Special Services in M. E. Churches

Service being used to help keep the Homes of Aged, and for Children, within the boundary of the Conference, going.

The Altoona District, and Williamsport Districts, send their gifts to the Methodist Home for the Aged at Tyrone, while the Sunbury and Harrisburg Districts send their gifts to the Methodist Children's Home, at Mechanicsburg, Pa.

The custom in past years has been for all of the churches of the District to take their gifts to the respective Homes, and display them, with the various church in their respective classes and districts receiving awards for the best display, the highest value of gifts given by an individual congregation, on a per member basis, and several other awards. This year, however, due to transportation difficulties and war conditions, the display and awarding of prizes will be abandoned, with some of the individual churches holding special displays within their local groups.

According to Dr. E. R. Heckman, superintendent of the Home for Aged, the needs of the Home are greater than ever, but there is every hope that the needs will be met, for at the Booth Festival Service of the Altoona District, held at the Methodist Home recently, the Altoona District exceeded their goal of last year, with every indication that the Williamsport District will do likewise.

Any persons having gifts of food, clothing, bedding, toilet articles, or cash, for this worthy cause, is urged to get in touch with the pastor of their local Methodist Church and arrangements will be made for receiving the gifts.
