

ADLER Looks at the NEWS

THE JAPS are conducting a War Bond drive too. Their bonds sell for $25 and when they reach maturity if still alive the purchaser gets back NURSES at the Margaret Hague Hospital, Jersey City, where Frank Sinatra, Jr., was just born, say Jr. already has a better voice than Sr. -you can hear him all over the hospital-without a microphone.

come Papa Sinatra is drawing to-day, Junior will probably be the first baby on record diapered with

THE ARMY has asked gals who want to remember their overseas Valentines to send their greetings now. It's getting so a gal has to put borough council upset by a recount her sentiments in writing so far in advance she can't be fickle any-table delicacy. Hope Superman doesn't hear about this.

FLORIDA hairdressers want wo-men to "Leave the Lid Off," claiming hair-do's look better than bon-nets. A lot of politicians will be in style this season-with their hats in the ring too!

KING CHRISTIAN of Denmark, confined to his palace by illness, was approached by a Copenhagen Quisling with the suggestion he form a pro-Nazi puppet gov't. "No-" snapped the king, "I've only got somewhen he collects them at the end of manding officer of Hendricks field. a work-day immediately scans the Seven of the dead were officers marred-he knows he's got an hon- plane was on a training flight, est-to-injun worker on his hands.

used by the, underworld and will ablaze as it roared over their houses ship them to the underground over- shortly before the crash.

GERMANY'S announcement that Count Ciano. Mussy's son-in-law. Mine Accident not be just a rumor. Both he and Mussy have been reported dead so often they sound like 9-lived cats— though we know they're rats.

to see the man who robbed our cuse last night." "Why, want to beat him up?" "Hell no. I want to find out how he got into the house without waking up my wife!

just freezing to death.

FOOD prices are so high in Mi- lately rushed to the hospital.

AGAIN I repeat-Buy A Bond and Let's make This a Grand and Glor-

MERCANTILE TAX OUT

taxes are still due and can be paid through county treasurers.

LOCK HAVEN PLANT RULING The Regional War Labor Board last week granted standard voluntary maintenance of membership to the Dye and Chemical Workers son, of Lock Haven, from first lieu-Federal Union (AFL) for 115 em- tenant to captain in the field arployes at the Lock Haven plant of tillery, has been announced by the the American Aniline Products, Inc. War Department.

SECOND SECTION

he Centre Democrat

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 1944.

NEWS, FEATURES

NUMBER 3

For Court Trial

Defendant and 13-Year-Old

Accomplice Arrested

For Burglary

the next term of Clinton county apartment of Mrs. Viola Probst.

VOLUME 63.

Clinton County Court Reverses Result of Mill

and things, and the tremendous in- Judge Rules First Count of Vote on Councilmen Must Stand, Because Petitioners Failed to Act Within Time

> Saturday's Lock Haven Express within 20 days after the municipal contained the following sequel to election. last week's account of Mill Hall's of the vote: Although "manifest error" STEVE DUTTON. America's old- Hall Borough Council election, Judge Board of Mill Hall Borough, alest crook died in N. Y this week at Henry Hipple ruled this morning though there was manifest error. the age of 103. To prove Crime that the returns as originally made Since the petitioners deposited cash Doesn't Pay, Dutton was buried in Petter's Field. SCIENTISTS predict sea-weed count by the County Election Board the petitioners are entitled to the

> Tyrone Flier Dies In Crash

Victim Was One of Ten Men Killed at Texas Training Field thing wrong with my leg, not with Mrs. Olive Decker, Tyrone, R. D. 3, ford A. Miller, R., 154 and Lewis E. was one of ten men killed when a Straub. R., 161. Flying Fortress from Hendricks field. As a result of the recount on Jan.

A FRIEND of mine, running a de- crashed last Thursday while circling 7, Archey received 167, Glock 164, fense plant, has an uncanny meth- for a landing at the Fort Worth, Maurer 157, Wolfe 153, Beck 177, od of detecting the workers from Texas, army air field.

the shirkers. He distributes free The announcement was made by copies of a morning tabloid and Colonel Warren W. Higgins, com crossword puzzle feature. If it's un- and three were enlisted men. The At Fort Worth, persons living near CLEVELAND police have gather- the field said one motor and the ed several hundred guns formerly right wing section of the plane were Crushed by Wheels After He Klobe was driving the automobile L. Stein's furniture warehouse; seas for use against the Nazi mob- The big ship barely missed the sters. The rod is mightier than the roof of a residence, passed under high tension wires and plowed into

Results Fatally

WEEK'S Favorite Gag: "I'd like Houtzdale Citizen Dies in the Philipsburg Hospital From Injuries

WITH priorities and scarcities of Saturday morning about 10 o'clock ision, his train operating from Al-was wearing a blue suit. That's no on a coal cutting machine. His arm siding in Juniata for many years. "blue suit." I was told, that guy's was caught in the mechanism, se- Surviving are the widow, one bro- be recovering from wounds received verely injuring him. He was immed- ther, George Sliffer, of Dayton, O.; ami even the restaurant owners Born in North Philipsburg, Mr. Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Lillie have to go to Tampa-they can't af- Gallo was the son of Paul Gallo, Sykes, of Endicott, N. Y. ford to eat in their own establish- Sr. He followed mining as an occupation and two years ago moved to Houtzdale

Besides his wife, whose maiden name was Margaret Rowland, and three small children, Mary, Bertha and George, Jr., he is survived by the following brothers and sisters Pennsylvania merchants were re- Sue Gallo, at home with the father, minded by Revenue Secretary David North Philipsburg; Mrs. John Sher-W. Harris the 1943 Legislature abol- okey, Cleveland; Mrs. Steve Bunished the state mercantile license yak, Grassflat; John Gallo, North the family plot. Houtzdale.

Is Made Captain.

Promotion of George Thomas Wil-

Hall Election Recount

The opinion delivered by the court goes on to say "there was no fraud of any kind committed in the comfound in the recount of the Mill putation of votes by the Election act within five days after the official ted in the computation of the votes, may take the place of spinach as a and that no contest was instituted return of the money deposited by

> The petitioners are Bruce Fryer Charles J. DeHaas and George J Yarnell.

As a result of the court's decision those originally certified as elected will take their seats on the council. They are E. M. Archey, D., M. C. Glock, D., Melvin Maurer, D., and C. S. Beck, R. When the official returns were counted, they gave Archey 171 votes, Glock 165. Maurer 169, A. N. Wolfe, D., 154, Beck Sergeant Dorsey F. Decker, son of 166, John W. Leonard, R., 155, Clif-

Leonard 161, Miller 165, Straub 170, (Continued on page Two)

Conductor Dies Under His Train

is Jolted From Empty

Charles F. Sliffer, 64. of Amiata, he was jolted from a car and run port hospital for treatment. over while making up a train of empty cars at the Riley shaft, Barn-

As the car Conductor Sliffer was riding went over a switch the trucks left the rail and smashed into another car, jolting the man from his

George Gallo, of Houtzdale, died son branch of the Pittsburgh div-

two sisters, Miss Emma Sliffer,

ODD AND CURIOUS

Poor Insurance.

through it all.

Hint, or an Order?

New signs posted on advertising placards of Savannah buses advise "The rear end of this bus should arrive at your destination simultaneously with the forward section. (They are hitched together) so please move to the rear now."

Ripping Good Time

Henry Butler of Jacksonville, Fla., was eating breakfast the other morning when a buzz saw ripped through the side of his house, sliced the breakfast table in two and then prises of the iron industry of Centre such as ore, coal, flux and the railcounty is contained in the report roads and waterways. But it seems to the Centennial Commission, enas though someone missed an optitled Trees Making in Perpendicular of the line industry had his aunt, Mrs. Theresa Frame, 14 or law and made a good judge during of the new district.

Christmas Gift Year Late

In this term three new lawyers who both became Centennial Commission, enTron Making in PennsylTron Making in PennsylTro Addresses should not be the country. These farmers would earn quite a bit of banks where there is limestone the ore runs a little least in precentage and also the ore in the limestone is in smaller pockets than that found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

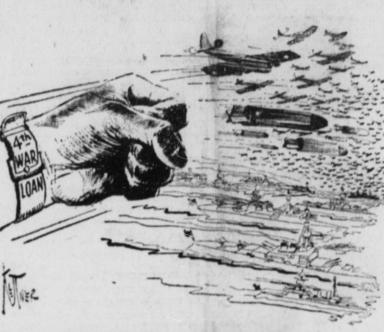

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found elsewhere.

Many of the old ore banks were shandlored about the time of the found earn quite a bit of the powder is dusted along back with Judge Love before his clevative was a brother of colonel Keller and the to the because shand to turn to the bench, and his great admirer thereafter. He acted as Respiblican county chairman but was a brideria and the to turn to the bench, and his great admirer thereafter. He acted as Respiblican county chairman but was a brother of the found the rocesing the Penn State cambulation county chairman but was a brother of the leaves the with to turn to the bench, and his great admirer thereafter. He acted as Respiblican county chairman but was a brother of the leaves where they run.

Addresses switten on letters to determinate the winter who as a bait, and liek it off their feath with Judge Love before the ministry, but the elimination the below the winth who the bull of the els

The Knockout Blow

Neck Is Injured In Motor Crash

to Loganton, Hurt When Car Upsets

ident, received a fractured vertebrae overheated furnace at 39 Bellefonte of the neck Wednesday morning of avenue, Lock Haven, threatened an last week when the car in which she entire block as three business buildwas riding with her husband upset ings, a rear warehouse, garage and on the icy highway at the Lime- three second-story homes were serstone church below Rauchtown, jously damaged by fire Tuesday. Esabout ten miles from Loganton. Mr. and Mrs. Klobe were travel- $20,990.

ing toward Loganton to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Snook, into an embankment.

conductor for the Pennsylvania the scene for Loagnton to get help, land, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Duffy. Railroad company, was killed Wed- returned promptly and the injured nesday morning of last week when woman was taken to the Williams-

Pvt. Joseph O'Leary

in the North African area, and who his master's office.

NAB PAIR IN STOLEN CAR his brother, Nicholas, a soldier, said to have been AWOL since Christ- lifted the door and released him. mas, were driving a sedan owned by the Rev. J. M. Pheasant of Thompsontown, when they were captured while enroute west. Police said the kept in the yard as insurance, slept the hospital the two drove away in in Williamsport. his car cessive.

REFUND ORDERED

$20,000 Fire Loss

Has Narrow Escape From Death

Mrs. Glenn L. Klobe, 34, of Mont-gomery, R. D., former Loganton res-last week, supposedly started by an timated loss will amount to at least Buildings which were damaged by the blaze were the Anthony Reitwhen the accident occurred. Mr. ano fruit market and warehouse; E. when it struck a stretch of ice, skid- storage room full of canned goods ded and rolled over on its right side rented by Ernest Pierce; a garage of ato an embankment. the owner, W. M. Bickford, and the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin O'-Pennsylvania Ordnance Works, left Toole, Mr. and Mrs. George High-time the electric light was out and

Two Wilkes-Barre youths were ar- that he was unable to lift a large

HELD FOR STABBING GIRL

TO GET GOODRICH PLANT The State Department of Com-

The State College Borough Water merce has disclosed that the B. F. Authority has been directed by the Goodrich Company is planning for week's dinner which was presided trating the last page, scratching his living with her for the past four Public Utility Commission to refund the establishment of manufacturing over by the Council president. The chest. $1.414 to out-of-borough consumers operations at DuBois, to make pro- dinner was prepared and served by who complained charges were ex- ducts in which rubber and textiles the Red Cross Canteen Corps of are used.

Lock Haven Has

Montgomery Woman, Enroute Worker in Auto Repair Shop

Three Lock Haven fire companies Juniata Valley Council of Boy said that they took five one-dollar claims Peace Now had its counterought the blaze and kept flames Scouts of America at the annual bilis and a five-dollar one. from setting fire to surrounding meeting held last Wednesday night. It was reported that Mrs. Shirk Didn't Raise My Boy to be a Solbuildings which include the Gru-gan hardware store, the St. Luke's High School building. More than 100 the police chief was looking for her. Sawyer declared. Reformed church parish house, and Scouters and their guests attended She called and revealed her resi- CELERY subsequently was located by the Although no one was injured, speaker at the program held in the RAILROADER SUFFERS BURNS saw in markets was pure white and auditorium was Thomas M. Stock- Lloyd Irwin, 33, of Tyrone, R. D. a stalk two inches in diameter was merchandise, next summer ought to at the Philipsburg State hospital, toons to Barnesboro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of Harrisburg, chairman of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, was trapped for a time in ham of the Last Alborro. He left his pital, has arrived at Ashford Gen- ployes, merchandise, next summer ought to be a great season for the Nudist Colonies. They need only bare necessities.

Colonies. They need only bare necessities.

I VISITED a nudist camp once and wondered why a certain chap wondered who a certain chap wondered why a certain chap wondered who wondered why a certain chap wondered who wondered the fire in the basement of the building for his run. Other speakers were Clyde M. White Sulphur was injuried sunday wondered the fire in the basement of the building for in the basement of the building for in the basement of the building for in the base Pvt. O'Leary, who has three brothers in the service, is believed to the cellar but by that there in the service, is believed to the cellar but by that istown, Scout executive.

Huntington, Council Scout Commising technical and was attempted to the cellar but by that istown, Scout executive.

Huntington, Council Scout Commising technical and was attempted to the cellar but by that istown, Scout executive.

rested on Cresson mountain last steel door which opens onto the activities of men in their business Tuesday night by state police on sidewalk in front of the building. charges of stealing a motor vehicle. He found a piece of wood and beat cis P. Davis, rector of St. John's Harry Delozier of Bellefonte, died The two, William Cromley, 22, and on the door, succeeding in attract- Episcopal church, Bellefonte, and a Friday morning at the home of a ing attention. Several bystanders member of the Muncy district com- son, Lewis Saleme, in Altoona. He sun. When they covered the stalk

George Bailey, 29, of Williamsbrothers were hitch-hiking near port, was held on a charge of sec-Three prisoners escaped from the Thompsontown when they were ond degree murder in the death of Bowman, Lewistown, treasurer; W tax and none will be collected for Philipsburg; Michael and Andrew, Joliet, Ill., county jail by sawing picked up by Rev. Pheasant, who Miss Ruth Butler. 23. Elmira. Miss H. Passmore, State College, Scout through steel bars, smashing a plate took them into Lewistown, and ask- Butler was stabbed about 15 times Services were held Wednesday af- glass window, running across the ed them to wait in his car while he with a jackknife in what police deternoon from the Lutheran church prison yard and scaling an 18-foot visited a parishioner patient in a scribed as a "lovers' guarrel." The at Houtzdale. Burial was made in wall. Two German shepherd dogs, hospital. While the minister was in Butler woman also formerly resided

J. Thomas Mitchell Writes History Of Bar

1883-1894—Terms of Judge Adam ing personality and a good voice, Hoy and Judge Austin O. Furst and was elected as District-Attor-

For many years after the begining of this century, Huntingdon used in getting ore to the furnaces and in the box had melted into ning of this century. Huntingdon and Centre counties constituted the principal iron producing district in the early days of the iron in-principal iron producing district in the county. The ore in the Barrens and farmers would gather up surface area seemed to run a little less in face ore from their land and haul

Brisbin School Burns To Ground; No Confusion as Teachers Order Evacuation

Fire Occurs While County Medical Examiner gadget which is quaintly called a Is Present; Janitor's Safety Feared for a Time; No One Injured

Excitement reigned supreme in the trapped in the basement of the CLASSES: Brisbin area on Friday when the flaming structure. Brisbin school, a large frame struc-A fireman entered the burning ture, burned to the ground during building in an effort to effect a resschool hours.

Worried parents quickly gathered he was brought out. In the meancate their children. Many believed was safe. that the children had been caught | The fire started on the roof and is in the flames.

Houtzdale firemen were called out overheated furnace or defective GAWKER: but were unable to check the spread flue. The building was just 50 years of the raging fire and the building old, having been built in 1894.

burned to the ground.
The County Medical Examiner had arrived at the school and was Woman, 20, Held ust starting his examinations when the teacher, Miss Velma Lobb, detected the first whiff of smoke. She sent word to the other teachers and then announced:

"Children, we are going to have our weekly fire drill earlier todayin fact, we are going to have it right now," she announced. The doctor protested saying that it was too cold to send the children out but the teacher stated that it was something which had to be done. After they were safely outside, she sent them to nearby homes. The climax of excitement came when the roof collapsed shortly after the pupils had reached safety and it was feared the janitor was

Gates Re-elected Scout Chairman

State College Scoutmaster Receives Award For Work in 1943

cil throughout last year. Principal

He crawled on his hands and knees to the front part of the cellar. He was so weak by this time that he was unable to lift a large steel down which.

Selembers of the Pleasant Gap ceived first and second degree burns of the lower abdomen and the left with some major celery growing operations. In the old days, he said, only white celery could be sold, and steel down which mittee, was reader for the tableau. was a retired employe of the P. R. Officers elected for the year are R. Mr. Saleme was born in Italy

Mr. Gates, president; Mr. Wald, to Miss Marian Carr, who died 10 Lewistown, and John A. Kunz years ago. Five children survive, Huntingdon, vice presidents; D. C. ter Rupp, State College; linger, Huntingdon, are Mr. Gates and Mr. Wald. Bellefonte.

DRIVER DIES IN CRASH James Rohrbaugh, 32, of Mt. Wolf, York county, driver of an Alko Express lines truck, died Wednesday night of last week, during the test blackout in the flaming cab of his wrecked truck. Rohrbaugh, enroute from York to Altoona with a load of ged down traffic at the start of the blackout. His truck sideswiped a chemicals, approached a bridge at Newport as an air-raid warden flag-

Mrs. Irene Rhine, wife of Harry College, died at her home early Fri-

Random Items

This corner has been slightly outof-touch with infants' problems in the past few years, hence it was with some consternation that we realized the other day that rubber pants are no longer available. To control the damp indecencies committed by infants of the present they resort to a "soaker." We haven't had the courage to barge into an infants' shop to find out what these ersatz diapers look like, but we suppose it's a kind of mop arrangement.

If the Bellefonte school board decides to authorize regular classes in cue and it was with difficulty that non-sectarian religious education in the local schools, Father J. W. Palfy, at the school and became nearly time, however, the janitor had of St. Michael's church, Clarence frantic when they were unable to lo- climbed out a basement window and will see seeds he planted bearing fruit. Father Palfy suggested such classes in an article published in believed to have been caused by an this newspaper several years ago.

Friend reports he has devised a new sport. He used to be content with merely watching people, how they act, what they do, etc. He now has graduated to the stage where he finds greater enjoyment from watching people watching people Instead of watching a newcomer, for example, he watches other people gawking at the newcomer. It's all a trifle involved. Wheels within wheels, and that sort of thing, you

Mrs. Mae Shirk, 20, of Mill Hall, STILL AT IT:

being held under $500 bail until This department apparently is on the regular mailing list of the criminal court after pleading not "Peace Now Movement," of which guilty before Alderman Max J. Lipez George W. Hartmann, formerly of last Thursday to a charge of burglary. She was charged with breaking est batch of literature we received and entering the Henderson street from the New York headquarters there is an interesting sentence, as Chief of Police Martin J. Peters follows: "We are getting out press of Lock Haven, took into custody releases now to newspapers and a 13-year-old girl who claims that syndicates and we are eager to build she accompanied Mrs. Shirk on up a list of SMALL newspapers who Tuesday of last week when she went are more or less favorably inclined into the apartment. The child con- toward Peace Now." The word fessed that Mrs. Shirk obtained a "small" is underscored. George apscrew driver from the Del Grippo parently believes that the small shoe shop on the first floor, giving newspapers will swallow his stuff the clerk to understand that she hook, line, and sinker. Sawyer W was locked out of her own place. Clark, local movie projectionist, who The 13-year-old girl said that knows Mr. Hartmann of old, reports they opened the stripping of the this week's issue of "Life" carried Theodore J. Gates, of State Col- bathroom window which opens into a photo of him addressing a Peace lege, was re-elected president of the the hall and gained entrance. She Now rally in New York. Sawyer part in World War I. The sone "I

Returns from Africa

Returns from Africa

In the rear, the Reformed and the dinner.

Evangelical churches.

The only canalty reported was a dog owned by W. M. Bickford burntober was reported missing in action to be was reported missing in action by master's office.

Returns from Africa

In the rear, the Reformed and the dinner.

Ernest Gackenbach of State College, was presented with the Silver with the case.

Mrs. Probst confirmed the fact was change which has come over that $10 was missing from her home.

Returns from Africa

In the rear, the Reformed and the dinner.

Ernest Gackenbach of State College, was presented with the Silver with the case.

Mrs. Probst confirmed the fact was change which has come over that $10 was missing from her home. Members of the Pleasant Gap hose got away from him and he re- Bill Ferree, of the Kessinger service either had to bleach it with sulphur or some other chemical, or to hide the growing stalks from the with earth, or with paper "boots,"

> (Continued on Page Five) KILLED ON WAY TO FUNERAL

Mrs. Charles Naugle, 55, of Akron, Ohio, enroute to the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Emma Beam, 94, was The War Department tells how a killed last Thursday at Ebensburg commissioner; G. I. Phillips, Alex- Bible in the shirt pocket of Pvt. when she jumped or fell from the andria; S. M. Short, Juniata; Ches- Franklin Rarnell, Schuylkill Haven, skidding car of her husband. State Rabbi saved him from serious injury when police said they were told the door Mannin H. Bleich, Lewistown; Ray- shell and mortars dropped near 'us of the Naugle car flew open and mond Brooks, Bellefonte; F. H. Dut- position on the 36th "Texas Div- Mrs. Naugle tumbled out against the ision front in Italy. Rarnell, was side of a truck which was passing National Council representatives among those hit but the shrapnel The Naugles were going to Bedford spent itself in the leaves of the where Mrs. Naugle also was taken Mr. Smith led singing at last Bible with only a fragment pene- for burial. Her mother had been

FARM QUESTION BOX ED W. MITCHELL & Parm Advisor

A .- That depends on how much fore planting time.

FRANK P. SALEME

nearly 84 years ago. He was married

Bible Prevents Injury

Frank P. Saleme, father of Mrs.

In general, it is better and safer to grape vines. rotate to new land each season, but that is not always practical. Q.-How does sodium fluoride af-

As commonly used, there is little That allows about 32 buds per vine likelihood of children or pets eating and these are selected from the best any or enough to do any harm. Ants location to keep the vine in shape and roaches eat it directly if it is and from the best wood of the curused as a bait, and lick it off their rent season's growth.

Q.-Is it advisable to grow to- A.-Yes, unless the eyes have been from the bench. At that time the two terms in the Legislature. He judicial salary was only $4,000 per died in 1911.

disease was present the last season. Q.—Please tell me how to prune A .-- Any time during the winter while the vines are dormant. The job should be done by February 15

HISTORY OF SCOTIA By Harry M. Williams Harry M. Williams' history of old tral Railroad. Had this road been house. The saw broke loose from a ducing districts in the county, Pittsburgh and eastern cities manufacturing the iron which it produced.

Picturesque ruins of the little charcoal furnaces still dot its valleys. A Christmas, 1942, was a little late getting to Marine Corporal William the practice of law. Adam Hoy was a little late getting to Marine Corporal William the practice of law. Adam Hoy was larger than the Democratic majority in Centre, hence Austin O. Furst they should have been with the post. A package mailed to him by the practice of the was the first elected president-judge ter of Mrs. Myrtle Megan of State

Scotla continues with a review of built a few years sooner some of saw mill near Butler's home, ripped the type of ores found in this lo- these old ore mines may have been through the first New Zealand Bapin operation much longer, and could tist church and then plowed through For many years after the begin- and would have furnished a conning of this century Centre county siderable amount of ore to the furwas one of the principal iron pro- naces in Bellefonte and probably ducing districts in the county, Pitts- many other places. The various iron istorical account of the early enter- many advantages the industry had post. A package mailed to him by Hoy was a thorough student of the was the first elected president-judge ter of Mrs. Myrtle Megan of State

For many years after the begin- Many ways and methods were candy in the box had melted into his century. Huntingdon used in getting ore to the furnaces candy in the box had melted into terested in criminal law and had time of his admittance until Bea-