Vermont's 1943 Auto License Plates
Vermont automobiles will carry 1943 license tags manufactured from salvaged tin cans, saving more than 20 tons of 24-gauge steel for war purposes. The Council of State Governments reported. The cans are salvaged from state institutions.

The 1943 license plates, "tabs or 'ears'" bolted to 1942 number plates, and bear the same registration number as the '42 plate. The tabs are made at the state prison, where the cans are received, rolled and put through an embossing machine. Approximately 80,000 sets of tabs for front and rear plates are being manufactured from the tin cans.

Rabat, Political Capital
Rabat, Morocco's political capital, Rabat occupies the angle between the Atlantic shoreline and the south bank of the Bou Regreg at its mouth. The city, with 84,000 people, is one of the four seals of the Sultan of Morocco. It is some 600 years old, founded as a "camp" (rabat) by Moors expelling over their conquest of Spain. Its ancient watch towers look down on the ocean and on Sale across the river. Rabat's older, eclipsed sister city,

Corsica's Climate
Corsica's three-ply climate offers something for every taste—a warm coastal belt of temperatures comparable to the Mediterranean coast of Spain and Italy; a slightly cooler low altitude mountain and coast combination; and an invigorating high altitude climate, inviting in the summer. Average rainfall at Ajaccio, the capital, never gets above 23 inches. Long droughts are common.

Sugar for Service Man on Furlough
Even if the man in uniform is home only for a week, he can get a half-pound sugar ration for that week—and another for any fraction over one week. As soon as he arrives home he can apply to the local War Price and Rationing board for his sugar certificate. Then he can be sure of his share of sugar while home on leave.

Babies-in-Arms Bureau
Fort Bliss, Texas, has unofficially waived the age requirement for non-com ranks, at least in the case of Sergt. Maj. Jimmy Mansfield, three-week-old son of Captain Mansfield, who was recently presented with an honorary warrant, a sterling silver cup, and an order to report for duty as soon as possible.

Army Show Becomes Hit
"Hey Rookie" is pulling itself up by its own bootstraps into the Third-Army class of funny-money-makers. Now in its third week at Los Angeles, Belasco, the all-soldier talent-show originating at Fort MacArthur, Calif., has passed the $7,800 mark and continues to pile 'em in.

Dead Hog on His Hands
An Alabama farmer, with a 654-pound dead hog on his hands, remembered the fat salvage campaign and telephoned the state rationing officer, who made arrangements to have the animal rendered down for use against the Axis.

Coat Marks the Spot
Out hunting, Grover Dunn of Arkansas City, Kan., shot a bird and then ran to retrieve it. He put his coat down to mark the approximate spot where the bird fell and then began a careful search of the brush. He had no luck. Owing up in disgust, he picked up his coat and under it lay the bird.

Snakes in Pipe
When a plumber, called by Mrs. Adelia Ward of Belgrade, Neb., to open a clogged drain pipe, investigated, he found that sixty garter and bull snakes had used the pipe for their winter quarters.

wine, district representative, explained the farm materials program. Any local farmers needing information on the amount of fertilizer and lime they may secure, should contact one of these men.

The Music Club, with Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew and Mrs. R. S. Jamison as hostesses, entertained Mrs. Delas R. Keener at a dessert bridge Friday evening at the Bartholomew home. At this time the
