

REBERSBURG

Paul Tarbert of Pittsburgh, spent several days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tarbert. The Women's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church entertained the Ladies Aid at a Christmas party last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Reick. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Auman and Mrs. E. R. Wolfe visited Mrs. E. S. Bierly at the Lock Haven Hospital last Tuesday. Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Catherman brought the latter's mother, Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, to her home on Friday after a two weeks' visit with them at their new home in Altoona. Mrs. Catherman spent Friday in Rebersburg while the Reverend visited his mother at Millmont. The public schools of Miles township will have vacation between Christmas and New Years. Cpl. Howard Lamey of Indiantown Gap, spent the weekend at his home in Rebersburg. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lambert of Centre Hall, were Saturday afternoon callers among friends. Mrs. Robert McKissick of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breen and daughter Nancy, of Centre Hall, called at the M. W. Breen home on Saturday afternoon. Thursday evening callers at the same home were:

BLANCHARD

Pvt. Leonard Vangorder, stationed at a field hospital in Virginia, has been visiting his friends here while on furlough. Pvt. Vangorder had been in England for a year and because he is afflicted with asthma he was returned to the states and is now a hospital patient in Virginia. He is on furlough until Jan. 13.

Residents of the western part of town were much excited on Sunday afternoon when a grass fire broke out back of the James Garage and was sweeping ahead of the strong wind. The barns and out-buildings of several families were endangered. All armed themselves with brooms, clubs and buckets and the fire siren called out the fire company. Soon the fire was under control and no damage was done.

The community Christmas Carol Sing on Friday evening sponsored by the Presbyterian church of Beech Creek, was well attended and very inspirational. Interspersed with the carol singing were selections by the children's chorus from the Beech Creek school; duets by Paula and Kent Yeager of Beech Creek; the Blanchard girls' sextet and the Piper Aircraft chorus. The offering was donated to the Christmas Seal fund.

The regular meeting of the W. W. G. of the Baptist church has been postponed until Wednesday, Dec. 29. Russell Bechdel, nephew of Mrs. Mayne Shaw, was in this vicinity during the hunting season. Mrs. William Frey left on Friday for Williamsport, where she spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alton Frey. Walter Lindsey came home from York quite unexpectedly on Sunday for a week's vacation to recuperate from an attack of flu. Mrs. S. S. Williams, teacher at the primary grades of the local school, has been ill during the weekend. In order that the regular school routine would be maintained, Mrs. John Williams was substitute teacher.

CENTRE HALL

(Continued from page two) The Young People's Missionary Circle of the Evangelical church met Thursday evening at the parsonage with these members present besides the Rev. and Mrs. W. K. Hosterman: Misses Lillian Rickert, Betty Johnson, Betty Sweeney, Anna M. Whitman, Janet Runkle, Lela Butler and Lorna Jane Hosterman, Mrs. Reuben S. Rickert and Mrs. Harold Stitzer. "A Christmas Dream," the pageant being prepared by the Evangelical, Methodist and Presbyterian churches will be presented Sunday evening, December 26 at 7:30 o'clock in the Methodist church.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

No king was so proud and mighty that he did not deem it fitting that he himself should travel to see the child. No gift in royal coffers was so rich or so rare that it could be withheld as an offering to this blessed babe. So kings came from many lands. They came and knelt, bestowing gifts, before Mary, Joseph and the Christ child.

So the world's riches was laid at the feet of the infant Jesus. But as He grew in stature and wisdom, worldly things became of diminishing worth to Him; and more and more zealously He sought the simple beauty in men's souls. Then, when the words of God were spoken to Him, He forsook all values less than Faith and Love and Honor, and these became His philosophy . . . religion . . . teaching.

This Christmas commemorates the date of His birth—not without sadness. For if His spirit were truly in men's hearts the dark veil of war and intolerance would be lifted from us, and brotherly love would be the only dictator of men's deeds.

This Christmas, let there be a prayer in our hearts that His word will be re-heard and remembered around the world; and that it will leave an unfading echo of the soul-satisfying stillness of peace. With this thought in mind, your everyday friends and neighbors the Wolf Furniture Company and Employes offer their heartfelt wishes for a Merry Christmas.
