

CENTRE HALL AND VICINITY

WAR FUND DRIVE HERE EXCEEDS $532 QUOTA

The National War Fund Drive went over the top in Centre Hall by nearly three hundred dollars because Coach Edgar Miller's Red Lions out-ran and out-smarted Coach Roy Jamison's Blue Lions as the race drew to a close here Saturday night.

No, the typesetter has not mixed this account with a junior high sports column. The Lions Club in Centre Hall, local sponsors of this War Fund Drive, was organized in the traditional high-school-magazine-campaign manner, even down to a pseudo-thermometer in the First National Bank building to register the rising mercury in red or blue as one team or the other forged ahead.

And what's more, the week's contributions totalled $532.25 in cash! Centre Hall's quota was $532. High scorer for the red team was George Sweeney with collections amounting to more than one hundred dollars to his credit. Dr. H. P. Casper distinguished himself on the blue team by collecting $72. Other leading scorers were Carl Burkholder, Paul Breen and P. P. Henshall.

A crowd of spectators had gathered for the finals Saturday night at midnight at the bank building. Coach Miller paced the floor; Coach Jamison tore his hair. Both teams were their henchmen combing the crowd for hours on the chance that some contributor had been missed, or someone wanted to increase his contribution. Then on the stroke of twelve, Referee Kerlin and Linesman Keener tallied the scores and announced the results: Red, $421.75; Blue, $390.50.

Snolls for the victors in this case will be a ham and egg supper prepared and served to the winning Millerites by the outdone Jamisonmen. Coach Miller and his men have overlooked only one thing in this contest, all the good cooks are on their side!
