SCOTIA

(By H. M. Williams)

Last Saturday was the first day of small game season and there was quite a number of hunters seen in this section, but none that we saw had any birds, most all having cottontails. All that we talked to said that the game seemed to be staying tight to their post and we supposed that this was on account of the weather as it rained about all forenoon.

Well, uncle again, this time it is a girl born on Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beck of Scotia. This is the first girl in the family, the other two being boys. Mrs. Beck is a niece of the writer, which makes him great uncle again.

Visitors at our home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Young and four children of Bush Addition, Bellefonte, who came up to have dinner with dad and mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ghaner and son of Stormstown.

We still have that question to answer many times as we meet people: What are they doing at Scotia? The answer is still—nothing.

Last Saturday we attended the sale of Mrs. Robert Gray at Stormstown, and there were many antiques sold, bringing good prices, as the majority of the people were in the mood to buy antiques. While there we met one of the staff of the Centre Democrat and he has known us for quite a number of years. And when we came to settle for what we bought, the clerk asked, who is Charles Williams. I said that is me. Now, Paul, you know that name is not Charles, but that mistake we will have to blame on Jack, the auctioneer, and we know that Paul will do better the next time.

Buy Defense Bonds now!

JULIAN

So far the game report of Julian stands at one turkey each for Chas. Alexander and Jack Flesher. One may say that Charles shot his turkey in self defense. On the first day of season he was distracted from his work by the sound of wings bringing turkeys to a landing very near his barn, and to eliminate the commotion on his property he secured a gun and shot the leader of the flock.

Mrs. Katie Sones of Port Matilda, was a welcome visitor among friends and relatives in town over the weekend. Katie has many treasured memories in this vicinity this time of year due to the fact that her late husband was one of the greatest turkey hunters Julian ever knew. It is told that on many an occasion he shot two birds with one shot. And that is not just a turkey story.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swisher and family of Clearfield, made a series of short visits among friends and relatives in town over the weekend.

Mrs. Esther Sones has just returned from a short visit with her daughter, Josephine, who lives in Buffalo, N. Y.

Did you know that the Julian Methodist church was erected in the year of 1875 and that the membership numbered thirty-five? The class leader of that time was Levi Woomer, and the preacher was the Rev. Cambridge Graham.

The United Brethren church was built in the fall of 1869 at the cost of $1500, as compared to the cost of the Methodist church, which was $3000. The membership of the Brethren church in 1871 was as low as five members. The trustees were James Morley and John Craig.

MARTHA

We have some exciting news to print this week. Harold Williams is a lucky fellow. Things are always happening to him. While enroute to Philipsburg on one of his usual weekend business trips Harold's attention was won by something near the road in a field just west of Port Matilda. Upon investigation he discovered four deer and one bear. After looking them over very carefully he continued on his way. After completing his business in Philipsburg he returned by the same route and decided to inspect the same field. Believe it or not, he counted thirty deer on the same spot. Knowing Harold as I do and due to the fact that he did not see any bear the second time I can vouch that it was not "hunters tremor" or "alcoholic delirium."

Here's another popular hunting story in the community. Ernest Ardery had the good fortune to shoot a turkey the first day of season but could not retrieve it without the aid of his helper, Don Wilson. Ellery Knarr, who resides on the same property, contributes this misfortune to the fact that the turkey was not tied securely. However, the last statement was not confirmed by Ernest.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Fink were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spackman on Sunday.

Mrs. N. R. Stiver, accompanied by her sons, Elmer and Samuel, and daughters Beatrice and Helene, motored to Altoona on a business and shopping trip last week. They enjoyed the trip in Sam's new car.

Mrs. Julia Chronister Krider has returned to New York after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chronister.

Bernard Williams, Lewis Gill, and Charles Spackman were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Spackman over the weekend. Spackman's are making space in their meat house to store the wild game for these three visitors until they return to Chester.

It is interesting to know that the furnace from which the name Martha was derived employed fifty men. The furnace was established in 1830 and was managed by Roland and James Curtin. James Curtin took up residence at the place now occupied by J. T. Henry. The furnace was in operation from 1830 to 1855.

Miss Jean Bartholomew visited over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ross.

Mrs. Berlin, son, and Dean Smith of Pittsburgh, spent the weekend at the J. Roy Smith home. The men enjoyed part of the time hunting.

J. M. Blauser and wife of near Mechanicsburg, spent a few days at their farm.

The J. E. Noll farm was purchased Saturday by Wilbur Confer. Albert Auman and family of Greenburr, will move on it.

Democracy has its faults but it is far superior to other forms of government and will, in time, prove the salvation of the world.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wabbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates, holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTEETH at any drug store.

The Free Methodist Church was founded in 1860 as a fundamental Biblical organization for the promotion of scriptural Holiness and for the propogation of vital Christianity. We have no fads, no exaggerated notions, just plain old fashioned Christians striving to serve God and our fellow men here below, and aiming to make Heaven our eternal home. We are the newly appointed pastor for Unionville and surrounding territory. We are here to serve you.

REV. DAVID E. JOSEPH, Phone Bellefonte 6495.
