ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE EIGHT—SECOND SECTION

Copperhead Bites Aged Howard Man. (Continued from page one) be kept under refrigeration, and it is effective in the treatment of the bites of any poisonous snake. The Partridge store had not had calls for the serum for three or four years, the last call being when an employe of a circus showing in Bellefonte was bitten by a snake. Mr. Shenck said that snakes seem to be unusually numerous in the vicinity of his home this year. Last Thursday afternoon, he said, he saw a copperhead attack one of his young chicks in the chicken yard. By the time Mr. Shenck ran over to the spot, the snake had the chick's head in its mouth. Shenck rescued the chick and killed the snake, which measured nearly three feet in length. The chick did not survive its encounter with the snake. The snake which bit Mr. Shenck was described as being a "young" one which measured only about two feet in length, he said.

NOTICE IN DIVORCE. In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pa. No. 68, February term, 1943. Mary Ann Rhoads, libellant, vs. Kenneth David Rhoads, respondent. To Kenneth David Rhoads, formerly of Spring Township, Centre County, Pa. At present residence unknown. Sir: Please take notice that an application for a divorce has been made in the above captioned case upon the allegation that you have, in violation of your marriage vows and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, willfully and maliciously, and without just or reasonable cause, deserted the libellant, Mary Ann Rhoads, and absented yourself from her habitation for and during the term or space of two years and upwards. By reason of your default in not entering an appearance or in not filing an answer, the case has been referred to me as Master and I have, therefore, fixed Saturday, July 31st, 1943, at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time, and my office in the Masonic Temple Building, North Allegheny street, in the Borough of Bellefonte, Centre County, Pa., as the place for the taking of testimony in the above captioned case, at which time and place you may appear in person, or by Counsel, and produce such witnesses as you may desire to testify in your behalf, should you see fit. Respectfully yours, W. HARRISON WALKER, Master, Masonic Temple Building, Bellefonte, Pa. July 12th, A. D. 1943.

THE THIRD TERM . . . and then the fourth . . . LET'S BE CONSISTENT! Three years ago we openly opposed the third term . . . we recall how actively the WILKIE CHAIRMEN OPPOSED THE THIRD TERM. Should we, as Republicans, oppose the third term for those of the opposition party . . . then turn about face within our own party? We Opposed the Third Term in 1940 . . . Let's Be Consistent in 1943! Republican Primary Election, Tuesday, September 14, 1943.
