WOODSMAN, 73, Is Fatally Stricken

Children on their way to school about 8:30 a. m. noticed him but believed he was waiting for someone. About 9 o'clock Boyd Mueser, of Millheim, passing the spot, noticed Mr. Confer and seeing that he appeared ill stopped and took him home. He failed to respond to treatment, and died a few hours later.

Mr. Confer was a son of Peter S. and Susanne Breen, Confer and was born in Gregg township on January 31, 1871. His wife, the former Abbie Schreckengast, preceded him in death. Surviving are two children, Mrs. James F. Custer of Centre Hall, and Paul G. W. Confer of Erie. Also surviving are two sisters and a brother, Mrs. L. P. Smith and Elmer Confer, both of near Spring Mills, and Mrs. Arthur Bedylyon, of Lewistown.

Funeral services will be held at the Neff Funeral Home in Millheim at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, with Rev. R. A. Babcock officiating. Interment will be made in the Georges Valley cemetery.

Paralysis Group Prepares Appeal
of us—we fight it together. The funds raised in this campaign in previous years have amplified for polio victims, the meaning of such words as "hope," "rehabilitation" and "livelihood."

The demands upon local chaplains make imperative immediate replenishment, if such complete aid is to be assured infirmity victims today and in the future. Schools, fraternal and civil organizations, commerce and industry, labor, A. F. L., C. I. O. and the railroad brotherhoods are planning to support the campaign as in the past.

Theatres all over the county will begin their March of Dimes program, January 24.

Here for the first time is presented the certified public accountant's audit of funds raised in 1943, for Centre and nearby counties.
