winning next Sunday and continuing through the week.

Mrs. Carl Flick and son Earl and daughter Grace Bell, returned to their home the latter part of last week from a visit with relatives and friends in Altoona for the past week.

Mrs. A. F. Hazel and granddaughter, Miss Grace Stevens of Bigler, visited several days with friends and neighbors in the community and attended the Hazel sale on Saturday. Grace Stevens remained to visit for a time with some of her friends here.

The First Quarterly Conference of the Methodist church was held on Wednesday evening at the church in Bellefonte, where the district superintendent, presiding.

Sgt. Ardey Calhoun, now stationed at Long Island, N. Y., spent the past weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calhoun, and greeted his many friends in the community.

We may be a little late with this item, but we wish to state that Earl Finkbinder and his daughter, Mrs. Carl Flick, wish to express their appreciation and thanks to their many friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and expression of sympathy during the death of the former's wife, and mother of Mrs. Flick, recently.

Lynn Tingue of Bellefonte, spent a couple days visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. T. B. McClellan of this place. He returned to his home on Sunday when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Tingue of Bellefonte, and daughter Mary, came up to spend the afternoon with Mrs. McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burkholder had a nice flock of chickens just about depleted one night last week when they were attacked, presumably by a weasel. They had about four left out of a flock of 50. They did not give up in despair, for they have another flock started.

A sale of the household goods of Clarence Houtz, up the pike, will be held this Saturday afternoon on the premises. All the household furnishings will be sold and the house will then be for rent.

The sale of the household goods of the late A. F. Hazel was very well attended last Saturday afternoon in spite of the shortage of gas and ban on driving.

Mrs. Stella Parsons has gone to State College, where she is being employed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Armstrong.

The Daily Vacation Bible school planned for next week will begin on Monday, June 21st at 9 o'clock in the Methodist church and continue each day between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m. for the next two weeks.

Competent teachers have been selected and it is hoped all parents will urge their children to attend. All children of the community are welcome whether they are affiliated with the Methodist church or not, as this is a community school.

Congress is one of the necessities of democracy; if this wasn't true there would be no Congress.

HOWARD

Pvt. Donald Conifer, stationed at Camp Phillips, Kansas, returned to camp Monday after a ten-day furlough with his father, Ward Conifer and friends, Howard, R. D.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union meets at the home of Mrs. Anna Heverly Friday evening of this week.

The Loyal Workers class of the Church of Christ, taught by Mrs. Lester Wyland, will meet at the home of Mrs. William Orndorf, Friday evening.

52-c Glenn Heverly, stationed at Boston, Mass., spent a 5-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Heverly.

The Children's Day program of the Reformed church will be held Sunday evening, June 20.

Pvt. Floyd Miller, Co. A, stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., is spending a short furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller, Howard, R. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pesick and son, Cecil Gross of Chester, are visiting the lady's mother, Mrs. Carrie Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Day of Altoona, and daughter Ruth made a business trip to Bellefonte and also called on friends here Monday evening. Mr. Day's brother, Gerald, expects to leave soon for the service. Both men are sons of Mrs. May Day of Walnut street.

Miss Fay Pifer of Williamsport, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Pifer.

Harry Ekdahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekdahl, left Saturday a week ago for Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., to take a pre-medical course for the summer season. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Weikert and son James as far as Gettysburg, where they visited the former's father and sister; also by Harry's mother and sister Caroline, who visited at Littlestown with Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings and son, Rev. W. W. Cummings, returning home the following Tuesday.

A son, named John William III, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons Saturday morning at the Haven Hospital. Mrs. Lyons was the former Miss Relda Wooster, daughter of Mr. Floyd Wooster, Howard, R. D. This is the first born in the home, making Mr. and Mrs. Clair Lyons grandparents for the first time, and Mrs. Cora Lyons a great-grandmother. Pfc. William Lyons, the father, arrived home from Camp Crowder, Mo., Sunday, and Sgt. John Lyons, his brother, arrived home on a 15-day furlough from Jackson, Miss. All are very happy over the new arrival and also of the visit of the boys at home together.

Union Prayer service for Wednesday, June 23, will be held in the Evangelical church.

Merrill Fletcher moved his place of business from the Mrs. Carrie Wolf building on Walnut street to his residence on Main street, formerly known as the Maples Restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lomison and family expect to move into the John Zeigler property which will be vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler, who are quite aged and are making their future home with their daughter at the old homestead in Little Nittany. Lt. Josephine Masden of Tampa, Fla., and her brother, Pfc. Paul B. Masden of Waverles, Ga., are spending a ten-day furlough with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Masden. Their brother, Walter Masden, is in North Africa serving his country there.

Mrs. Robert McCollough of Harrisburg, visited over the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Harry Regal.

Miss Fels Schenck spent Saturday at Bellefonte.

Now that some kind of tax-saving plan has been enacted we wonder who will save any taxes.
