

LOCALS

Jack H. Yeager, of North Spring street, spent last week in New York City on a combined business and pleasure mission.

William Brachbill, of South Spring street, during the weekend departed for New York City to attend the annual furniture exposition.

Harry McElwain last Tuesday returned to his home in Unionville from the Centre County Hospital where he had been under observation and treatment.

Mrs. James Hartman returned to her apartment on Blanchard street recently from a several weeks' visit with her husband, Pvt. Hartman, who is stationed at Camp Reynolds, near Greenville.

Frank Ray, seaman second class, early last week returned to his duties aboard a warship after spending a three-day leave of absence with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray, of Halfmoon Terrace.

Miss Anna Montgomery early last week returned to Washington, D. C., to continue her training at Providence Hospital after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hassell Montgomery, of East Lynn street.

Mrs. Esther Schach, of East Curtin street, is spending some time with friends in Johnsonburg.

Miss Lorraine Campbell, of West Lamb street, spent last week in Lock Haven attending in the telephone office in that city. Miss Campbell is an employee of the Bellefonte exchange.

Lt. Kenneth H. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harris of Lamar, who was stationed at Camp Ord, Cal., was transferred from Camp San Joaquin, Cal. Lt. Harris is the husband of the former Virginia Thomas of North Thomas street, and a nephew of Mrs. Perry Alters of East High street, Bellefonte.

Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Robert D. Baird are the parents of a son, weighing eight pounds two ounces, born in the Centre County Hospital Monday evening of last week. Mrs. Baird is the former Jean Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Alexander of Park avenue, State College. Lt. Baird is stationed at a naval base near Atlantic City.

Mrs. Mary Glenn and Miss Annette Decker early last week returned to their homes in Bellefonte from Camp Blending, Florida, where they had visited since Christmas Day with the former's husband, Capt. Guy H. Cleun. They were accompanied home by Mrs. C. Nelson Stamm, of North Spring street, who had been visiting relatives in North Carolina.

George W. Sunday, well known Bellefonte tailor, on Tuesday of last week returned from the Veterans' Hospital at Aspinwall where he had been undergoing observation and treatment for several weeks. Although his general condition is improved, the ailment which caused loss of vision in one eye has not been corrected and Sunday is at his home on Pine street.

A. C. James M. Thompson, son of Rev. and Mrs. William C. Thompson, of North Allegheny street, Saturday arrived here from Maxwell Field, Ala., where he has completed his pilot's pre-flight training course. Cadet Thompson, who entered the Air Force last May, will return to Maxwell Field early next week and from there expects to be sent to a primary flight school somewhere in the southeast.

Cpl. Donald Johnson, of North Camp Polk, La., is here for a 15-day furlough with his wife, the former Elizabeth Rightmire, and their young daughter, Judy Lee, at the home of Mrs. Johnson's mother in Boalsburg. Cpl. Johnson, former member of the Bellefonte police force, also is spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Anna Johnson, of Valentine street, and with other relatives in Bellefonte.

David Friedman, of Detroit, Mich., son of Jacob Friedman, of East Curtin street, recently called for service and on Monday went to Ft. Sheridan, Mich., to begin training. During his absence his wife, the former Margaret Jane Heshley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Heshley, of Snow Shoe, who had been with him in Detroit, will divide her time between her parents and the Friedman family here.

Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Warren Olsen, of Escabach, Mich., Saturday arrived in Bellefonte for a brief visit with Mrs. Olsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Bloomquist and family, of East Bishop street, today, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen expect to go to New Haven, Conn., for a several days' visit with friends before going to Washington, D. C., where Mrs. Olsen will occupy an apartment while her husband is undergoing three months' course at a Naval gunnery school.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Wright, of Williamsport, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Wright, of Willowbank street. Melvin Wright, who had been employed at the Pennsylvania Ordnance Works at White Deer Valley near Williamsport, in November enlisted in the Navy and has been sworn in. He is awaiting a call to report for training. During his absence his wife will reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Grenoble, at Lock Haven.

The Junior Section of the Bellefonte Woman's Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. William Smith, on East Bishop street, with Mrs. Elmer Bryant as co-hostess. A total of sixteen members were present. Plans were made for a card party to be held on February 17 in the high school cafeteria, with bridge and five hundred being scheduled and with prizes to be awarded. Tickets for the party have been distributed among members of the club and are now on sale. Proceeds will be used to help fill the kits being prepared for soldiers going overseas.

Bossart DeHaas and Marlin Rumberger, of the DeHaas store, spending the forepart of this week attending a furniture show in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wagner, of South Allegheny street, are spending this week in New York City purchasing spring merchandise for the J. B. Wagner store.

Cpl. Luther Stover, of Gardner Field, Taft, Cal., arrived here Saturday to spend a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Stover, of East Howard street.

Cpl. Leonard R. Glenn, Jr., of Ft. Knox, Ky., early last week arrived in Centre County to spend a ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard R. Glenn, in Milesburg.

Joseph Forster, of East Bishop street, last Thursday went to Montclair, having been called there because of the death of his father, Philip Forster. Funeral services were held Saturday.

Samuel D. Rhinesmith resumed his duties at the Titan Metal Company offices this week after having been confined to his home on East Bishop street for three weeks because of an attack of influenza.

Mrs. Franklin Gryetko departed last Thursday for Nashville, Tenn., to join her husband, Lt. Gryetko, who is stationed at Camp Roberts, Ill. Gryetko came to Bellefonte for the holidays after the former had completed his training at Terrell, Texas.

The Bellefonte Mothers' Club will meet at 8 o'clock this Thursday night, January 13, at the home of Mrs. Jacob Friedman, on East Curtin street, with Mrs. Arthur Hewitt and Mrs. Paul M. Dubbs, as co-hostesses. The program will include a discussion of current events.

Mrs. Pearl K. Butterworth last week returned to her home in Williamsburg after having spent the holidays in Bellefonte with her mother, Mrs. John L. Knisely, of South Thomas street. Mrs. Butterworth's husband, Capt. J. G. Butterworth, is with the armed forces in England.

Mrs. Harry DeLozier, of Willowbank street, last Thursday went to Altoona to be with her father, Frank T. Salene, who is a patient in the Altoona hospital receiving treatment for injuries suffered in a recent fall. Mr. Salene, who is 84, is reported to be in serious condition.

Mrs. Walter Nellis and daughter, Mrs. Dale Williams, returned Sunday to their home on East Bishop street from a 12-day visit with the former's son, Kenneth Nellis, who is stationed at Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Williams' husband who accompanied the women to Bellefonte, returned to his duties yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tressler and family recently moved from one of the Schad houses on North Allegheny street to the Walter Schad house on the same street. The Schad property was recently vacated by the Alexander Brown family. The house taken by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lyons and family, who moved there from North Water street.

Pvt. Jack Mabius on Monday returned to his duties at Warrington, Va., after spending a three-day furlough with his wife and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Mabius, all of Pine street. Pvt. Mabius came here from Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., where he had completed a technical course. Before entering the service he was employed at the Harris Funeral Home on East Howard street.

Mr. and Mrs. David K. Hughes and daughter, Anne, of Bethlehem, and Mr. Hughes' sister, Miss Flo Hughes, of Pittston, and Fremont Third Class, William Hughes, of Great Lakes, Ill., were recent guests of relatives and friends in Bellefonte. They spent some time with Seaman Hughes' wife, the former Isabelle Miller, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, of Bush Addition.

Among those from out-of-town who were here last Thursday to attend the funeral of Rev. C. C. Shuey of Bellefonte, were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Donachy and daughter, Sarah Eloise, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donachy and son, all of Kingston; Dr. and Mrs. W. R. North and son, Bobby, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Whiting, of Louisville, Ky.; and Mrs. W. T. Twinnire, Mr. and Mrs. John Brachbill and son, John C. Brachbill, all of Williamsport.

Harry McMullen, of Milesburg, was taken to Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, last Thursday for treatment of his ailment. He is undergoing a check-up. Mr. McMullen, injured over a year ago while working in the Warner Company mines, was brought home the following day after surgeons found that a bone-splicing operation performed some months ago is healing nicely. The patient, who is now at home, is scheduled to return to the hospital in 30 days at which time it is believed that a cast enveloping both legs and the lower part of his body may be removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay I. Schlegel, of Bellefonte, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Genevieve, yeoman 3/c, and Pvt. Richard Baird, of Hagerstown, Md. The bride-elect is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1941 and Huntingdon Business School. For one year she was employed in the offices of the Viscose Company at Lewistown until enlisting in the WAVES last August 25. After taking basic training at Hunter College she was sent to the Navy Yeoman School at Cedar Falls, Iowa, where she completed her course late in November. She is now stationed at Bainbridge, Md. Pvt. Baird is a graduate of the Hagerstown High School and attended a university in Maryland. He enlisted for service and took part of his training at Penn State. He is now stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Aberdeen, Md. No date has been set for the wedding.

Noel Evans and sister, Mrs. Mary Ames, of Baltimore, Md., were weekend guests of Mrs. C. E. Gates, of North Spring street.

Vincent Bauer spent the weekend in New York City with her husband, Seaman Bauer, who recently completed his preliminary naval training at Sampson, N. Y., and is now awaiting a new assignment.

Mrs. Joseph Bertram, of Spring Creek, has accepted a position as nurse at the Centre County Hospital and has begun her duties there. Mrs. Bertram's daughter, Virginia, also is a member of the hospital nursing staff.

Pvt. and Mrs. Steve Rodavich, of Camp Claiborne, La., during the weekend arrived in Bellefonte for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Rodavich is the former Helen Kelsky, daughter of Albert Kelsky, of East Bishop street.

A meeting of the Drama Section of the Bellefonte Woman's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Leslie Thomas, South Thomas street, on Wednesday, December 19 at 8 o'clock. Co-hostesses will be Miss Ellen Hassinger and Mrs. Wallace J. Ward.

Charles M. Ray returned Friday to his post of duty at Camp Campbell, Ky., after spending a brief furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray, of Asemann, Pa. We are glad to report that Mrs. Ray is recovering from her recent illness which kept her confined to her home.

Mrs. Betty Hoy Theist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian D. Hoy, of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday for an indefinite visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sinie H. Hoy, at their home on South Thomas street. Mrs. Theist's husband, Lt. Theist, is a member of the Air Corps and is now on active duty in Italy.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Confer, of Bellefonte, Pa., that their son, Sgt. Ronald E. Confer and wife, of Honolulu, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Charles Menach, son of Mrs. Bessie Menach, of North Allegheny street, last Thursday received a promotion from Lieutenant, junior grade, to the rank of Lieutenant. Lt. Menach is public relations officer for the Sea-Bees, construction battalion of the Navy, at Camp Peary, Va. Before entering the service he was editor of The Keystone Gazette in Bellefonte.

Miss Anna Dorworth, who had been at Mr. W. Dorworth's family home on East Lynn street since before the Christmas holidays, Tuesday departed for Philadelphia to resume her former duties at the Chestnut Hill laboratories where she is employed as a research chemist. Miss Dorworth, who is employed in government work, had been working in California from June until December when she returned east for the holiday season.

Following upon Tuesday night's surprise blackout, local Civilian Defense officials yesterday announced that a control center drill will be held Saturday night, in which only Civilian Defense personnel will participate. There will be no public participation. From 7 to 8 p. m. Saturday, an inspection will be made of equipment and personnel, and from 8 to 10 p. m. planned incidents will be staged. All fire equipment, air raid wardens and others who normally participate in all alerts are expected to be on duty. Control personnel are expected to man their posts. The drill is nation-wide in scope.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Miller, of Bellefonte, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Annabelle, and Cadet Francis J. McKinley, son of Clair McKinley, of Reynolds avenue, Bellefonte. McKinley attended the Bellefonte High School and is living at home. Mr. McKinley is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School, class of 1941, and enlisted in the Army Air Forces in November, 1942. Cadet McKinley trained at Sioux Falls, S. D., Miami Beach, Fla., and Seymour-Johnson Field, N. C. He is now stationed at Yale University, where he expects to be commissioned in March. No date has been set for the wedding.

At a family dinner held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eyer, on East Bishop street, announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Betty, and Petty Officer M. Lewis Newman, son of Mrs. George Newman, of Milesburg. Miss Eyer is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1942, and since then has been employed in the offices of the billing department of the Titan Metal Company. Petty Officer Newman, a parachute rigger, 2/c, is a 1942 graduate of the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1941, and attended Gettysburg College for one year. He then enlisted in the Navy and took "boot" training at Newport, R. I., and completed a parachute rigger's course at Lakehurst, N. J. He is at present stationed at Clinton Naval Air Station, Clinton, Okla., where he will return at the end of a 15-day visit at his parents' home. No date has been set for the wedding. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Eyer and daughter, Betty, others at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. George Newman and son, M. Lewis Newman, all of Milesburg.

The Misses Evelyn Eyer and Fern Cary of Moshannon, were callers at our office on Monday while in town on a shopping mission.

Mrs. Harold B. Heisk of Bellefonte, who is vacationing in Miami Beach, was a guest this week at a box party at the horse races at Tropical Park. Her hostess was Mrs. G. M. Jennings of Miami Beach.

Mrs. Edward Green and son Robert, of Bellevue, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte Monday afternoon en route to Millheim to attend the funeral, Tuesday, of Mrs. Green's sister, Vera Emerick, of Millheim.

Anthony DeLallo, of Camp Hill, and Frank Johns, of Marysville, both custodian officers at the State Industrial School at White Hill, near Harrisburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. DeLallo's mother, Mrs. Flora DeLallo and family, of East Beaver street.

The American Home department of the Bellefonte Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. Widdowson, Allegheny street, at 2 p. m. Monday, January 17. Bridge and 500 will be played. A charge of twenty-five cents per person will be used toward paying for food dehydrator. Each member is asked to bring a guest. Refreshments will be served and prizes given.

The condition of Arthur Thomas, of Thomas street, Bellefonte, who recently became seriously ill while en route by automobile to Arizona, where it was hoped the climate would benefit his health, is a patient in a sanitarium in Ft. Payne, Alabama. Three physicians are reported to be trying to build up his strength sufficient for him to stand a return trip to Bellefonte. Plans for the trip to the west have been abandoned upon their advice. Mrs. Thomas, who accompanied him on the trip, is with him in Alabama.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

Mrs. Joseph P. Marcelonis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gumsalus, of North Thomas street, is now making her home in Evansville, Indiana, in order to be near her husband, S. Sgt. Marcelonis, who is stationed at nearby Camp Breckinridge, Ky. Sgt. Marcelonis will soon complete three years in the Army, having volunteered for duty in October 1940, and entering the service January 22, 1941. He left Bellefonte with the second contingent to go into the service.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Over Thirty Thousand Persons Read These Columns

Every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived from its use, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Center.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisements contain more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged. REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat whose subscription is paid up to date, is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. Otherwise the subscriber will be charged the regular advertising rate. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

FOR SALE—70 bushels corn ears. Mrs. Joe Bertram, Bellefonte, Pa. D. 1. (Spring Creek). 2517

FOR SALE—Man's bear skin overcoat (size 42). Phone 1411, Beech Creek, Pa. M. C. DeHaas. 2517

FOR SALE—Electric Victorias. Inquire of Ernest Long, Bellefonte, R. D. 1. (Coleville). Phone 2124. 2517

FOR SALE—1936 Dodge four-door sedan with good tires. Should have $250 cash. Phone 2686 Millheim, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—Size 3 girl's pink snow suit. Worn only several times. Mrs. Edward Young, Pike street, Bellefonte, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1934 Terraplane coupe with all good tires. The first $75 cash takes it. Inquire at Post Office, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—Hard coal, all sizes. Also canned and soft coal. Phone 766. C. F. Right, South Water street, Bellefonte, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1939 Chevrolet dump truck with a wooden bed and a steel bed. Good tires. Orlando Conaway, Snow Shoe, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1932 Oldsmobile sedan. In good running order. Five extra good 600-17 tires. Price $150. Paul F. Ganser, Stormstown, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—A new DeLaval Sterling milk unit complete, never used. Inquire of Frank M. Bitner, R. D. 1 Mill Hill, Pa. Phone 1012. 2517

FOR SALE—2 Letz hopper plate mills (new) with blowers type baggers. Certificate required. Engard Service Station, Spring Mills, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1941 Super Buick four-door sedan, low mileage, five good tires, radio, heater, color dark green. Palmer C. Bieri, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1939 Buick special four-door sedan. Color black. Good mechanical condition. Phone 2686 Millheim. Bieri's Garage, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—Burrough's adding machine in good condition. Capacity 999999. Have radio receiver. Need only one. Post Office, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1941 Buick special sedan, 15,000 miles, all five tire excellent. Car merely broken in. Will accept $100. Bieri's Garage, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1940 Buick special four-door sedan. Color black. Five good tires. Good looking car. $675 cash buy it. No trade in. Bieri's Garage, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—Two adding machines, electric bookkeeping, hand truck, double end trim saw. O. W. House Lumber Co., State College, Pa. Phone 702. 2517

FOR SALE—1938 Chevrolet Master four-door sedan. Radio, heater, snow light. Good tires. Good mechanical condition. Phone 2686 Millheim. Bieri's Garage, Rebersburg, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—1936 Graham four-door sedan. Very good condition. Both tires and motor. Has radio and heater. Priced to sell quickly. Leave note to Hotel. Clarence W. Bieri, Millheim, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—Home-grown onions. Most all sizes. AC speak plugs. 60¢ each in sets of four or more. 1 pair new small red pull over boots, size 12, price $2.40. Scarce smokers. Buy now. Harry Stiver, R. D. 2, Johnson, Pa. Closed Thursday afternoons. 2517

BURIAL VAULTS—Be sure it is a Dunlap reinforced concrete burial vault when you must choose one. Made by Dunlap Brothers for the past twenty years and sold direct to you. Delivered anywhere in Centre County. Telephone Bellefonte 502. 2423 or 2765. 2517

FOR SALE—3 Rumbley oil pull tractor, 30-50 h. p. 1 Case tractor, 20-40 h. p. These tractors are in good mechanical shape and just the kind that you want for $475. 1 1/2-foot blizzard sio filler with shredder bars for dry fodder, in good shape. Engard Service Station, Spring Mills, Pa. 2517

FOR SALE—Just received shipment new John Deere tractors, Model B on rubber 10-38 tires. Used Model H tractor on rubber. Hammermill; 25-foot price $240. 2-row cultivator; set John Deere plow; disk harrow; ponies from 42 to 48 inches; Plymouth coupe; Chevrolet four-door sedan; Buick; Packard; Pullman, Pa. Phone 478-J. 2517

Wanted to Buy—