UNIONVILLE

for the past several weeks with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Jarrett.

One of the citizens of the community has made a suggestion that the folks of the community make a general war on rats. The going up of a lot of pig pens and the keeping of pigs in the community has brought in an enormous supply of rats, and one person fighting them makes little headway. It has been suggested that the period from July 15th to 30th to be the time for all persons to make a special effort to rid the place of rats. A few cents will get a supply of poison which will exterminate them in short order, or traps will be suitable. We would make a further suggestion that persons owning pig pens keep their pens clean, which will be one way of getting rid of the rats, also the unpleasant odor which many folks are enduring these hot summer days.
