

HOWARD

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strunk received word from their son, Willard, who is stationed somewhere in England, that he was a patient in a hospital with a fractured jaw, not stating in what manner it happened.

Pay Pifer and sister, Mrs. Sara De Victory, Miss Maggie Baucher and Miss Mary Sweeney were Memorial Day guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Pifer.

Thomas Williams, stationed at the Army Air Base, Galveston, Texas, is spending a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams. We were all glad to see him as this is his first visit home since entering the service of Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Gertrude Gardner, who passed away at the Lock Haven Hospital last week, the result of a broken hip, was buried last Sunday at Schenck's cemetery. The survivors are Mrs. N. J. Weickert and Postmaster Donald Gardner; 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Two grandsons, Donald, Jr., and "Bud" Gardner, were not able to attend, stationed at San Maria, Calif., and "Bud" is in the state of Washington in the U. S. service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weber and family spent Memorial Day with the former's mother, Mrs. Kate Weber.

Miss Loretta Weber has returned home for the summer, after closing a successful term of school.

Union prayer service will be held Wednesday, June 9, at the Reformed church.

The Union Memorial service of the different churches of Howard was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening with a large attendance. The music was furnished by the young people's choir of the Methodist church, which was very ably done. A solo by Miss Mary Virginia Stoltz, "My Buddy," made a deep impression upon all. An impressive dedication service of the flowers was made by Rev. Roy Goss, minister of the Methodist church. Rev. Rogers gave the reading "In Flanders Field." Invocation and benediction were given by Rev. John R. Gulick of the Evangelical and Reformed church and Rev. Freas of the Evangelical church. At the close of the service, during silent prayer, taps were sounded, after which Robert Neff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Neff, and the three little sons of Postmaster and Mrs. Don Gardner, dressed in khaki uniforms, distributed flowers through the cemetery on soldiers' graves, directed by Sarkis Joseph. Several organizations attended in a body.

The dedication of the Honor Roll for those in service, and flag raising service took place at the Diamond Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The program opened by singing "Faith of Our Fathers," by the High School Chorus, directed by Miss Schmiedle of the high school faculty, followed by invocation by Rev.

John R. Gulick. The high school girls sang "My Buddy." The flag was presented by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Bellefonte, John Bryn, a member of this organization, making the presentation speech.

Rev. Roy Goss gave the acceptance address. The flag was then raised by two Scouts, Harold Holt and Peter Beightel. The Hon. Ivan Walker gave the dedication address, after which several selections were sung by the high school girls' chorus, and benediction was given by Rev. Freas. The grounds around the Honor Roll have been leveled off and evergreens planted at each end, which makes a nice appearance. Many thanks to those who assisted in any way in improving the surrounding grounds.

The grade schools of Howard borough closed Tuesday.

LaVerne Runkle of Mt. Eagle, pleasing clerk at the Mobil gas station, has returned to school after a three weeks' illness.

The Children's Day program of the Walnut street church of Christ will be given Sunday evening, June 14th. All are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Mackey has returned home from Geisinger Hospital, Danville, after a minor operation and is getting along fine.

Letter From Son

Mrs. Charles Fetzer, of the I. O. O. F. apartments, West High street, Bellefonte, who recently was decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross, has received the following communication from the headquarters of the Fifth Air Force: "Dear Mrs. Fetzer: "Recently your son was decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross. This award was made in recognition of his courageous, fearless service to his combat organization, his fellow American airmen, his country, his home and to you."

Your son was decorated for extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flights in the Southwest Pacific Area from October 4 to December 19, 1942. "He took part in more than fifty missions, dropping supplies and transporting troops over territory that was continually patrolled by enemy fighter aircraft. Often landings were made on fields which were only a few miles from Japanese bases. These operations aided considerably in the recent successes in this theatre."

"Almost every hour of every day your son flew to combat, according to American mothers, are doing just what they should do here in the Southwest Pacific. "This is a very real and very tangible contribution to victory and to peace. "I would like to tell you how genuinely proud I am to have men such as your son in my command, and how gratified I am to know that young Americans with such courage and resourcefulness are fighting our country's battle against the aggressor nations."

"You, Mrs. Fetzer, have every reason to share that pride and gratification. Very sincerely, GEORGE C. KENNEY, Lieutenant General, Commanding."

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

Poets' Corner

Breakfast should be the most delightful meal of the day, but in most homes it's simply a race with the clock. There is much to be said in favor of a good substantial breakfast. Begin tomorrow and give your family a better breakfast, add an unexpected touch to the everyday dishes.

Chipped Beef Omelet

Use 1 egg for each person served and one tablespoonful of hot water for each egg. Separate the yolks and whites. Season the yolks with salt and pepper, add water and beat well. Beat the whites until stiff and fold in the yolks. Pour gently into a well-greased pan and cook slowly until the underside is delicate brown. Then place the pan in the oven, keeping the temperature between 325 and 350 degrees. When the omelet responds to the touch its done. Tear chipped beef into small pieces and heat thoroughly in milk—use a double boiler—strain. Spread chipped beef on omelet and fold.

Eggs Scrambled with Tomatoes

Fry 2 teaspoons chipped onion in 2 tablespoons of butter for a few minutes. Add 1 cup canned tomatoes and simmer a short time. Beat 4 eggs slightly with a fork, add to tomatoes and cook gently, stirring lightly until creamy. Season to taste. Serve plain or on toast.

Liver Cakes with Bacon

2 1/2 cups ground liver
2 slices bacon cut in small pieces
1 egg slightly beaten
1-2 cup bread crumbs
1-2 cup stock or milk
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper—bacon strips
Mix liver and pieces of bacon and the bread crumbs which have been moistened in the beaten egg and milk. Add salt and pepper. Shape into thin cakes and wrap with strips of bacon. Broil, turn once during cooking.

Appointment Announced

Lieut. Col. George H. Hafter, acting director of the Pennsylvania selection service system, has appointed Harry Baldwin to Local Board No. 1, Lock Haven. He succeeds R. K. Griffin.
