

LOCALS

—Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wright, of Williamsport, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with relatives and friends.

—Edward Dugan, of Pike street, is spending several days with relatives and friends in Altoona while attending an eye clinic in that city.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and family, Mrs. Bruce Colborn, and Chester Davis, all of Baltimore, Md., were recent guests of Chester Davis' wife and family at their home on North Thomas street.

—Pfc. Melvin Mulberger, stationed at an army camp in Virginia, is spending a ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mulberger, at their home at Pleasant View.

—After spending two weeks with his wife and mother, Mrs. Annie Whippo, of West Logan street, Pvt. John Whippo during the weekend returned to his duties at Orlando Air Base, Orlando, Florida.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ulrich, of South Spring street, spent the weekend in New York City with their son, Tech Sgt. Richard Ulrich, who has been transferred to that area from McClellan Field, Calif.

—Mrs. Bessie Freed and granddaughter, Joan Brown, of Valley View, are expected to return home today from Greensburg, where they have been attending a missionary conference of the United Brethren church.

—Among those who attended the funeral of Mrs. William Barnhart in Curtin, Sunday, were Annie A. Thomas and his mother, Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenhoover, and Mrs. E. C. Burghuff, all of Bellefonte.

—Messrs. Ward C. Krape, Zion, James J. Markle, State College, and Gilbert C. Waite, of Port Matilda, represented Centre County at a meeting of the directors of the National Farm Loan Association, held at Hollidaysburg last week.

—Pvt. Edward G. Grifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grifer, of Axtmann, arrived in England last week according to word received by his parents. Before entering the service Pvt. Grifer was employed at the O. A. Kline Hardware store in Bellefonte.

—Miss Taziana Mannino and her brothers, John and Francis, all of Tyrone, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with their mother, Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenhoover, and Mrs. E. C. Burghuff, all of Bellefonte.

—Oscar Snyder, 39, of Milesburg, an employee of Kofman & Co., of Bellefonte suffered painful bruises about one foot Monday morning, when a steel plate he was moving slipped off a skid on which one ended, and the heavy piece of metal fell, striking him on the instep. No bones were broken.

—Mr. and Mrs. Blair Berkstresser and son, of Houtzdale, have leased the apartment in the Brooks house on East Linn street recently vacated by the Brockhoff Hotel. Mr. Kraus, of Berkstresser, is an instructor at the Bellefonte Airport. The Stover family recently purchased the Calvin Purnell home on East Curtin street.

—Arthur C. Dale, Jr., who was graduated cum laude in the liberal arts course at Mercersburg Academy last week, is home for a brief visit with his parents, former judge and Mrs. Arthur C. Dale, at their home on East Linn street. Arthur graduated second highest scholastically in his class at Mercersburg, expects to enter Penn State in the pre-legal course later this month.

—Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Kraus, of Bloomsburg, are guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Walter Cohen, of the Washington Hotel. Mrs. Kraus expects to take over the Cohen dress shop in the Crider Exchange building and will move his family to Bellefonte as soon as suitable living quarters are found. Mrs. Kraus is the former Florence Cohen, of Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Gray, of Lancaster, are spending a week's vacation in Bellefonte. Their headquarters are in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Mrs. Kline is worth matron of Bellefonte Chapter and all the women are delegates to the sessions.

—Richard S. Valentine, student at Haverford College, Haverford, arrived in Bellefonte Sunday for a three week's vacation with his mother, Mrs. Stanley Valentine, of North Allegheny street. At the end of that time he will report to Swarthmore College for physical examinations preparatory to entering the U. S. Naval Reserves college training program.

—Hugh Rogers, a third year student at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, is spending three weeks with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers, of North Allegheny street. All medical students at the University have resigned their commissions and are now members of the Enlisted Reserve. When they return to school in several weeks the school will be under army supervision.

—Mrs. Charles W. Reeder and young son, Michael Charles, of Bellefonte, Tuesday night departed for Ridgway, Mo., to join Mrs. Reeder's husband, Warrant Officer Reeder, who has just returned from 18 months' active duty aboard a warship in the South Pacific. Mr. Reeder, a native of Missouri, has been in the U. S. Navy for the past ten years. Mrs. Reeder is the former Stella Benzle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wash Benzle, of Buffalo Run Valley.

—Miss Theresa Pike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Pike, Bush Addition, during the weekend was graduated from Mt. Aloysius Junior College, Cresson, and on Monday began her duties in her new position in the offices of the National Gypsum Company, Buffalo Run Valley. Among those who attended the graduation exercises were her parents and grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Beizer, all of Bush Addition.

—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tuttle, of South Allegheny street, and Mrs. George W. Beezer, of Willowbar street.

—Miss Anne Carter Dorworth, daughter of William J. Dorworth, of East Linn street, who has been employed in the Philadelphia area for some months, departed yesterday for Salinas, California, where she will be engaged as a junior chemist on a Federal project concerned with the production of granule rubber. Miss Dorworth and a group of other chemists were transferred to California from the Eastern Regional Laboratories at Chestnut Hill Station, near Philadelphia. She is a graduate of the Bellefonte high school and was graduated from Penn State in biological chemistry in 1942. Since then she had been employed in Philadelphia.

—Mrs. O. G. Morgan, of North Allegheny street, spent the weekend in Harrisburg with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Morgan, Jr.

—Summer courses in shorthand and typing will probably start in the Bellefonte High School on June 21. For further information see Mrs. Daisy Henderson, Bellefonte, Pa.

—Staff Sgt. George Reeder, stationed at Woodbine, N. J., has returned to his duties after spending a three-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reeder, at their home in Pleasant View.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Richardson and two children last week moved from the Henderson apartment on East High street to the home of Mrs. Richardson's mother, Mrs. Clara Barnhart, in Pleasant View.

—Miss Mary Kathryn Walizer, who recently completed her junior year at the Millersville State Teachers' College, has accepted a position in the offices of the Centre County Commissioners at the Court House.

—John Rackoski, seaman second class, stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday of last week to spend a seven-day leave at the family home on North Thomas street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Blair Smith and daughter, Linda, of Erie, last week moved to Bellefonte and are occupying an apartment in the Orvis home on East Curtin street. Mr. Smith is employed by the New-Way School at the Bellefonte Airport.

—Walter Gherriety, chief pharmacist's mate in the Naval Reserves for the past nine months, last Wednesday returned to his home here after receiving a medical discharge. Mr. Gherriety was stationed at Camp Perry, Williamsburg, Va., before receiving his honorable discharge.

—Mrs. William Sager and family last week moved into the apartment in the Rogers building on South Spring street vacated some time ago by the Clarence Swartz family. Mrs. Sager, who had been working in York, returned to Bellefonte this weekend with no definite plans for returning to York.

—Word was received here that Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Shiver, of Hazelton, are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Friday morning at 4:55 o'clock at the Hazelton Hospital. Mrs. Shiver before her marriage was Mrs. Philip Confer of Bellefonte, R. D. 3.

—Miss Nancy Jane Wagner, daughter of Charles H. Wagner, of 122 East Curtin street, Bellefonte, has enrolled as a resident student in the one-year course in the Katherine Gibbs School in New York City. She will start her course this September. Miss Wagner is a graduate of Bellefonte High School.

—Kenneth Barnhart, apprentice seaman, has returned to his duties at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center near Chicago, after spending a week in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnhart and family, of East Bishop street. Barnhart recently completed his six weeks' basic training course at Camp Pease, Maine.

—Pfc. Charles T. Stine, of Camp Butler, N. C., spent Sunday in Bellefonte and was the guest of honor at a dinner, attended by relatives, at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Benner, of West Beaver street. Mr. Stine was accompanied by his wife, the former Miss Anna Nash, Phillipsburg, with whom he is spending an eight-day furlough.

—The Bellefonte grade schools closed for the term with little formality, Friday, when approximately 500 pupils in the first six grades were dismissed about 10 a. m. after teachers completed routine check-up reports. Final reports of students in the high school and junior high school will continue their studies until June 22. Commencement exercises are to be held that night, according to present plans.

—Sgt. Richard F. Gray, company clerk in the Quartermaster Corps at Willow Run Airport, Ypsilanti, Mich., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday of last week for a 14-day leave of absence which he is spending with his mother, Mrs. O. Oscar Gray, at her home on West High street. Sgt. Gray, who entered the service about 18 months ago, was stationed at Westover Field, Mass., and at Baer Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind., before being transferred to the Willow Run Airport last January.

—At a recent meeting in the Girl Scout Little House on Cherry Lane, members of Girl Scout Troop No. 11 of Bellefonte elected as president and two color guards. Joy Owens was chosen as flag bearer and Nancy Herman and June Williams were named color guards. Miss Mary Hartle, scout leader, and Miss Sara Risan and Miss Edith Risan, assistant leaders, were in charge of the session. Twelve girls were present. A display of Girl Scout activities and an amateur hour concluded the program.

—Sgt. and Mrs. Philip Taylor and young daughter, Diane, of Washington, D. C., arrived in Bellefonte last Thursday and were guests during the weekend of Sgt. Taylor's mother, Mrs. Bertha Taylor, at her apartment on North Allegheny street. The Philip Taylors have leased the small house owned by Matt Ivlic on East Lamb street, and Mrs. Taylor and daughter will reside here indefinitely. Sgt. Taylor early this week returned to his duties as a crew chief in the U. S. Army Air Corps at Bolling Field, Washington. Mrs. Taylor is the former Dorothea Pambokian, of Boston, Mass.

—Mrs. C. Edward Robb, who for some months has been with her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Robb, at Lyme, Conn., arrived in Bellefonte, Wednesday, to spend several weeks at her apartment in the Friedman building of South Allegheny street. At the expiration of her visit here Mrs. Robb, who has not been in the best of health for the past number of weeks, will return to Lyme for the summer. Her son, Lt. Richard Robb, who is stationed at the submarine base at New London, Conn., is recuperating rapidly from an operation he underwent about a month ago.

—Mrs. Stanley Valentine, of North Allegheny street, recently accepted a position in the offices of Local Authorities-Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisements contain more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged. REAL ESTATE-A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

—Yesterday was the first half-holiday for Bellefonte stores and business places for the summer season. Virtually every establishment in town is observing the Wednesday afternoon holiday.

—After the kind of weather we've been having this month, we humbly suggest a slight change in the classic poem about June weather. We'd revise the line to read "Oh what is so rare as a decent day in June?"

—Robert Morris, Sr., of the Penn Belle Hotel, last week was admitted to the Centre County Hospital for observation and treatment. For some time Mr. Morris has not been in good health. His condition yesterday was reported to be unchanged.

—Mrs. James G. Taylor last week returned to her home in Beverly Hills, Cal., after a visit in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. Frank Donovan, and her two children, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Bertram, of Spring Creek. Mrs. Taylor is the former Ruth Bertram, of Bellefonte.

—Pvt. Joseph Moser, Jr., in training at Ft. Bliss, Texas, arrived in Bellefonte Sunday to spend a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moser, of North Thomas street. Prior to entering the service, Pvt. Moser was employed at the Diamond restaurant.

—A chorus consisting of members of the choir of Bellefonte churches will furnish special music for the high school musical, to be given on June 20. All interested choir members are urged to attend the rehearsal Sunday, June 13, at 4 p. m., in the high school auditorium.

—The McGarvey Studio, conducted by the Misses Mary and Blanche McGarvey, has been engaged to take in the former Red Cross room on the west side of the first floor of Patrikin Hall. The Red Cross quarters have been moved to the basement room of the same building.

—Ray D. Hazel, of Baltimore, Md., spent last weekend with Mrs. Mary S. Hazel and granddaughter, Grace Stephens, at Bigler, Pa., on Sunday. Mrs. Hazel and Charles Stephens, and Mrs. Margaret Robinson, all of Carlisle, Pa., were in the company. Mrs. Hazel and Grace went to Johnston to spend the day with Walter E. Hazel and family.

—Thomas Wallace and Miss Betty Long, both of West Bishop street, and Jean Wallace, of Milesburg, returned recently to their homes from Maranatha, Pa., where they attended graduation exercises held May 29, at Maranatha, Pa. Wallace and Jean's brother, Lt. James J. Wallace, Jr., was a member of the class, graduating as a pilot and received his wings and commission.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, on North Allegheny street, on Tuesday afternoon, with approximately 25 members present. Mrs. Helen Butler, Home Economics Extension Representative, gave an illustrated talk on Flower Arranging, and also spoke on home canning and the use of emergency canning supplies. The business session was followed by a picnic supper on the lawn.

—Carl Hayes, of East High street, last week purchased the Paul McGarvey residence on West Curtin street, and he, Mrs. Hayes and their three children expect to move into the property about July 1. Mr. Hayes is teacher of science and geography at the Bellefonte high school. Mrs. Hayes is a homemaker.

—Paul W. Beardslee, who for the past six months has been undergoing basic training preparatory to Volunteer Officers Candidate training, at Ft. Belvoir, Va., has received an honorable discharge from service, and is returning to Bellefonte on Friday to rejoin his wife and family at their home on Willowbar street. Mr. Beardslee is in the enlisted grade and is subject to the orders of the Signal Corps attached to the Air Force at Camp Weatherford, Brandenton, Florida, arrived home Wednesday night of last week for a 14-day furlough which he is spending at home with the former Sgt. Haupt, of Bellefonte, at the George Shekler home in Milesburg, and with other relatives in the Milesburg area. Cpl. Miles entered the service on October 29, 1942, and has been stationed at various camps in Florida during most of the time since then. Cpl. Miles is son of W. M. Miles, Jr., of Milesburg and he has a brother and sister in the armed forces. The brother, Pvt. Russell C. Miles, is in the Medical Corps and his sister, Miss Marilyn Miles, is in the WAAC.

—Louis S. Schaeffer, cashier of the First National Bank, will leave on Friday, for Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J., to complete the special course in the Rutgers Graduate School of Banking, which he began three years ago. The course, specially scheduled by the school for bank officers, bank executives, bankers from all parts of the United States and the enrollment this year is expected to be approximately 400. The course is the only one of its type in the United States. Mr. Schaeffer will be a member of the class which will be graduated at commencement exercises on June 27. His work this month will include the writing of a thesis upon some phase of his studies. For the past three summers he has attended classes at Rutgers and during the winter months such additional home study was required by the University to complete the course.

—Mrs. O. G. Morgan, of North Allegheny street, spent the weekend in Harrisburg with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Morgan, Jr.

—Summer courses in shorthand and typing will probably start in the Bellefonte High School on June 21. For further information see Mrs. Daisy Henderson, Bellefonte, Pa.

—Staff Sgt. George Reeder, stationed at Woodbine, N. J., has returned to his duties after spending a three-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reeder, at their home in Pleasant View.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Richardson and two children last week moved from the Henderson apartment on East High street to the home of Mrs. Richardson's mother, Mrs. Clara Barnhart, in Pleasant View.

—Miss Mary Kathryn Walizer, who recently completed her junior year at the Millersville State Teachers' College, has accepted a position in the offices of the Centre County Commissioners at the Court House.

—John Rackoski, seaman second class, stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday of last week to spend a seven-day leave at the family home on North Thomas street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Blair Smith and daughter, Linda, of Erie, last week moved to Bellefonte and are occupying an apartment in the Orvis home on East Curtin street. Mr. Smith is employed by the New-Way School at the Bellefonte Airport.

—Walter Gherriety, chief pharmacist's mate in the Naval Reserves for the past nine months, last Wednesday returned to his home here after receiving a medical discharge. Mr. Gherriety was stationed at Camp Perry, Williamsburg, Va., before receiving his honorable discharge.

—Mrs. William Sager and family last week moved into the apartment in the Rogers building on South Spring street vacated some time ago by the Clarence Swartz family. Mrs. Sager, who had been working in York, returned to Bellefonte this weekend with no definite plans for returning to York.

—Word was received here that Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Shiver, of Hazelton, are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Friday morning at 4:55 o'clock at the Hazelton Hospital. Mrs. Shiver before her marriage was Mrs. Philip Confer of Bellefonte, R. D. 3.

—Miss Nancy Jane Wagner, daughter of Charles H. Wagner, of 122 East Curtin street, Bellefonte, has enrolled as a resident student in the one-year course in the Katherine Gibbs School in New York City. She will start her course this September. Miss Wagner is a graduate of Bellefonte High School.

—Kenneth Barnhart, apprentice seaman, has returned to his duties at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center near Chicago, after spending a week in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnhart and family, of East Bishop street. Barnhart recently completed his six weeks' basic training course at Camp Pease, Maine.

—Pfc. Charles T. Stine, of Camp Butler, N. C., spent Sunday in Bellefonte and was the guest of honor at a dinner, attended by relatives, at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Benner, of West Beaver street. Mr. Stine was accompanied by his wife, the former Miss Anna Nash, Phillipsburg, with whom he is spending an eight-day furlough.

—The Bellefonte grade schools closed for the term with little formality, Friday, when approximately 500 pupils in the first six grades were dismissed about 10 a. m. after teachers completed routine check-up reports. Final reports of students in the high school and junior high school will continue their studies until June 22. Commencement exercises are to be held that night, according to present plans.

—Sgt. Richard F. Gray, company clerk in the Quartermaster Corps at Willow Run Airport, Ypsilanti, Mich., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday of last week for a 14-day leave of absence which he is spending with his mother, Mrs. O. Oscar Gray, at her home on West High street. Sgt. Gray, who entered the service about 18 months ago, was stationed at Westover Field, Mass., and at Baer Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind., before being transferred to the Willow Run Airport last January.

—At a recent meeting in the Girl Scout Little House on Cherry Lane, members of Girl Scout Troop No. 11 of Bellefonte elected as president and two color guards. Joy Owens was chosen as flag bearer and Nancy Herman and June Williams were named color guards. Miss Mary Hartle, scout leader, and Miss Sara Risan and Miss Edith Risan, assistant leaders, were in charge of the session. Twelve girls were present. A display of Girl Scout activities and an amateur hour concluded the program.

—Sgt. and Mrs. Philip Taylor and young daughter, Diane, of Washington, D. C., arrived in Bellefonte last Thursday and were guests during the weekend of Sgt. Taylor's mother, Mrs. Bertha Taylor, at her apartment on North Allegheny street. The Philip Taylors have leased the small house owned by Matt Ivlic on East Lamb street, and Mrs. Taylor and daughter will reside here indefinitely. Sgt. Taylor early this week returned to his duties as a crew chief in the U. S. Army Air Corps at Bolling Field, Washington. Mrs. Taylor is the former Dorothea Pambokian, of Boston, Mass.

—Mrs. C. Edward Robb, who for some months has been with her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Robb, at Lyme, Conn., arrived in Bellefonte, Wednesday, to spend several weeks at her apartment in the Friedman building of South Allegheny street. At the expiration of her visit here Mrs. Robb, who has not been in the best of health for the past number of weeks, will return to Lyme for the summer. Her son, Lt. Richard Robb, who is stationed at the submarine base at New London, Conn., is recuperating rapidly from an operation he underwent about a month ago.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Over Thirty Thousand Persons Read These Columns

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived from its use, it is undeniably Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

ADVERTISEMENTS—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisements contain more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged. REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat whose subscription is paid up to date, is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. Otherwise the subscriber will be charged the regular advertising rate. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic City, came home during the weekend but returned to her duties yesterday. Other children of the elderly couple also have visited the home during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, prominent residents of Wadell, who have been seriously ill at their home in that community, yesterday were reported to be showing some improvement, members of the family advised. Their daughter, Major Sara Stevenson, U. S. Army nurse, stationed at Atlantic