

PENN STATE REPORTS INTEREST IN GOATS

War-time demand for dairy products has greatly increased the interest in goat-herding, according to Professor A. L. Bham of the dairy husbandry department at the Pennsylvania State College.

From Tunisia comes the idea that the Axis is not so good on the defense.

Public Sales

SATURDAY, MAY 26—On the premises in Woodward at 12:30 p. m., Mrs. Annie L. Kessler will offer public sale a complete line of household goods and her home.

Saturday, May 29

WILLIAM HAUSER, Administrator, c. t. a., in the estate of Peter Hauser, late of Snow Shoe Township, Centre County, Pa., the following described personal property, upon the premises of the decedent, located at Snow Shoe Township, Centre County, Penna., along the road leading from Snow Shoe to Clarendon, and which shall be:

Saturday, May 29

JOHN McCLUSICK will offer at public sale at his home in Moshannon, Pa., the following personal property:

Saturday, May 29

D. CLAIR MORRISON will offer a public sale on the Morrison farm, 5 miles east of Petersburg, near Cottage in Shavers Creek Valley, the following personal property:

LIVESTOCK—2 Holstein cows, one white, fresh, 2 years, on milk; 2 grey cows, 12 years old, weight 1450; grey horse, 12 years old, weight 1700; 2 bull calves, 13 weeks, weight 100 pounds; 22 good ewes with wool on backs and 24 lambs at foot.

Saturday, June 5

DANIE McKNILEY will offer at public sale at his residence in Milledale, Pa., the following items of personal property:

H. L. HARPSTER AUCTIONEER

Prompt attention given all sales PHONE 3579 PINE GROVE MILLS, PA.

L. FRANK MAYER

General Auctioneer Real Estate Sales A SPECIALTY! CALL STATE COLLEGE, 2843

REBERSBURG

(From Last Week)

Rev. and Mrs. Dale S. Kehr moved on Monday to Bridgeton, N. J., where he has accepted a pastorate. The Rebersburg charge gave a farewell in their honor on Thursday evening in the basement of the church. Rev. Kehr served this charge several years and their many friends here wish them success in their new field.

Daniel Kreider of Penn State, spent several days last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kreider, before leaving for Army service.

Mrs. Barrett Langford, nee Madeline Walker, of North Carolina, called at the William Tyson home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wagner of Lewistown, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Moyer.

Glenn Weaver of Terre Hill, who is a student at Franklin and Marshall Theological Seminary, is supplying the local Reformed charge for the summer months. He arrived in Rebersburg on Friday and preached in Rebersburg on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer of Harrisburg, were Saturday supper guests at the S. G. Ziegler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harer and daughter Lois of Williamsport, spent Monday at the W. M. Tarbert home. They brought Mrs. Harer's mother, Mrs. C. J. Mallory, to the Tarbert home, after having spent several months with Mr. and Mrs. Harer.

Roy Brungart was taken to the Centre County Hospital last Wednesday, where he was under observation and treatment. He is greatly improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Sr., quietly celebrated their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary on Monday at their home in West Rebersburg. Mr. Weaver has not been well the past years, suffering with an infected foot.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Meek and daughter Lucille of Williamsport, spent Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. R. A. Babcock, Mrs. E. H. Hosterman, Mrs. S. G. Ziegler, Mrs. J. H. Duck and Mr. W. Bronson attended a missionary rally and tea in the Millheim Evangelical church last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ellen Bierly has recovered from her recent illness sufficiently to return to her home on Saturday, after spending almost two months with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Shultz, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Winters.

Mrs. Paul Winters, Mrs. Willard Burd, Mrs. Roy Brungart and son Rodney, were business visitors in Sunbury on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hosterman returned Wednesday to their home in Washington, D. C., accompanied by their son, John and daughter Betty, who are Penn State students.

Mrs. Hosterman had spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bronson, and Mrs. Hosterman visited here several days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kidder, daughter Violet and son Bobby, were Sunday visitors with the Donald Beyers family in Danville.

Mrs. Della Shaffer is ill and confined to her bed at the home of her niece, Mrs. M. C. Haines.

Mrs. Mahlon Hummel spent this week with her husband, who is at Camp Pickett, Va.

Thomas Mussa recently graduated from Franklin and Marshall Theological Seminary and is visiting his aunt, Miss Alva Brungart.

POTTERS MILLS

(From last week) Pvs. Donald Phillips, Eugene Smith and Walter Geary furloughed at the home of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Geary.

Mr. and Mrs. Windsor Gramley of Millheim, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman of Spring Mills, called at the Boyd Smith home Sunday evening.

Those who took dinner at the G. H. McCormick home Sunday were: W. McCormick, wife and son of Reading, R. H. McCormick and wife of State College, C. E. Jodon and wife of Bellefonte, Callers at the same home were Mrs. Sunderland of Harrisburg, Harry Burley, wife and daughter and two friends of Altoona.

John Bailey of Pine Grove Mills, Miss Margaret Kimpert of State College, and Miss Virginia Patterson of Boalsburg, visited at the J. W. Slack home over the weekend.

Ralph Smeltzer was taken to the Centre County Home Sunday afternoon in the G. B. Neff ambulance.

Michael Delaney and wife of near Centre Hall, visited on Sunday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Auman.

Ben Wyland is moving from the Blauser apartment to Martinsburg, and Charles Jordan and family of Coyer, are moving in where the Wylands vacated.

H. E. Faust and wife visited on Sunday at the John Stover home at Bellefonte.

PORT MATILDA

(R. D. 1) (From last week) Archie Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dixon, leaves for the Army on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thompson and family of Altoona, spent the weekend on their farm. On June 10th they expect to come for the summer. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hoover.

Mrs. Pearlina Richards has returned to her home in Tyrone after a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lane and family of Sinking Valley, spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hosband, also Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hosband and children of Sandy Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Arma Duesy visited her mother at Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Nearhoof spent Saturday in Tyrone.

Air power may not be what its enthusiasts assert but, if we were in the front lines, we would prefer to have it on our side.

CLARENCE

(From Last Week)

The seed-selling campaign of grade four has been concluded. Approximately the same amount was sold as last year. The proceeds will likely be used for a last day outing. Tony, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosie Veneziano of Poormanside, recently enjoyed a ten-day furlough with his parents. He is stationed at Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Virginia Wolfe of Millheim, called at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edna Meyer, last week.

Miss Gertrude Frank spent last Sunday with her grandson, James Frank and family in Loganton.

Sunday guests at the Lloyd Tate home were: Pvt. John Diehl of New Jersey, Mrs. John Diehl and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gilbert and granddaughter Shirley of Sunbury, Mrs. Elizabeth Gephart, Miss Helen Gephart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyers and son Charles, Jr., Mrs. Minnie Tate and daughter Dorothy, and Miss Alice Long of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Houser and son "Pat" of Mill Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Nile Stover and family of Lyonia.

"Peggy" Shade of Greenburg, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer, last week.

Edward Abbott, who received an honorable discharge from the army, returned home on Friday. He had been stationed near Little Rock, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and Mrs. Johnson of Pitsburg, spent the weekend with the former's grandmother, Mrs. Tina Brungart.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corman of Hubsburg, were Sunday visitors with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bair.

Mrs. E. A. Tyson of Millheim, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Garrett.

Miss Virginia Wolfe of Millheim, called at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edna Meyer, last week.

Miss Sara Jane Reish of Penn State, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reish.

Mrs. Cecil Hironimus and two daughters of Lewisburg, were Saturday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arbogast.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Stover entertained the following at Sunday dinner: Mr. and Mrs. George Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Betty and Bernice, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vonada and daughters, Jean and Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Park Stover and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brindle and son Tony, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Musser of Coopersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Auman and child of Millheim, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kryder and son Bernard of Rebersburg.

Clymer Tyson of Harrisburg, spent the weekend at the home of his brother, Carlos and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnes of Mill Hill, visited the Floyd Barner family on Sunday.

Mrs. Alfred Winger and Mrs. Chester Harbert of Canton, Ohio, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrett.

Mrs. Summers, who visited at the Clayton Auman home, returned to her home in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe of Loganton, called at the E. R. Wolfe home on Monday.

Paul Wert spent Sunday in Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ohl and sons Clyde and Donald, Miss Louise Faulkner and Bill Probst of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gephart and son Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hackman enjoyed Sunday supper at "Ohl's Restful Acres" at Rockville.

BUSH HOLLOW

(From last week) Sunday school next Sunday at 9:30, followed by class meeting. Preaching service in the evening beginning at 7 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Tate, Mrs. Elvin Stover and daughter Eloise, Mrs. Christine Love and Margaret Kovacic were visitors at the Andrew Irvin and Martha Spotts homes last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mattie Potts, who spent the winter with her brother's family at Clearfield, returned to her home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moneill and children, William, Jr., Molly, Tommy and Marian, visited last Thursday evening at the Roy Spotts home.

Mrs. Union office at Niagara Falls, was spending a few days vacation with her parents in Bellefonte.

Mrs. James Metzler and grandson, Melvin Metzler, Mrs. Jennie Irvin and son Orlando, Mr. Earl Weston and daughter Sharon Hope, Mrs. Carl Spotts and son Larry, were visitors last week at the Andrew Irvin home.

William Watson and daughter Mary, of Chestnut Grove, visited on Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Ed Bush and family. Mr. and Mrs. James Phalon and family also visited the Bush home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Spotts of Unionville, were seen in our midst Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson and Mac Baney visited on Sunday at the Charles Bush home.

Callers at the E. P. Lucas home on Sunday were the following: Mrs. Calvin Naugle and son of Osovoia Mills, Doyle Shook of Penn State, Elsie Watson and Harold Weston.

Miss Florence Lucas is spending her vacation at the home of her father, E. P. Lucas.

Sunday visitors at the Andrew Irvin home were: Mr. and Mrs. Scott Tate and son Franklin. In the afternoon they were accompanied by Mrs. Irvin and children to the home of Mrs. James Metzler in Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. Benner Hall also visited the Irvin home Sunday evening.

Latest reports are that it is rumored there will be another wedding in our community.

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Last Week)

The Eldon Harpster family is arranging to move from the Roy Gates house on E. Main street, to the Reed house on Church street.

Telephones were installed last week in the S. A. Homan and Willis Schilling homes, all saying Hello to their many friends.

Miss Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rider, is nursing a badly mangled finger caused by the hand slipping into the planter while assisting with the potato planting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Albright are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy, born last week in the Centre County Hospital. Lester is one of our efficient school bus drivers.

That genial paint and oil agent, O. M. Griffith of Phillipsburg, was in our midst the past week taking spring orders and visiting among his friends.

The Baileyville Grange mushball team crossed by the Half Moon Grange team, the score being 23-22 in favor of the latter team. Members of the team are Charles Myers, Paul Rider, Donald Barto, Paul Harpster, Harold Donley, Sammy Homan, Earl Homan, Paul Shoemaker, Francis Fry, "Husky" Harpster, Delmar Harpster, and Gene Martin on the reserve list.

Reports are that John H. Bailey has sold his farm to Clair Beckle, farmer on the George R. Meek farm at Meek's church. The Bailey farm, one of the best producers in Centre county has been in the Bailey name for many years.

Mrs. Martha Gaville has resigned her position at Claster's in State College, and moved to Buffalo, N. Y., a place where a nice clerical position awaits her.

Pvt. Royal A. Kline, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal A. Kline, recently scored 184 out of a possible 210 points to win the rating of "expert" in rifle marksmanship in basic training at Camp J. T. Robinson, Arkansas. Royal has been in the army since March 16, 1943. Before his induction he was an auto mechanic at Kline's garage.

Mrs. Thelma Fryer and two daughters spent last Thursday with her former school chum, Mrs. Peg Everhart Morning and two children of Pittsburgh, at the Martha Johnston home in Graysville. The mornings spent the past week visiting their friends in our valley.

Korman Walters and bride have fitted from Zion to Marengo. Norman will be employed on the Ellenberger farm as boss farmer this season.

Roy Ripka is a patient at the Centre County Hospital, having submitted to an appendectomy last Tuesday. He is improving nicely at this writing. Roy is employed on the Charles H. Myers farm at Fairbrook.

A. F. C. Miss Betty Jones of the WAAC, is now stationed at Albuquerque, New Mexico, where she is serving as administrative specialist at that base. She is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas G. Jones, pastor of our Reformed charge here and at Pine Hall.

Charles Myers, Jr., Paul Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Homan and daughter Mary Ellen, motored to Millheim on Saturday to attend the regular county Grange meeting.

Farmer Earl Harper is arranging to turn on his switch for electric current. The poles are being erected and his buildings wired this week.

Lieut. Milton Eiters and wife of Doutham, Ala., are spending a two weeks' furlough with Centre county friends, with headquarters at the parental homes of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eiters of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barto, Mrs. Eiters is the former Miss Roxie Barto. They expect to return to their army camp by Friday.

The four-day-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Beck died at their home Sunday morning. The parents and two other children survive.

Aux. Mae E. Gates of the WAAC, graduated last week from the Motor Transport School of the WAAC Training Center at Dayton, Ohio, Fla. This is a place where a steady job ahead for Mae, a former resident of Gatesburg.

The usual Union Memorial church services will be held in the Reformed church May 23 at 7:30 p. m. Rev. T. G. Jones will deliver the sermon. All congregations are invited.

Memorial services will be observed May 30, at 10 a. m., at Meek's church; 10:30 at Ross cemetery; 11 o'clock at Gatesburg. Mr. Greig Morning will speak Pine Grove Mills at 2:30 p. m., with the Citizens band to furnish the music. Prof. Joe Hays, supervising principal of State College High School, will be the speaker. Names of soldiers buried in town and boys in service from our school district will be read at this service. Note change in time. Graveside services Saturday, May 29 at 10 a. m.; Pine Hall, May 31 at 6 p. m.

Ray Melroy was home from Harrisburg for the weekend and was among those who attended the dedication services of the Pleasant Gap honor roll, on which there are already 102 names. The services were short and impressive. Judge Ivan Walker, the speaker, gave an excellent talk which left us all with the feeling that we should be willing and even glad to accept the ration program without a murmur so that we might help our boys over there who are giving their all to end this awful war against a heinous people who despite the fact that many of them had attended the memorial services at Boalsburg.

Mrs. S. E. Nell entertained the officers of the Nittany Valley Court of the Amaranth, Friday evening at dinner at her home. They made plans for the June meeting at this time.

John Terry of New Jersey, who will be remembered as the Eagle Boy Scout who had been visiting the S. E. Nell home for a number of years, is here on a short visit now. He was recently discharged from the Marines due to an arm injury received in an accident in which he also suffered a broken leg, the arm injury barring him from active service in the Marines. But not to be daunted, he still hopes to be able to join a hospital corps overseas as an ambulance driver.

Ed Nell is able to be back at work again after being laid up with injuries received when a part of the Horner house which he was tearing down, collapsed. Henry Knoffinger, who was also injured at that time, is still unable to be about.

Capt. William Crumlish was home from camp for the weekend and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Crumlish.

Robert Brown, Budd Brooks, Fred Eckenroth, Dick Rumbarger, Cluan Houser, Nevin Corman, Geo. Margaret, Jr., and Rodney Johnson were among those who took the second examination for the army on Monday, and who left on Monday following for camp.

Mrs. George Kurtz returned home about a week ago from the Centre County Hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Harry Tresler from below town, spent Tuesday afternoon at the Noll-Melroy home. Her son, Robert, is now in Africa.

Mrs. H. T. Noll accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brungart to Millfburg, Sunday, to see Mrs. Brungart's sister, Mrs. Del Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tresler, Mrs. Clayton Gettler, Mrs. Harry Hille and Mrs. Ward Hille were among those who attended the memorial exercises at Boalsburg, Sunday.

Mrs. John Noll returned to Lauriston, where she accepted a position for the summer.

Jack Horner of Washington, D. C., a former student of H. T. Noll in aviation, was married Saturday afternoon a week ago and brought his bride to call upon the Noll's before returning to his army work in Washington.

Mrs. W. H. Noll and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith were entertained on

BLANCHARD

(From Last Week)

Ray Hille is home on furlough from Camp Dix, N. J.

Miss Freda Weaver returned to her home in Centre Hall last week, after undergoing an appendectomy in the Centre County Hospital several weeks ago, and hopes to soon be able to resume her duties at the S. E. Noll home.

Ray Melroy was home from Harrisburg for the weekend and was among those who attended the dedication services of the Pleasant Gap honor roll, on which there are already 102 names. The services were short and impressive. Judge Ivan Walker, the speaker, gave an excellent talk which left us all with the feeling that we should be willing and even glad to accept the ration program without a murmur so that we might help our boys over there who are giving their all to end this awful war against a heinous people who despite the fact that many of them had attended the memorial services at Boalsburg.

Mrs. S. E. Nell entertained the officers of the Nittany Valley Court of the Amaranth, Friday evening at dinner at her home. They made plans for the June meeting at this time.

John Terry of New Jersey, who will be remembered as the Eagle Boy Scout who had been visiting the S. E. Noll home for a number of years, is here on a short visit now. He was recently discharged from the Marines due to an arm injury received in an accident in which he also suffered a broken leg, the arm injury barring him from active service in the Marines. But not to be daunted, he still hopes to be able to join a hospital corps overseas as an ambulance driver.

Ed Nell is able to be back at work again after being laid up with injuries received when a part of the Horner house which he was tearing down, collapsed. Henry Knoffinger, who was also injured at that time, is still unable to be about.

Capt. William Crumlish was home from camp for the weekend and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Crumlish.

Robert Brown, Budd Brooks, Fred Eckenroth, Dick Rumbarger, Cluan Houser, Nevin Corman, Geo. Margaret, Jr., and Rodney Johnson were among those who took the second examination for the army on Monday, and who left on Monday following for camp.

Mrs. George Kurtz returned home about a week ago from the Centre County Hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Harry Tresler from below town, spent Tuesday afternoon at the Noll-Melroy home. Her son, Robert, is now in Africa.

Mrs. H. T. Noll accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brungart to Millfburg, Sunday, to see Mrs. Brungart's sister, Mrs. Del Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tresler, Mrs. Clayton Gettler, Mrs. Harry Hille and Mrs. Ward Hille were among those who attended the memorial exercises at Boalsburg, Sunday.

Mrs. John Noll returned to Lauriston, where she accepted a position for the summer.

Jack Horner of Washington, D. C., a former student of H. T. Noll in aviation, was married Saturday afternoon a week ago and brought his bride to call upon the Noll's before returning to his army work in Washington.

Mrs. W. H. Noll and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith were entertained on

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately subsisting between E. Leonard Rhoads, W. Albert Rhoads, G. W. Rhoads and Lee E. Rhoads, trading under the firm name of George E. Rhoads' Sons expired on the 24th day of April, 1943, by reason of the death of E. Leonard Rhoads. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by the said G. W. Rhoads and Lee E. Rhoads, surviving partners, at the office of R. Paul Campbell, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to them for payment at the same place.

LEGAL NOTICES

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. In the matter of the estate of E. Leonard Rhoads, late of Spring Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

Letters of administration on said estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted thereto are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same will present them without delay for settlement to CHARLES E. PETERSON, Executor, 128 Spruce Avenue, Altoona, Pa. W. Harrison Walker, attorney for estate. x25

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF CENTRE COUNTY

Elizabeth S. Baird, et al. vs. Monahan Coal Mining Company. No. 3, May Term, 1943. In Equity.

To all Creditors and persons of interest in the above case, notice is given that the petition for summary judgment filed on or before the said date, the above account will be confirmed and distribution of the assets of the insolvent made in accordance with the schedule as set forth in the account as filed.

C. A. RICKENBAUGH, WALTER N. TODD, Receivers. x23

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

In the matter of the estate of Robert G. Ponsburg, late of Bellefonte Borough, deceased.

Letters testamentary on the above estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same will present them without delay for settlement to CHARLES E. PETERSON, Executor, 128 Spruce Avenue, Altoona, Pa. W. Harrison Walker, attorney for estate. x25

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

In the matter of the estate of D. L. Welch, late of Howard Borough, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

Letters of administration on said estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted thereto are requested to make immediate payment and those having claims or demands against the same will present them without delay for settlement to MINNIE B. WELCH, Administrator, Howard, Pa. x21

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

In the matter of the estate of Hannah M. Kellerman, late of Bellefonte Borough, deceased.

Letters testamentary on the above estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same will present them without delay for settlement to HICKMAN KELLERMAN, Executor, 128 Spruce Avenue, Altoona, Pa. W. Harrison Walker, attorney for estate. x21

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

In the matter of the estate of Ernest W. Hess, late of Harris Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

Letters of administration on said estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted thereto are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same will present them without delay for settlement to EDGAR E. HESS, Administrator, State College, Pa. R. D. R. Paul Campbell, attorney for estate. x22

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

In the matter of the estate of Edith Rosella Meyer, late of State College Borough, deceased.

Letters of administration on said estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted thereto are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims or demands against the same will present them without delay for settlement to A. MAUDE MEYER, Administrator, 403 S. Allen St., State College, Pa. Edward L. Willard, 66 Lettler Bldg., State College, Pa., x22

Charles Stoner, who was home from camp due to the serious illness of his grandmother, Mrs. Harry Stoner, left after a few days' visit. Mrs. Stoner is reported slightly improved. Her sister, Jennie, who had been caring for her, returned to her home in Williamsport, and now Mrs. Russell Stoner is helping to care for her.

Miss Culene Zimmerman was home on a 10-day furlough from Ft. Devens.

Miss Mary Adams of Millsburg, spent Sunday with the Paul Gingham family.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rachau of Renovo, Mrs. Mary Noll of Millheim, and Miss Mary Noll of Mill Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Wingard and grandson of Greenburg and Walter Wingard of Renovo, were Sunday guests at the Ripka home.