JAMES L. ADAMS for PROTHONOTARY of CENTRE COUNTY

James L. Adams was born at Philipsburg, May 24, 1897, where he attended the public schools. Ever since "Jim" was old enough to read he has been active in politics, but he has never been a candidate for county office. He served on the Philipsburg Council for six years and served as president for two years. He was one of Centre County's first supporters of General Martin for Governor.

"Jim" was associated with H. B. Scott, former state senator, from 1915 to the time the latter retired in 1939. Since that time he has been engaged in the insurance business and coal business. He has served continuously as secretary of the Rotary Club of Philipsburg ever since 1926.

Married to the former Kathryne Patten Scott, one son, home address, 803 East Presqueisle street, Philipsburg.

Your Army needs volunteer men, women, boys and girls to serve with the Army Air Forces Ground Observer Corps. The work is important, instructive and fascinating. Planes passing over this area are reported by telephone to the Army Aircraft Warning Service Filter Station, Harrisburg, Pa.

The place of duty is the Army Aircraft Observation Post, Community Athletic Field.

Observers serve four-hour shifts every other week. Convenient shifts will be arranged. Volunteers can register for this service by telephoning Mrs. Neal Kohler, 2063, Bellefonte, Pa.; Mrs. Paul Hartsock, 2577, or S. H. Hoy, 2664, Bellefonte, Pa.
