

Echoes From the Past

Fifty Years Ago

George Fasig has opened a confectionery and tobacco store in the McClure building on Allegheny street. Owing to impaired eyesight he is unable to follow his trade as a painter. Mr. Fasig is an industrious man and deserves patronage.

A social hop will be held at the Bush House on Friday evening of this week under the management of Messrs. John Furst and Thomas Morris. Stopper & Fisk's orchestra will furnish music and a large number of guests from a distance are expected.

H. B. Shaffer, the photographer, has gone to Philadelphia where he expects to spend a month or so under the direction of one of Philadelphia's best photographers and artists. Mr. Shaffer is a fine artist himself, but is ambitious and anxious to improve.

On Wednesday afternoon the Undine Fire Company brought their engine out to give it a test after being repaired. It looked like a brand new machine and scarcely a scratch or mark could have been found on it from the severe wreck it had on Monday morning. It worked well, if not better than ever, and the boys are delighted.

A three-year-old child of Judge C. Faulkner, of Philadelphia, recently had a needle extracted from under the skin of its left thigh by Dr. Dunwiddie. The needle was working down the child's limb and was just coming through the skin. It had suffered very much of late, and its parents did not know what ailed it. How the needle got there is not known.

The premature explosion of a large quantity of dynamite being thawed at Morris' quarries started our people Friday night. Starting at Milesburg on Sunday, was the pastime of some of our young bloods. On Wednesday of last week the creamery at Saloma was partly destroyed by fire. The Bellefonte Board of Health was organized last week.

T. Clayton Brown's store was purchased on Friday by H. C. Quiley, Esq., for the benefit of the assignees. The establishment is again open for business under the management of Mr. Brown. Hugh S. Taylor has fully concluded to be a candidate for tax collector of Bellefonte this year. He is being encouraged by his many friends, and will be very likely to poll a winning vote.

William, the 15-year-old son of F. A. McMullen, living at the Morris lime kilns along Buffalo Run, Saturday had his face badly burned by coming in too close proximity to an exploding fuse of powder. He was amusing himself with it and concluded to set it off, which he did, and the whole force lodged in his face. His eyes are blinded so that he has not been able to see anything since the accident. The physicians think the sight can be restored.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Rowe, of Bellefonte, departed for Port Ritchey, Florida, where Mr. Rowe, former owner of Hecla Park, was to manage a large hotel owned by his brother-in-law, C. F. York, of Detroit, Mich.

Dr. C. T. Shalleross, young dentist who had been assisting Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick in Bellefonte, was arranging to leave here to locate at Wildwood, N. J. He had been here more than a year and had become widely known locally during that time.

W. W. Smith, local superintendent of the Penn State Telephone Company, returned from Harrisburg where he attended a meeting of district superintendents. He was accompanied on the trip by Miss Kate McGowan, who was chief operator at the local exchange.

The Garman Opera House was purchased by the Bellefonte Moose Lodge for $20,000. The lodge planned to make extensive improvements to the theatre, and expected to continue with its operation. The fourth floor was to be converted into a banquet hall. The lodge rooms in the McClain block were to be abandoned.

Construction of the new Decker garage building on South Spring street was being rushed to completion because of the rapidly growing business of that company. Clement Dale, Esq. was slowly recovering at his home on North Allegheny street from an illness which had kept him housed up some time.

Remodeling of the William Keadry woods store was in progress, and the store was closed while new show windows were being installed.

C. C. Hassinger, former Centre county man who had been employed as a superintendent near Norris town, had secured a six-months' option on the Jacob Behler farm near Waddle. The farm of over one hundred acres was said to contain one of the best and most valuable veins of limestone in Centre county. Work was to be started immediately on the development of the tract. Mr. Hassinger, who spent his early life at Scotia, was a son of Mrs. John Hassinger, of Port Matilda.

At a regular meeting of the Bellefonte Business Men's Association, the following committees were named to serve during the year: Executive, N. E. Robb, F. M. Crawford and George H. TEACHING IN PARABLES

International Sunday School Lesson for January 23, 1944. GOLDEN TEXT: "If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear."—Mark 4: 23.

(Lesson Text: Mark 4: 1-9; 26-34)

As the hostility of the synagogue leaders became more pronounced against Jesus he changed his method of teaching. Until now he has spoken plainly and proclaimed great truths so that all might understand but, with the Pharisees seeking to entrap him, Jesus began to speak in parables.

"Parables are stories or short stories, taken from nature or from common life," says Hastings' Bible Dictionary, "which present in a picturesque and vivid way some thought or principle which is capable of being transformed to the high spiritual life of man." The parable teaches by comparison. The object of nature or human happening is placed beside truth so that it illustrates and Jesus explains the latter.

Jesus adopted the parabolic method because the truths would be apparent to those fitted to receive them yet furnished his enemies no positive basis upon which they could seek to entrap him with the ecclesiastical authorities of the temple. His parables were easily understood by simple followers, were so attractive as to be readily remembered and embraced such fundamental truths as to be profitable for serious contemplation upon them.

Mark's gospel gives us here seven parables as used by Jesus, the first of which was that which we know as the Parable of the Sower. Others were those of the wheat and tares, the mustard seed, the leaven, the hidden treasure, the pearl of great price, and the draw-net. The Oriental mind from China and India to Palestine was accustomed to this method of teaching.

To the large crowd which gathered around the Sea of Galilee Jesus gave these parables, seated in a boat near the shore to avoid the crush of the multitude which had followed him and waited his word. Our lesson this week considers what is generally accepted to have been the first parable used by Jesus, one which he explained himself in detail to his intimate followers and disciples.

From his seaside seat Jesus doubtless looked over a field and this comparison came to his mind. The sower of grain depended largely upon the nature of the soil upon which his seed fell for the harvest which would follow. So, as seed was generally scattered by the sower, Jesus said, it fell on four kinds of soil, on the foot-trodden path, shallow ground untried with rock, in the midst of thorns, and on good tillable soil. In his explanation of the parable he likened each kind of soil to a kind of hearer of the word of truth spoken by him.

Seed left by the wayside had no chance to germinate because the birds found it easily and ate it. So, in life, many hearts have become hardened and if the word reaches them it is quickly destroyed and taken away by evil.

Some seed fell on shallow, rocky ground, where it immediately took root and sprang up, but lacking depth the plant died just as soon as the hot sun parched it. This represents those in life who receive truth gladly, with much outward emotion, probably change their life for a time, but when trouble or sorrow comes

We are sorry to hear that Long Edward Gill has been confined to his home due to illness. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. We are all glad to hear the report that John Dillon has returned from the army but are sorry to hear that his physical condition is not so good. We hope to see him recover soon and be able to resume his former position.

"Kattie" and Mrs. R. M. Alexander have just returned from Tyrone, where they enjoyed a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Alexander.

Robert Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hale, of Furnace street, will soon leave us to enter the armed forces. Good luck, "Bob," and let us hear from you.

Russell Black and Mrs. Gene Adams have secured employment at the Titan Metal plant at Bellefonte. Carl Alexander has just purchased a valuable dog. It is of the Dober pinscher type and is endowed with high ability and talent in retrieving lost cows and stolid sheep. He is very proud of this dog and is eager at all times to give demonstrations showing the functioning of high intellectuality.

Like Admiral Halsey we have gone out of the business of forecasting the date when the war will end. After the war there will be many Legal Notices.

Women of America IT'S UP TO YOU! Our ENEMIES have boasted that American women are pampered, luxury-loving morons who would be of no help to our fighting men at war. But—they were wrong. American women everywhere are doing a bang-up job—in the service, in industry, in business, on the farm and in the home. But—bigger incomes are tempting some women to buy luxuries they've wanted, perhaps for years, but which they don't really need now. Every true American woman prays that the war will end—soon. But you've got to do more to hasten victory, for 1944 is the year of decision. You've got to do your full duty by our boys at the front by keeping up your regular purchases of War Bonds by buying at least one extra $100 Bond during this Drive and by saving every cent you can in the world's best investment—War Bonds of the Fourth War Loan. When the war is over, you'll have a lot more money to buy what you want. Meanwhile, you can exit in the knowledge that you are fighting for your country in the most effective way possible. Women of America—it's up to you!
