John "Jerry" Galaida

For Sheriff

He has had thorough training in police work, has had a long and varied business career, and by disposition is admirably qualified to carry out the duties of the county's highest law enforcement office in a capable, efficient and conscientious manner.

Because of the shortage of gasoline and tires, "Jerry" has refrained from making a complete canvass of the county.

But to every voter he pledges that if nominated and elected he will serve in a manner to bring credit to the party he represents.
