

Echoes From the Past

Fifty Years Ago

Farmers in need of harvest hands can get a good supply most any time about the court house steps.

The Millheim Journal is agitating the question of that place fixing up a system of water works.

The town of Philipsburg is agitated at present over the question of street sewerage.

The Lock Haven Express says that a German carp caught by Henry Foree, on the dam at that city, weighing three and one-half pounds, was probably the largest carp ever caught in this section of the state.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Gertrude Spielmeier, of this place, and Mr. John D. Huffman, of Williamsport, in the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte, on Wednesday evening, July 12th at 8 o'clock.

Additional men are arriving every week and are obtaining work on the new railroad to Mill Hill.

The place for the annual encampment of the 5th Regiment, N. G. P. to which Co. B. of Bellefonte belongs, has been selected and it will not be near Bellefonte as some had hoped for.

Muser, Spring Mills, and Susan M. Ripke, Spring Mills; David J. Vonada, Miles Twp., and Emma Rote, Gregg Twp.; William F. Stover and Minnie B. Brungart, both of Aaronsburg; George A. Vonada and Diana Wance, both of Madisonburg; Henry Smetz, Youngstown, Ohio, and Emma Welty, Spring Twp.; John A. Campbell, Pittsburg, and Annie Schreyer, Mifflintown; John McLaughlin and Blanche Pearson, both of Philipsburg.

Twenty Years Ago

Plans were being made for the erection of an additional building at the Bellefonte plant of the Federal Match Company.

Forest Ranger W. F. McKinley, of Centre Hall, discovered a forest fire on Tussey Mountain, near Tusseyville, and sent a crew of men to fight the flames.

Miss Catherine Cole, of Chicago, guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Willard Abt, of Bellefonte, suffered a fracture of the collar bone when the Ford coupe in which she was riding upset.

A seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wagner, of Spring Mills, escaped death Saturday, when a bicycle he was riding plunged over a 20-foot embankment.

Three huge transformers, each weighing 17 1/2 tons, arrived in Bellefonte on a flatcar, and were being moved to a large concrete foundation which had been prepared for them in Bush Addition by the Keystone Power Corporation.

M. A. Landsey, proprietor of the Brockerhoff Hotel, Bellefonte, suffered a black eye and bruises Friday afternoon while he was riding in the baggage transfer truck owned and driven by John Bauer.

Residents of Millsburg were somewhat startled one night when they saw a large cross burning on "Line Kill Hill" southeast of the town.

While walking down the sidewalk near the Cadillac garage, Jack Decker, Sr., slipped and fell, suffering a fracture of the left arm between the elbow and wrist.

A gang of Hungarian railroad laborers got on a spree down at Hecla last Wednesday and a number were placed under arrest.

The travel to the cave (presumably Penn's Cave) is gradually decreasing each year, and it is seldom now that a picnic is held there, when, several years back, they were a daily occurrence.

Sunday School Lesson

A PEOPLE IN DISTRESS

International Sunday School Lesson for July 4, 1943.

GOLDEN TEXT: "They cried and their cry came up unto God by reason of their bondage."—Exodus 2: 23.

Lesson Text: Exodus 1: 16-14; 2: 23-25.

With this lesson we begin a new quarter's studies and a new series of lessons, the general theme of which is "God in the Making of a Nation," or the Era of Moses.

The first five verses of the first chapter of Exodus give a brief census of Jacob and his family when they first arrived in Egypt.

As a result, the children of Israel were reduced to slavery, with harsh taskmasters over them, and were assigned difficult and well nigh impossible tasks to perform.
