Rev. J. P. Hughes, principal of the Academy, who is a man in about the 65th year of his life and is remarkably supple and active and can keep up with any of the boys.

Messrs. J. C. Davis and Arthur Bathurst had a thrilling adventure near Howard Friday afternoon. The men were traveling in a buggy drawn by one horse and came to a place in the public road where the Bald Eagle Creek had overflowed its bank and flooded the thoroughfare.

On Wednesday evening, May 4, Mr. George Rogers, of this place, while on his way home from a business trip to Pittsburgh, stopped off at Altoona to see his sister, Mrs. Robert Roam.

On Saturday, Mr. Edward Sellers was at work in the foundry at Oak Hall, where he is engaged in the manufacture of a number of improved farm implements. He was engaged at work near a large pulley that was driven by a belt from a water wheel.

On Saturday, Mr. Edward Sellers was at work in the foundry at Oak Hall, where he is engaged in the manufacture of a number of improved farm implements. He was engaged at work near a large pulley that was driven by a belt from a water wheel.

Twenty Years Ago

Joseph McDonough, clerk at the Sim Baum clothing store, was recovering from an operation he underwent at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh.

Nearly sixty boys from various parts of the county were enrolled as charter members of Penn Chapter Order of DeMolay, which was being organized under the sponsorship of the Knights Templar.

Four fingers of the right hand of Eleanor Schnarr, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schnarr, Rush township, were badly bitten by one of the monkeys with the Walter L. Main Circus which exhibited at Phillipsburg on Saturday.

Decker Brothers, of Bellefonte, had secured an option on the Valentine property at the corner of High and Spring streets, with a view to buying the building and erecting a modern garage on the site.

Marie Artz, of Port Matilda, was in the Bellefonte hospital undergoing treatment for a fractured leg and painful cuts and bruises suffered in an accident at a railroad crossing near Julian.

War Garden Vic

"We know our onions," says Vic, and his family. Victory war gardens contribute to the strength of the nation. And so does Victory War Garden Powder—used in baked foods, 1 level teaspoon supplies 1/2 the individual minimum daily requirement of phosphorus.

The venerable John P. Harris, retired Bellefonte banker, was a visitor in Tyrone, despite his 90 years, Mr. Harris was quite active.

W. S. Zellers, Bellefonte's oldest druggist, was confined to his home at the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets because of a sudden attack of illness.

A valuable driving horse owned by Miss Stella Lott, of Stormstown, lost its life, and Miss Lott suffered injuries when the horse ran away, upsetting the buggy to which it was hitched.

Fire believed to have been started by men in a passing automobile swept over fifty acres of valuable timberland in the vicinity of Scotia, destroying an abandoned barn formerly used as a mule stable when the old ore banks were in operation.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Claude G. Aikens, execr. to W. Hoy Neff, of Boalsburg, tract in Harris Twp. $250. John Diehl et ux. to Clair Lyons et ux. of Howard, tract in Howard Boro. $1.

William B. Troupe et ux. to Calvin H. Troupe, of Bellefonte, tract in Spring Twp. $1. William S. Sigel, admr., to George B. Casher, of Halfmoon Twp. $100.

Lena Sigel Casher to Ross H. Grubb, et ux. of Port Matilda R. D., tract in Halfmoon Twp. $366. Richards H. Hoffman et ux. to Sara R. McGarvey, of Bellefonte, tract in Bellefonte, North Ward. $1.

First National Bank of Middleburg to J. Lynn Womer et ux. of State College, tract in State College. $1. First National Bank of Middleburg to Glenn H. Weaver, et ux. of State College, tract in State College. $1.

Ernest J. Teichert et ux. to Harold J. Miller, et ux. of State College, tract in State College. $1. W. Fred Reynolds, Jr., et al. executors to Frank E. Peters, et ux. of Bellefonte, tract in Bellefonte, South Ward. $1.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Herbert B. Groves, St. Augustine, Pa., and Margaret Brady, Fleming, and Malcolm S. Bathurst and Sarah S. Shultz, both of Millsburg.

Winners in Record-Keeping Contest

Here are the Pennsylvania winners in the farm record-keeping contest for 1942. This contest is sponsored every year by the Production Credit Associations and the Vocational Agriculture teachers of the State, under the supervision of the State Department of Education.

Over the County News

The Spring Mills War Price and Rationing Board office will be open to the public from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. from Monday through Friday, and from 9 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Chilkot and grandson, Billy, of Pleasant Gap; Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Heckman and their daughter Fave, and Elwood and Mary Mae Heckman and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Heckman were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Koenig and daughter, Donna, at Spring Mills.

Some time before entering the army last fall, Philip (Brub) Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Meyer of Millheim, lost his billfold containing his driver's license, other identification cards, and thirty-seven dollars in "folding money."

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture Soybeans Are Needed—Oil is needed for the war effort and high protein concentrates are in demand for livestock feeding.

Plant Certified Potatoes—Certified seed is the only stock from which it is safe to save seed for next year's planting, remind plant pathologists of the Pennsylvania State College.

Grow Some Flowers—A touch of color will be added to the garden by growing some flowers in the border and the blooms can be used for inside decoration.

Better Breeding Pairs—Dairy cows are limited by inheritance in their production of milk and butterfat. Only sires that improve the production of their daughters over that of the dams should be used.

true, and we have found that they grow very well on wild soil or some do very well on sandy soil. In quite a lot of our visits through the Barrens we have found that in the southern section of the Barrens where there is more sand than the flowers are white, but there can be found some pink flowers in the latter section and some white in the southern section as well.

The writer and his wife will celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary next Sunday, the 16th, for on that date in 1908 they were married at Stormstown by the Rev. A. L. Frank, then pastor of the Half Moon charge. Mrs. Williams was the former Dora R. Ghaner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Ghaner of Scotia.

RUNVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bediet of Corning, N. Y., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kauffman and family over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Poorman of State College, were visitors in Runville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Furt and Doyle Furt were dinner guests at the John Furt home on Sunday. Miss Lois Conrde went to South Carolina this weekend to visit her friend, Walter Lucas, who is in an army camp.

HOWARD

Mrs. Ida Bickle of Roaring Springs, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Kate Weber. Walter Coner of Camp Blanding, Fla., is home on furlough.

SCOTIA

The monthly class meeting of the adult members of Grays Methodist church was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Johnson of Maternville, with 22 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. "Mac" Boves and daughter Ruth, attended the wedding of Mrs. Boves' brother, Saturday, William Heber of Flemington. Mrs. Heber Caseman entertained the ladies of the Sewing Circle at the home of her sister, Tuesday evening.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Pvt. Ray E. Burd of New Jersey, spent the weekend with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson and family and June Fuchs of Ohio, spent a few days with friends and relatives at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Coner and family of Runville, greeted friends in this vicinity on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burd visited on Sunday with Aaron Hall of Unionville, also with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas.

Sunday School Lesson

PETER AND JOHN PREACH TO SAMARITANS International Sunday School Lesson for May 16, 1943.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already unto harvest."—John 4:35.

Following the stoning to death of Stephen, a young convert to the teachings of Jesus, the members of the early faith were driven from Jerusalem by the persecutions instigated against them by the religious leaders of that day.

Phillip, one of the seven deacons appointed by the apostles to assist in the work of the church, was among those who had been driven from Jerusalem. He fled into Samaria and, true to his faith, began preaching to these despised people.

This Simon evidently believed that Phillip was a greater magician than himself, and, being convinced, he declared himself a "believer" and was baptized, probably expecting, through his acceptance of the new teaching, to receive greater power himself.

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION

The Chinese rural home, which during the previous thirty or forty years has largely withstood the impact of modernizing movements, has undergone significant changes as a result of the war.

Mrs. Grace Pokenhorn of Woodlands, is visiting with Mrs. Arthur Irvin. Mrs. Lloyd Kemp and daughter Dianne, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte at the home of her father, Samuel Clevenstein.

Lightning Damages Home During a recent electric storm the chimney on the house of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leary, an aged couple near Towanda, was struck by lightning.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family of Howard, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reese and daughter of Gum Stump, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Peter, Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Milesburg, Mr. and Mrs. Toner Peter of Yarnell, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Johnson and family, Ralph Kelly, Junior Johnson and Glenn Poorman were Sunday callers at the J. T. Watson home.

Advertisement for Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, featuring the slogan 'Keep all calls especially on party lines'.