Listen, Hunters, and You Shall Hear . . .

With the opening of the small game hunting season on October 30, C. E. Stubbs, Bell Telephone Company employe, observes the occasion with the following bit of poetry: (Ed. Note: We're unable to find out who Mr. Stubbs is, but his poetry isn't bad.)

Listen, ye hunters, and you shall hear
Of a thing which happens this time of year,
When men go out at the break of morn'
To hunt a small game in the shocks of corn.
For some strange reason we know not of,
The birds you hunt all dearly love to fly or sit near a telephone wire—
(Or get one into your line of fire.)
Now when that bird is on the spot,
We know you hate to miss that shot.
But, brother, please, when you see a wire,
Think it over before you fire!
One shot in a cable overhead
And a down telephone line we dread.
A down telephone line we dread,
Carrying words to speed the war!
Calls to war plants from Washington—
Calls to help get a victory won!
Or maybe a call from a soldier lad—
His last call home to Mother and Dad.
Listen, mister, do you call it sport
To cut that soldier's last call short?

SOUL FOR ROMANCE

That some college administrators have a soul for romance is indicated by the dating register lines on cards which on into effect at Parkville, Pennsylvania, this fall. To ascertain men leaving for the service the following day, or out-of-town events, unclass members will be given special permission to remain out of their dormitories until 10 o'clock Sunday evening. Freshmen records will have until 11 o'clock Sunday evening to see fare-well if the best friend is scheduled to leave Monday for service. It's all in the interests of morale, say the administrators.

Couple Celebrate Golden Anniversary

After teaching in the public schools near Bellefonte for two years Mr. Wagner, recognizing a call to the ministry, entered Gettysburg College in 1891 from which he was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in 1895. Three more years of study were spent in Gettysburg Theological Seminary, after which he was ordained to the gospel ministry in St. John's Lutheran church, Bellefonte, in 1893.

They were married at the Hoy Homestead October 25, 1893, by the bride's pastor, Rev. Miles O. Noll, of the R-form church of Bellefonte. Four children blessed their union, Margaret Caroline and Helen Dorothy dying in infancy. Mary Katherine, the eldest, married to Rev. John F. Harkins, D.D., of State College, has given two grandchildren to her parents, John Wayne Harkins, now a student in the Gettysburg Theological Seminary, and William Edward Harkins, a naval ensign stationed in the Hawaiian Islands. The latter was unable to be present for the golden wedding festivities. The son, Rev. John Hoy Wagner pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Housheig, Pa., was married to Irene Griffler of Turbotville, Pa., which union came four grandchildren, Mary Helene, Barbara Louise, John Hoy II, and Katherine Christine.

Brothers and sisters of the couple and well known to Centre county residents are: Gels Wagner, Centre Hall; Mrs. Mary Flink, Centre Hall; Mrs. Ida Kerlin, deceased; Clayton Wagner, Centre Hall, and James Wagner, Herridon; Mrs. Etta Shuey, deceased; Mrs. Anna Polzer, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Minnie Royer, Bellefonte; Henry Hoy, deceased; Jacob Hoy, Bellefonte; Sime Hoy, Bellefonte, and Mrs. Caroline Ely, Carlisle.

Rev. Wagner served for 44 years as an active minister in the Lutheran church in Central Pennsylvania. Parishes to which he was called to minister include Muncy Creek, Glasgow, Buckhorn, New Bloomfield, Pittsgrove, and Boalsburg. In all these fields of labor Mr. Wagner proved himself a sincere servant of the church. He served as president of the conference in which he labored for several years, represented his Synod at annual conventions of the Lutheran church in national assembly on several occasions, and held positions of importance on committees and boards of the church. But above all he was recognized as a beloved pastor.

The last fifteen years of Christian ministry were spent in the Boalsburg pastoral charge. In all these years of usefulness service Mrs. Wagner proved herself a capable and loyal helpmate in the work of the church, directing the work with children, teaching Sunday school classes, leading in the work of women's auxiliaries, and ministering quietly to the unfortunate and needy.

Gifts of flowers, money, and other articles were presented by their host of friends on this glad day. The community felicitates them upon arriving at this significant milestone in life and wishes for them years of continued good health and happiness.

A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

MISSING IN EUROPE

The War Department has notified Oscar W. Dietz of Danville, that his son, 2nd Lieut. George S. Dietz, is missing in action in the European War area.

SICK AID NOTES

A small pasteboard carton covered with a towel or pillow slip and placed under the covers at the foot of the bed may serve several purposes: (1) It helps to keep the patient from slipping down in bed; (2) it will hold the feet in upright position and may therefore prevent "toe-drop"; (3) with hot water bottle, heated brick or hot sack of salt set inside, it is a very comfortable way of providing warmth for the feet.

A leaf from an extension table or any wide board set on chair backs placed at either side of the bed makes a very good bed for the patient.
