

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church: Prayer service this Thursday evening at the home of J. H. Finch, which will be a Thanksgiving prayer service. Sunday school on Sunday morning at 9:30; Youth Fellowship in the evening at 6:30, immediately followed by the regular preaching service at 7:30, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Snyder.

Free Methodist Church: Prayer service Friday evening in the church. Sunday school Sunday morning at 9:30, immediately followed by the regular preaching service at 10:30, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. David Joseph. Young peoples meeting in the evening.

Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones were Mrs. John Lettzel, Mrs. John King and Paul Jones, all of Tyrone, Mrs. Susie Wiser and Patsy Wiser of Port Matilda.

Through numerous requests, Harry

Jones announces that he will do papering and inside painting for persons desiring such work done, just through the winter months, since he will not be available when spring planting and other spring work begins.

Guests to dinner at the home of Mrs. Hazel Barton on Sunday, November 14, were her mother, Mrs. Ida Mae Hoff and son, Hull Lucas of Tyrone, Miss Rose Henderson of Altoona, Miss Georganna Holt of this place, and Ida Mae, Florence, John and Edward Barton. This is a correction to this same item which appeared in last week's issue. Afternoon guests at the Barton home the same day were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Keatley and daughter, Lois Ann, of Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock and sister, Mrs. Grace Foster, were entertained to dinner on Sunday at the home of the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beightol of Howard.

The missionary tea which was held last Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Germain, was a decided success. Persons in attendance enjoyed looking over pictures which were on display, of their childhood days, and other relics and souvenirs which were there, some things which were real antiques and others more modern. Refreshments were served and the committee takes this means of thanking all who attended and helped make the afternoon and evening a success, as well as most hearty thanks to the Germain for their kind hospitality.

Capt. Robert Keeler, who is Chaplain in the U. S. Army stationed at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., arrived in town on Monday, and on Tuesday was accompanied to Aberdeen by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock, who expect to make their home for the present with their daughter and son-in-law, the Keelers, at Aberdeen. We will miss the Bullocks in our community but wish them much success and happiness in their new home, with the hope they will return again. They have sold their home here and stored their furniture until their return.

Mrs. Clark Williams very delightfully entertained the members of the Wi-Mo-Ma-Sis club of the community at her home last Friday evening. Those present were: Mrs. G. W. Bullock, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mrs. J. C. Fox, Miss Kate Smith, Ruth Parsons, Mrs. Louise Stere of this place, and Mrs. Charles Beightol of Howard.

Mrs. J. R. Williams returned home the early part of last week from a short visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fisher and children of Midland, Pa.

Miss Minnie Sensor spent three days last week in the Centre County Hospital for observation and treatment. She is some better since her return and her many friends and neighbors wish for her a most speedy recovery.

Mrs. John Talhelm spent a couple days last week visiting with her and other relatives in Milton. She returned home Friday evening. Harold Bish returned to work at the Titan Metal plant in Bellefonte on Monday, after having been off for the past three months convalescing from a broken leg.

Society Meeting: The regular monthly business meeting and social of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held on Wednesday evening, December 1, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Keatley. The "watch collection" which will be collected at this time, and each person is requested to bring a 10c gift for the Christmas party which will be held after the business session. Let's have a good turnout at this meeting as it is the last meeting of the year and new officers will have charge the next meeting and we want to encourage the newly elected officers. Some of the new officers are Mrs. Clark Williams, president; Miss Ruth Parsons, vice president; Mrs. Kathryn Talhelm, secretary; Mrs. Louise Stere, treasurer; Mrs. Blanchard Holt, secretary of local church activities; Mrs. Margaret Calhoun, sec. missions; Mrs. D. H. Custer, membership chairman; Mrs. Clair Carver, fellowship chairman; Mrs. Orrie Holt, spiritual chairman; Mrs. Carl Flick, music; Mrs. Oletha Lucas, children's work; Mrs. Rosanna Burkholder, literature and publication; Ida Mae Barton, young peoples work.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Announcements have been received in State College and Pine Grove Mills of the recent marriage of Pvt. George H. Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Woods, of Forest Hills, Pittsburgh, to Miss Jane Elizabeth Shallenberger, of Squirrel Hill, Pittsburgh. The wedding took place in the First Baptist church with Rev. Dr. Bernard C. Claugen officiating at the double ring ceremony. A luncheon was served in the Hotel Schenley following the ceremony. Pvt. Woods is a grandson and namesake of the late Dr. George Woods and Mrs. Woods of Pine Grove Mills, and a nephew of the late Cyrus Woods, former U. S. Ambassador to Japan. His grandmother is still living in Pine Grove Mills and was visited by the couple on their honeymoon.

Roy Sunday was a patient at the Centre County Hospital a few days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gilliland will sell their farm equipment in March. Among our best farmers, they will retire for a well deserved rest.

L. and Mrs. N. Ernest Hess of Virginia, and Miss Seta Hess of the RKO in New York City, were pleasant last weekenders at the parental home, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Hess. Our good friend Curt Myers is a surgical patient at the Centre County Hospital. His many friends hope his stay there will be short.

Miss Betty Houck spent several days last week with her close friend, Miss Bonnie Powell of Bostburg. Farmer Samuel Rudy is assisting on the state highway with the erection of the snow fences.

Conrad M. Fry of Altoona, was in Centre county with his friends several days last week. He returned home Friday p. m.

Mrs. Gladys Kunes is now employed at Fred's restaurant in State College.

Mrs. S. Coper Miller of State College, enjoyed a pleasant weekend in the country at the home of the Misses Gertrude and Maud Miller.

Mrs. Emaline Rossman and Mrs. Bertha Albright were in Altoona last Wednesday on a shopping tour and visit to Mrs. R. W. Reed in the Altoona hospital.

Farmer David Heichel and sons enjoyed their annual bear hunt in the Beech Creek section, where they are well acquainted with the bear habits.

Samuel A. Homan represented Baileyville Grange Saturday at the regular meeting in Centre Hall. Mac Musser was a guest Saturday or Billy Potter in Centre Hall.

BLANCHARD

Many of the pupils in the schools here were expecting a vacation on Monday due to a break in the furnace, but they were disappointed as the school bell rang as usual.

Mrs. Walter Lindsey has returned home after spending a month with her husband, who is employed at York. During Mrs. Lindsey's absence her mother, Mrs. Page, stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bechdel.

Miss Evelyn Andrews and girl friend of Tyrone, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John DeHaas. The two Tyrone girls had come to Lock Haven from the football game on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shangraw and family of Corning, N. Y., spent Sunday with Mrs. Shangraw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heverly.

Last Thursday Mrs. John DeHaas accompanied her sister, Mrs. Andrews of Tyrone, on a trip to South Mountain to visit Miss Myrtle Andrews, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mrs. Donald Gardner of Howard, attended the butchering at the Floyd Bechdel home on Tuesday.

Mrs. William Glenn is returning home from Missouri on Tuesday. She had been there with her husband, Pvt. Glenn, who is now en route overseas.

A. D. Gumlach has rented the former Harter garage and has employed a mechanic to keep his equipment in proper condition.

During the past week two local boys in military service, returned home. Earl James received a medical discharge, and John Shilling is also home.

Mrs. Pearl Kunes went to the home of her brother in Ohio for the winter.

Mrs. John Williams was a substitute teacher in 7th and 8th grades for two days last week during the illness of Mr. Kamp, the teacher.

Edward Heverly returned from the Williamsport Hospital Sunday afternoon after undergoing surgical treatment there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mintzer and daughter Bernice of Mill Hall, were Sunday evening callers at the M. C. Bowman home.

Clement Reigh of Bellwood, visited at the R. J. Spangler home on Saturday afternoon.

There will be a special service in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, Dec. 6th. At that time the professor of biology at Lock Haven Teachers' College, will give an illustrated lecture.

We'll, we can be thankful this year that we don't have to worry about which Thanksgiving day to observe.
