World of Religion (Continued from page two) tant from your local airport. The hotel has also changed its shape, with barriers leveled off and oceans reduced to small bodies of water. The 'rowboat' geography and the 'rowboat' world-view are both obsolete and must be discarded. As never before in the world's history we were members one of another, an interdependent community. The implications of this are staggering for our church and global mission program. The board then calls upon the congregational Christian churches to support a wider mission program than in the past, and to send 160 new missionaries to strengthen their present staff of 200 men and women in ten countries.
